In Ferndale precinct the question of stock running at large was voted upon and received a vote of 12 to 62 against.

In the race for constable of this district the vote between Bentley and Heathman was as follows in the four precincts: Pendleton, Heathman, 116; Bentley, 117. North Pendleton, Heathman, 85; Bentley, 180. South Pendleton, Heathman, 140; Bentley, 127. East Pendleton, Heathman, 84; Bentley, 101.

POSTOFFICE GROWS.
Receipts for May Are One-fourth Greater Than Last May.

For the month of May just closed the receipts at the Pendleton postoffice were more than 25 per cent greater than that for the same month last year. By the report of Harry Rees, assistant postmaster, just completed, it is shown that for the past month the total receipts of the office were $1546.74 while for May, 1907, the receipts were but $933.60.

As much campaign literature was mailed out during the past month it is probable that the increase was partially due to that cause. But it is improbable that such an enormous increase was caused in that manner.

Ideal Club Meets.
The Ideal club will hold a social at the home of John Myrick, 908 Locust hill, Friday night. The members have arranged for a good social time, to which all young people are invited.
The Ideal club has had a remarkable growth and has done much good in the line of social work, and giving the young people a monthly social of extensive work both literary and musical. One feature is that different kinds of refreshments are served at each social, from any that were served before.

Thomson Leaves Saturday.
Asa B. Thomson, chairman of the republican county central committee, is now preparing to leave Saturday for Chicago with the other seven members of the Oregon delegation to the national republican convention.

DRY RIDE, EVEN FOR A CAMEL

The Dalles is Only Oasis Along O. R. & N. Between Portland and Baker City.

233-MILE STRETCH
WITHOUT A DROP.

Five Counties in a String, From Wasco to Baker, are Dry as a Desert—Prohibitionists Win Great Victories —Forty-nine Saloons closed in Eastern Oregon Railroad Towns—Little Liquor Can Be Handled on Trains and Company Will Probably Abolish Practice—Nine Precincts in Baker Vote Out Saloons.

As a result of the heavy prohibition vote cast in eastern Oregon counties last Monday, the O. R. & N. railroad now traverses a long "dry" stretch through Sherman, Gilliam, Morrow, Umatilla and Union counties and the only place at which thirsty travelers can now secure a drink in an open saloon between Portland and Baker City is at The Dalles, even Arlington, the strongest small saloon town in eastern Oregon, going "dry" by a heavy vote.

For 233 miles in one stretch from Deschutes to North Powder, the O.
R. & N. traverses "dry" territory.
Deschutes is on the boundary line between Wasco and Sherman counties and there the train enters the long reach of prohibition territory, and from that point until the train crosses Powder river into Baker county, at North Powder station, no liquor can be sold on trains and none will be purchasable in an open saloon after July 1.

In that 233 miles of territory, 49 saloons in railroad towns have been voted out of existence, as follows: Arlington, 3; Umatilla, 3; Hermiston, 1; Echo, 4; Pendleton, 25; La Grande, 11; Hilgard, 1; North Powder, 1.

At North Powder where Powder river runs through the town is the dividing line between Baker and Union counties. Dave Beveridge, a pioneer saloon man is preparing to move his building just across the river into Baker county, 200 yards from his present location, and declares that he will continue in business.

However, since Baker county voted five additional "dry" precincts this year, making a total of nine in the county, it is the opinion of the people of that county that the entire county will go "dry" at the next election, and perhaps sooner, should a prohibition vote be requested.

As a result of the prohibition vote, but little liquor will be handled on dining cars hereafter and it is thought the company will abolish the practice of carrying liquor on the cars, altogether. The territory from Umatilla to the Washington state line on the Washington division of the O. R.
& N. and from Pendleton to state line, will be "dry" and so but little liquor business can be done on cafe cars.

JOHN SCHMIDT WILL FARM.

Proprietor of Louvre Saloon Will Not Leave Pendleton or Umatilla County.

John Schmidt, proprietor of the Louvre saloon on Main street, and one of the pioneer saloonmen of the city, will move out to his wheat farm north of the city and will engage in farming permanently. Mr. Schmidt has made a fortune out of the liquor business here and has invested it judiciously, having a large brick building on Main street, a good wheat farm and other property.

He has faith in Pendleton and Umatilla county and will not leave here. He has just completed an elegant residence in the Cole addition to the north side of the city and is one of the most prosperous liquor dealers in the county.

MAZE SALOON CLOSED BY ATTACHMENT SUIT.

Fixtures and Stock May Be Sold to Satisfy Debt.

The Maze saloon, on Court street, is now closed by an attachment suit brought against its owners, Hansen & Olsen, by George Brewer.

The suit was brought to recover a claim of $1250 held by the plaintiff and it is understood that the fixtures and liquor stock of the saloon will be sold by the sheriff to satisfy the debt.

The claim against the Maze was from a note that had been transferred to the plaintiff, who brought the attachment proceedings through Attorneys Carter & Smythe.

SHANIKO WOOL UNSOLD.

Growers Refuse to Part With Clip at Prices Offered by Buyers.

