CORRIGAN WAS DISMISSED.
 Pendleton Liquor Dealer Released From Charge of Passing Old Bank Notes.
 The case against P. A. Corrigan of this city, who was accused by the authorities of Walla Walla county of having passed old bills issued before the war by a Georgia bank, has been dismissed.
 The one small bill passed by Mr.
 Corrigan was passed by him at Wallula and he did not visit Walla Walla as stated. He was in Wallula for the purpose of disposing of a part of his stock of liquors in this city and while there treated a crowd of friends and gave out a bill in payment which proved to be a Georgia bill which he had taken as good money and which was not recognized as a worthless bill until after he had left Wallula on his return to Pendleton.
 Large numbers of these old bills are now in circulation and are being taken in by business men through mistake, every day in some part of the northwest.

SMYTHE CAPTAIN OF COMPANY L
 SUCCESSOR TO CAPTAIN
 KERN IS CHOSEN
 E. B. Aldrich Advanced from Second Lieutenant to First and Sergeant R.
 N. Oliver Becomes Second Lieutenant—Sergeant Charles Vinler Wins Medal for Best Drillmaster Among Non-Commissioned Officers.
 At a meeting of the members of company L, held following the drill last evening, company officers were elected to fill vacancies created through the resignation of Captain M.
 S. Kern and the result was the advancement of the two remaining officers and of the first sergeant.
 Dan P. Smythe was elected captain, E. B. Aldrich as first lieutenant and First Sergeant Roland Oliver as second lieutenant. In each case the election was unanimous.
 Though the resignation of Captain Kern has not yet been formally accepted the company held its election last night because the time for the annual encampment is drawing near and it was necessary to act at once in order to allow the new lieutenant time in which to equip himself before the company leaves for American lake.
 When the resignation of Captain Kern is formally accepted the local company will be asked to recommend a successor and at that time the action taken last night will be ratified by the company. The appointments of officers will then be made by the governor, upon the recommendation of the adjutant general, provided the proper examinations are passed.
Vinler Won Medal.
 At the drill by Company L last evening Sergeant Charles Vinler won the honor of being the best drillmas-ter among the non-commissioned officers of the company and he was awarded the silver medal that had been offered.
 The entire evening was devoted to the contest between the "non-coms" and six of the company sergeants and corporals competed for the honor.
 Excellent work was done by all of them, but that of Sergeant Vinler was regarded as most satisfactory.
 George Hartman, jr., first lieutenant of the Second Oregon, and C. K.
 Cranston, formerly a captain in the O. N. G., served as judges of the contest. At the close of the same the medal was awarded by Mr. Hartman and both judges addressed the company briefly.
 At the drill last night orders were given for the company to drill in the service uniforms during the remainder of the summer and the blue uniforms will be laid aside until fall.
 As now planned, the company will go into camp at the Oliver place below the city on Saturday evening, remaining there until Sunday afternoon.

chosen from among the Woodmen, while the other three will be James Hill, Will Shannon and Will Knight.
 Since the terrible accident yesterday in which young Zeuske was killed, his parents here have been nearly prostrated with grief and they have had the kindest sympathy from a host of friends and neighbors. Outside the family there is also deep regret over young Zeuske's death for he was well liked by those who knew him.
 The deceased was born in Houston county, Minnesota, December 25, 1878, and was therefore 30 years of age when killed. With his parents he came to this country in 1880. Aside from his sorrowing parents he leaves a wife and one child, a 1-year-old son.

Arrangements have been made to hold the funeral of Edward Zeuske, killed in a runaway at Weston yesterday, tomorrow evening and the interment will be in the cemetery at Helix.
 A special train on the Northern Pacific branch has been chartered and it will leave here at 12:30 tomorrow.
 The funeral will be held at Helix upon the arrival of the special train.
 The deceased was a member of the Woodmen of the World and members of that order and other friends and relatives will go on the special train to Helix. The funeral service will be conducted by Rev. Walter Paine of Weston.

FERGUSON WINS VICTORY.
 Deputy District Attorney Wins First Legal Battle.
 By convicting Bert Nation of assault and battery in the justice court last evening Charles J. Ferguson, deputy district attorney, won his first legal battle and today he was warmly congratulated by friends who have watched with interest his advent into the profession of law.
 The trial of Nation occupied most of the afternoon in Justice Parkes' court yesterday and an evening session was held to complete the case.
 Nation, who is a ditch rider and was charged with assaulting Ferdinand Kraft, was defended by S. A. Newberry, while J. T. Hinkle served as an advisory attorney for the defense.
 A hard fight was made in behalf of Nation, but as attorney for the state Deputy Ferguson was amply equal to the occasion and as a result the prosecution scored a victory.
 At the conclusion of the case Judge Parkes held Nation to be guilty as charged and imposed a fine of $5 and costs. The latter will be heavy.

TEUSCH ASKS RELEASE.
 Lee Teusch has applied to Federal Judge Wolverton for an order freeing him from the obligations which encumbered him at the time he went bankrupt and which have been settled with the money derived from the bankrupt estate. The order which has been asked on behalf of Teusch is one that is always granted at the termination of such a case and it will be granted by Judge Wolverton providing the proper showing is made. Judge Wolverton has set June 25 as a time for passing on the above matter.

