 Adams 5; Wonders 6.
 The Wonders went down to defeat before the fast ball team from Adams at the Matlock ball park yesterday afternoon. The game was full of errors owing to the wind and dust which filled the eyes of both ball players and rooters pretty nearly all the time.
 Tardiff, the Pendleton southpaw, pitched a beautiful game, striking out 13 men and allowing the enemy only five safe hits.
 Wilson for the visitors also pitched a good game, but was batted pretty freely by the heavy hitters of the Wonders.
 The management of the Wonders has secured new men and their lineup will be pretty nearly twice as strong as it was yesterday. They will play the Echo team here next Sunday.

the seventh it was a shut out affair for both sides. After Pendleton's phenomenal spurt, Walla Walla also became industrious and added two.
 Both Tallaferro and Ehmeke did good work in the box, though the former was a little wild, walking four men in the course of the game.
 The superiority of Van Houten over Munson as a catcher was shown in the number of stolen bases by each side, Pendleton getting 12 and Walla Walla but one.
 Pendleton would probably have won Sunday's game but for the fact that Aubin had pitched two games the day before. Lorimer's team also suffered when the ball was knocked out into the alfalfa field and lost.
 The real trouble, however, was started in the sixth when five hits, one a homer, and two errors, netted Walla Walla six runs.
 Then in the tenth with the bases full by a walk and two errors, Wells bunted for an out and then McAllister, the phenomenal short stop, made his third hit of the game, bringing in the winning run.
 Aubin was injured in the eighth inning and Dean was sent to the center patch.
 The following is the score by innings and the summary of Saturday's game:

RIVAL SQUAWS FIGHT
FOR PETE CORBETT
 Pete's Wife, Bruised and Beaten, Sees Another Woman Drive Off With Her Brave.
 An episode that attracted almost as much interest as the circus Saturday evening was an Indian family quarrel that occurred on Court street during the afternoon between the wife of Peter Corbett, the gay Umatilla lothario, and another squaw who sought to steal the affections of the dusky Pete.
 During the afternoon a fistie battle between the two squaws occurred on the streets and apparently Mrs.
 Corbett was not up to the pugilistic standard that would be expected of one bearing her husband's illustrious name. Following the fight the other woman lured the erring husband into her buggy and headed towards the reservation.
 But not daunted by her first defeat Corbett's wife jumped into her own buggy and headed off the runaways.
 Fortunately for the injured wife her team was the larger of the two and when the eloping couple would try to drive away she would turn across their pathway and block proceedings.
 Side by side and striking at each other with their buggy whips the two squaws drove down Court street tocottonwood and meanwhile the throng gathered. But at the corner of the street a mishap occurred that turned the tide of battle once more against the wife of Corbett. The neckyoke of her buggy came unfastened and while she was thus handicapped the runaway couple sped towards the reservation.

 Money Expended in the United States for Liquor as for Education.

Floto circus in this city at the Saturday afternoon performance that the seating capacity of the big tent would not accommodate all who sought admission and several loads of straw were hauled in and scattered upon the ground and people were seated upon this in large numbers. It was the first time in the history of the city that the seats would not hold the crowd at a circus.
 The crowd was well rewarded for attending, also, as it was one of the neatest, cleanest, best kept, best appearing and attractive circuses ever to show in this city. The animals and especially the horses were in excellent condition, the feats were new and fascinating and the general air of the circus was excellent.

The management and employes of the Sells-Floto circus are both far above the ordinary circus standard.
 The business is transacted in a first-class, business-like manner, and the show is conducted on business principles and the entire force with the circus was of a different type from that which accompanies the ordinary circus.
 Miss Boyd to Europe.
 Miss Ida Boyd of this city, who has been in Portland and Los Angeles for the past few months, sailed from New York city for Europe on May 28, for a few months' visit. She sailed on the Cunard steamer, Carpathia, which will reach Liverpool on Thursday of this week.

In the first two games of the second series in the Inland Empire league Pendleton has divided even with Walla Walla on the latter's home grounds.
 Pendleton won Saturday's game by a good margin and lost Sunday's exhibition by one run. Both teams have been strengthened and are playing good ball.
 Seven proved to be the traditional lucky number for Pendleton in Saturday's game, for in the inning answering to that numeral, five men in gray were sent across the plate, practically winning the game.
 Walla Walla had made two runs in the first canto and thereafter up to

ATTORNEYS DISBARRED.
 Washington Lawyers Swindle Old Soldiers or Their Widows.
 Washington, June 1.—Six prominent Washington attorneys have been disbarred from practice in the department of the interior after today.
 It is alleged that they sought out old soldiers or their widows to whom land grants had not been issued and informed them that such land could be had on application. When the warrants were issued the lawyers advised the holders that the land could be sold at a nominal figure. In most cases the veterans would agree, the land becoming the property of the lawyers, who sold it at a large profit.
 The lawyers discharged are Thomas R. Harney and Eugene E. Stevens, forming the firm of Milo B. Stevens & Co.; Harvey Spaulding, Edwin W.
 Spaulding and James H. Spaulding, forming the firm of H. Spaulding & Sons, and Edgar P. Goddard.

FOR STRAWBERRY DAY
 Scores Would Go Up from Pendleton If Trains Run So Trip Could Be Made Same Day.
 This forenoon a movement was started here towards running a special train to Milton June 4, Strawberry Day, and already a goodly number of tickets have been pledged. All those who wish to go to Milton for that day are asked to sign for tickets and thereby secure the train.
 Thursday will be Milton's gala day and from appearances, preparations are being made for a celebration that will eclipse the Strawberry festival of last spring.
 Aside from the strawberries a horse show will also be held the same day and the managers of the meet promise to display the greatest collection of horses ever seen in Umatilla county. Prizes are offered for the best animals in the different classes.
 This forenoon the special train subscription paper was started and two or more seats were ordered by A.
 Alexander, T. C. Taylor, Leon Cohen and others.

One of the most eloquent, convincing and earnest addresses ever given in this city on any subject was delivered from the court house steps Sunday afternoon by President S. B. L.
 Penrose of Whitman college on the economic features of the liquor question.
 Dr. Penrose did not attempt to depict the moral phases of the subject but simply appealed to voters and taxpayers from the economic side of question, showing the enormous waste of strength, money, brains and muscle which is entailed upon the people of the world by the liquor habit.
 He showed that the amount of money expended annually by the people of the United States for liquor is about $4.90 per capita, while the sum expended for education is but slightly over $2 per annum per capita.
 He showed that every other enterprise in the world which is recognized as an honorable institution, produces something which is more valuable than the raw material which it uses, while the liquor traffic, the saloon, produces something infinitely less valuable than the raw material which it uses.
 "We are planning to make Whitman college the Yale of the northwest," said Dr. Whitman, "and in that plan we must raise $2,000,000. I recently called upon a rich Portland man to ask him to help us in this great enterprise, and he told me that he could not help as long as Walla Walla was considered a rough town, a saloon town, an immoral town, but that he would gladly help when conditions were cleaned up and the town made better morally."
 "So I am interested in cleaning up Walla Walla morally and I want you people of Pendleton and Umatilla county to vote for prohibition and we across the line in Washington will be encouraged to take a similar step when we have the opportunity." The court house yard was well filled with an interested and appreciative audience for Dr. Penrose's address.
