BIG GAME IS ON TOMORROW

BAKER CITY WILL CROSS BATS WITH LOCAL TEAM

First Contest Between These Two Teams This Year—Both Have Been Strengthened Recently and Will Put Up Good Article of Ball—Emerick Has Not Yet Arrived—Van Houten in the Game Again.

For the first time since the Inland Empire league was formed, Baker City and Pendleton will cross bats tomorrow afternoon in the first game of the series to be played at the Matlock grounds. For many reasons the game is being looked forward to with interest. Pendleton will not only be playing against a new opponent, but there will also be some new men in the Pendleton lineup.

Emerick, the star catcher, is expected here from Stevenson this evening or tomorrow morning. He is slated to play behind the bat tomorrow. Tallafiero will be in the box again while Conrad will be at his old place on first. Van Houten will hold down second, Dean third, while Mollie Baker will play short. The outfielders will be McCool, Aubin and Tracy Baker.

Buckaroo Contest Sunday.
 At Sunday's game there will be an additional attraction in the form of a buckaroo contest that is to be pulled off immediately after the game. Those at the game will be admitted to remain to the contest free. Some good riders and some wily outlaws have been secured for the riding contest and it will be worth seeing.

In order to permit of both the ball game and the riding tournament the game Sunday will commence at 2:30.
 Tomorrow's game begins at 3 o'clock.

Support the Team.
 Last night a meeting of baseball enthusiasts was held in the Commercial association rooms and plans for raising more money for the team were discussed. A special soliciting committee was named and today a further campaign for funds has been made.

But while many have subscribed the team is still short of the amount necessary to finance it through the season and further contributions are wanted. According to Manager Lor-mer the attendance this year pays but little more than the expense for balls and umpire's salary. Consequently the salary money must be raised almost entirely by subscription.

INSURANCE COMPANY PAYS STOESEL'S WIDOW

Suit for $5000 Insurance Settled Out of Court.

Through the efforts of Attorney Douglas W. Bailey of this city, Mrs.
 Helen Stoessel, widow of the late Dr. Emil Stoessel, has secured the $5000 insurance money from the New York life, for which she brought suit several months ago.

The suit was filed in the circuit court for this county, but upon petition of the insurance company was transferred to the federal court at Portland. It never came to trial, however, for while it was pending the insurance company decided to pay and has presented Mrs. Stoessel with a check for the full amount of the insurance.

Dr. Emil Stoessel was well known in this city, having made Pendleton his headquarters for several months.
 He died as the result of injuries sustained in a runaway accident while he was driving from Pendleton to Pillot Rock last September.

A. D. STILLMAN HERE.

Former Pendletonian Looking After Business Interests.

After an absence from the city of more than a year, A. D. Stillman, former Pendleton attorney and prominent eastern Oregon democratic war horse, is again in the city upon a visit with friends and for the purpose of looking out for his business interests.

Since leaving this city Mr. Stillman has devoted his time to managing his big ranch near KallsPELL, Mont., and with him there.

Though he has given up his residence here, Mr. Stillman still has property interests in the city, probably the heaviest being his stock in the cold storage company, of which he is president.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT AT ZEUSKE FUNERAL.

Mrs. A. B. Montgomery Thrown From Auto and Sustains Broken Leg.

Mrs. Montgomery, wife of A. B.
 Montgomery, cashier of the Helix bank, was painfully injured at Helix yesterday by being thrown from an auto. Just before the Zeuske funeral occurred Mrs. Montgomery and several others were riding in Mr. Mont-gomery's runabout and the husband, who was running the auto, attempted to turn out of the road to let a wagon pass. In doing so he ran the auto into a ditch and Mrs. Montgomery was thrown out upon the ground. One leg was broken near the ankle and she was badly bruised by her fall.

Immediately after the accident Mrs.
 Montgomery was taken to their home at Helix, and was attended by Dr.
 Griswold of Helix. Her injuries while painful will not be serious.

FIRE DAMAGES HOME.

Flames Break Out in Lang Residence on Pine Street.