After having purchased but little of the Shaniko wool the wool buying party returned to the city last evening. At the sale just held at Shaniko nearly all the heavy growers refused to part with their clips at the prices offered and they will hold until the next sale which is set for June 16.

During the sale just held the prices ranged from 95-8 to 137-8.
The next sale will be held at Vale June 5.

BIG EAGLE COMING.

Deputy Grand President J. E. Brink of St. Johns to Visit Pendleton Aerie.

Deputy Grand President J. E.
Brink of the Fraternal Order of Eagles will pay an official visit to Pendleton aerie Friday night when special efforts will be made to have a large attendance to greet the grand officer.

Tomorrow night has been designated as "Seattle Night" by Pendleton aerie, the time at which arrangements will be made to send a degree team of 12 members and a large walking club of the grand aerie which meets in Seattle on August 11-13.

President James Estes of Pendleton aerie makes a special request of members to attend in large numbers tomorrow night, that the matter of sending a large team and walking club to the grand aerie meeting may be discussed fully.

A reception will be tendered Deputy Grand President Brink in the evening and everything will be done to make his stay in the city pleasant.

OREGON VOTERS FAVOR MANY NEW MEASURES.

Recall Is Adopted and Statement No.
1 Is Bolstered Up—University Appropriation Carries.

Oregon voters favor the recall, the limiting of campaign expenditures of candidates, proportional representation, and the instruction of legislative members to vote for the people's choice for United States senator.

By adopting the measure instructing legislative members to vote for the candidate receiving the highest number of popular votes for United States senator, the people have confirmed statement No. 1.

The people have, apparently defeated the proposed increase in pay of members of the legislature from $3 to $10 a day and voted against the proposed increase of judges on the supreme bench. The proposed compulsory pass bill has been knocked out by a landslide of disapproval and woman's suffrage has gone down to defeat once more, the vote against it being even more decisive than in the past, when greater interest was taken in the question. The single tax also went down to defeat, although not so hard as some of the other proposed measures.

There appears to be a desire on the part of the people to scatter state institutions and not keep them all at Salem. The idea of holding state elections in November instead of June also appears to have met with general approval. The people have voted favorably on the referendum measure whereby sheriffs shall receive 12 1/2 cents a meal for feeding prisoners.

The university appropriation has carried, but was battered hard in counties where there were large educational institutions. The armory appropriation is supposed to have squeezed through, but by what majority is not known.

From such indications as can be gathered it is safe to assume that five of the measures were rejected and 15 accepted. Both the fish bills passed and it looks as though the Reddy amendment, or "open town" measure had met with favorable consideration.

That grand jury and not district attorneys should bring indictments was the opinion of the voters and this measure has carried. The proposed county of Hood River will be created and the powers of the Port of Portland will be increased.

Weston Mountain Thriving.

R. F. Johnson the pioneer resident of Briggsdon or Weston mountain is in the city today on a trading trip and is enthusiastic over the prospects ahead of his section. A larger acreage of potatoes will be planted in that favored district this year than ever before and a larger amount of produce will be shipped out next fall than in any one year. The new market found in Seattle for the Weston mountain potatoes has encouraged the progressive people of that settlement to grow more potatoes and hereafter immense shipments will be made from that section.

Musical Instructor Here.

Prof. J. L. Lehr, of the German method of music, by which a scientific chart giving instruction in 115 vital points in music, is in the city today from Seattle looking over the field and will perhaps establish an agency here. The new method has met with eminent success wherever introduced and is a practical and common sense method of musical instruction.

Will Ship Bland's Body.

The body of C. H. Bland, brother of C. K. Bland, the Hermiston merchant, will be shipped east this evening. The body goes to Kalispell, Mont., for interment. The father and a brother of the deceased arrived here last evening and went to Hermiston today. They will accompany the body to Kalispell.

The General Demand

of the Well-Informed of the World has always been for a simple, pleasant and efficient liquid laxative remedy of known value; a laxative which physicians could sanction for family use because its component parts are known to them to be wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, acceptable to the system and gentle, yet prompt, in action.

In supplying that demand with its excellent combination of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, the California Fig Syrup Co. proceeds along ethical lines and relies on the merits of the laxative for its remarkable success.

That is one of many reasons why Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is given the preference by the Well-Informed. To get its beneficial effects always buy the genuine—manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only, and for sale by all leading druggists. Price fifty cents per bottle.

HAUNTED BY OLD CRIMES.
Murderer of Family and Suicide Was One of Dalton Gang.

Fear that his home would be attacked should his early life of crime become known, is believed to have caused Bert McMillin to shoot and instantly kill his wife and two children and then commit suicide. The tragedy occurred on the ranch of Whitmore Thomas, near Labello, Mo., and was witnessed by two farm hands.

It developed that McMillin was at one time a member of the famous Dalton gang of outlaws that terrorized western Kansas and eastern Oklahoma a few years ago and that his brother Gus, also a member of the gang, was shot to death in Oklahoma. Since coming here last October, McMillin has had very little to say to his neighbors, and it is believed he lived in constant dread lest his past life become known. Mrs. Mc-Millin often confided to friends that her husband was constantly worrying.
McMillin was 39 years of age and his wife 27. They had been married 10 years.