SPECIAL RATE ON CORD WOOD.
 During the months of May and June the O. R. & N. company has had a special rate of $1 per cord from Meacham to Pendleton on cord wood in hopes that the wood dealers of this city would stock up during the summer season, but so far little wood has been shipped in-on the special rate.
 The rate from Meacham to Walla Walla remains the same as it was, Pendleton having been given an advantage in the rate by the company.

LAND OPEN TO ENTRY.
 About 600 Acres of Wenaha Forest Will Be Thrown Open in August.
 Six hundred acres of land in Columbia county, at present a part of the Wenaha national forest reserve, will be thrown open to entry some time in August, according to a notice received this morning by Register A.
 J. Gillis of the land office, in this city, says the Walla Walla Bulletin.
 The land, it is said, is valuable for agricultural purposes, and it was on account of this that it will be opened for entry.
 Several residents of Columbia county, living near where this land is located, have applied to have this land opened for entry, and these people will be given the first right of filing.

REVIVAL AT PILOT ROCK.
 Presbyterians Holding Successful Series of Tent Meetings This Week.
 A successful series of tent meetings is being held at Pilot Rock by the Presbyterian church this week. The meetings are under direction of Rev.
 Levi Johnson, Sunday school missionary, and are being held in a large gospel tent erected in the little town.
 Rev. A. J. Adams arrived from Moor last evening and went out to assist in the meetings. Rev. W. L.
 Van Nuys of this city opened the meetings on Monday evening when an excellent attendance was enjoyed.
 Much interest is being manifested in the meetings and they will continue at least throughout this week.

COUNCIL TONIGHT.
 Cemetery Water System and Financial Plans to Be Discussed.
 At the council meeting to be held this evening further matters relating to the construction of the cemetery water system will be brought up and it is possible that the contract for constructing the reservoir and laying the pipes will be let. The contract for the pipe has already been awarded to Neagle Bros.
 Since the first bids on the reservoir and piping work were received the cemetery committee has secured a reduction of $1000 in the original bid and it is said a further reduction may be made.
 Aside from the above it is probable that the council tonight will have a further discussion of the financial condition of the city.

BIG LAND DEAL.
 R. N. Stanfield Purchased 4760 Acres Near Echo for $11,900.
 For the price of $11,900, R. N.
 Stanfield has purchased 4760 acres of land from J. Frank Watson, the deed being filed here today. The land included in the deal lies in township 3, north of range 31 and is west of Echo. Some of the land is in the vicinity of Fosters.
 In the deed which has been recorded, the grantor reserves the right to any land upon which coal or iron exists or where those things may be discovered in the future. The land was originally Northern Pacific property and when it passed from N. P. hands it was with this reservation.

HELIX WILL CELEBRATE.
 Anniversary of Nation's Birth Will Be Remembered.
 That Helix will celebrate the Fourth of July this year is declared by M. L. Morrison, the Helix merchant who with his wife has been in the city today.
 "We celebrated the fourth two years ago and had a nice time," said Mr. Morrison. "Monday night we decided to hold a celebration this year and we are now making arrangements for the day."

Sold Fine Herefords.
 George Linsner, the well known breeder of Hereford cattle of the southwest part of the county, is in the city after a load of supplies for his farm. He recently sold a fine lot of young Hereford cattle in the shipment sent out over the Northern Pacific to Seattle this week. Among the cattle and was one three year old bull which weighed 1900 pounds. Mr. Linsner has one of the finest herds of Herefords in eastern Oregon and took a large number of prizes at the district fair here last year. He has a number of fine young animals for sale and is meeting with excellent success in his business.

More Northern Pacific Trains.
 Two trains bearing the Sells-Floto circus from northern Idaho into Montana passed through the city last evening at 9 o'clock over the O. R. & N. The trains were blockaded by the washouts on the Northern Pacific and were forced to come by way of the O. R. & N. and Short Line to Butte, where they will resume their schedule of performances.

FRED LOCKLEY TO LOS ANGELES Former Pendleton Man to Have Charge of California Field for Pacific Monthly.
 Fred Lockley, formerly circulation manager of the East Oregonian, has just been assigned the California advertising field for Pacific Monthly of Portland and will hereafter reside in Los Angeles.
 For the past two years Mr. Lockley has been field advertising agent in the northwest states and his promotion to the California field is a fitting recognition of his ability in that line of work. He will write advertising articles and solicit advertising from the cities and communities of California and will conduct a campaign for the growing Oregon magazine in the golden state.

Saloon Into Show Shop.
 By the removal of the Eagles Show Shop, now in the Eagles' building, to the location formerly used by the Pullman saloon, the first of several changes predicted since the town went dry is now being made. Today carpenters are at work transforming the old Pullman into a suitable moving picture show room and the change in the location will be made as soon as the work can be completed.

St. Barnabas' Day.
 Tomorrow being St. Barnabas' day,