Through a fire that broke out about 10 o'clock last night the home of A. J. Lang, 509 Pine street, was somewhat damaged while the greater part of the household furniture was destroyed.

The house is owned by L. Dunlap, the contractor, and is insured for $1000 with J. M. Bentley. Consequently no loss will be sustained by Mr. Dunlap.

The contents of the house were also insured with the same man for $600, and while the damage has not yet been appraised it is understood that the insurance will more than cover the loss.

When the fire was discovered last night the west end company was called out and succeeded in subduing the fire without the aid of the central companies.

A. J. Lang is an employe of the Forster planing mill.

THREE HARVESTERS ARE COMPLETED

REYNOLDS COMBINES MADE IN PENDLETON.

New Make of Combine Harvester Invented and Manufactured by Pendleton Man Are Ready for Use—Many Orders Refused on Account of Lack of Facilities.

Three new combined harvesters, made entirely in Pendleton, the invention of A. D. Reynolds and manufactured at Pendleton Iron Works during the past three months, will be taken out of the factory Sunday for a trial run around the city on their own wheels.

These machines are the invention of Mr. Reynolds, who has been engaged upon perfecting a new principle in combined harvesters for a number of years and who has at last turned out three ideal machines all of which have been purchased by Umatilla county farmers who will use them for the first time in cutting this year's wheat crop.

The Reynolds machines are equipped with an automatic leveling apparatus by which the harvesters adjust themselves to any kind of uneven ground and are especially adapted to the foothill sections where much time is lost and much extra work required in running the old machines in adjusting, lowering and raising them for uneven ground. The Reynolds machine does all this while moving rapidly along without extra labor or delay.

The Reynolds machines have an 18-foot cut and can be handled by 21 horses and will cut 20 acres per day in an ordinary day's work. They are of light draught and being made on new principles are much easier to handle than the older class of combined harvesters. The automatic leveling apparatus makes them much more convenient and effective on uneven ground and in the foothill districts and they give promise of being used extensively in the inland empire.

The three machines now on hand have been sold to Bain Brothers of Pilot Rock, Grant Elgin and H. R.
 Neil of the district north of the city, and Mr. Reynolds has refused a number of orders this season on account of a lack of facilities to turn out more machines.

It is possible that he will employ a large number of men next season in manufacturing the machines in this city.

Reiman Gets Insurance.

An adjustment has been made of the loss sustained by William Rei-man when his house burned down Monday night. The house itself was insured for $1500 with Clifton & Co., while the furniture was insured with J. M. Bentley for $800. The entire insurance on the house will be paid while Mr. Reiman will get $711 for the damage to his furniture.

Judge Hartman Poisoned.

While visiting at Eugene recently, Judge G. A. Hartman became poisoned by poison oak and he is now sorely afflicted at his home in Portland.
 The judge was intending to make a visit to Pendleton within a day or two, but he has had to postpone his trip because of his ailment.

SIXTY LOCATED IN ONE CABIN

INTERESTING DETAILS OF UMATILLA FRAUDS

Cabin on Upper McKay Creek Served as "Residence" for Sixty Different Dupes—Actual Claims Several Miles Distant in Many Instances—Hut Will Become Famous in Approaching Trials of Pendleton Men.

One of the most interesting details of the Umatilla land frauds to be brought out in the trial of those accused, will be the manner in which entrymen were located upon their land.

Several witnesses have testified as to this feature of the frauds before the federal grand jury and it has developed that this will be one of the chief features of the trials.

It is said that about 60 entrymen were located upon their claims by one locator, who used the same "homesteader's" cabin for the entire 60 entrymen. This cabin is located on Upper McKay, convenient to much of the unallotted Umatilla lands and will figure in the trials as conspicuously as any other special feature. Photographs of it have been taken and evidence is being gathered to the effect that it has actually served as the "residence" of at least 60 individual people.

The plan by which the entrymen were to prove up on the Indian lands was to hire improvements made on their claims, since many of them were engaged in active business and could not spare the time to make the improvements themselves.

In a large number of cases the same men who located the entrymen on their land, was also employed to build the cabins on the different claims and make the improvements required by law. The entrymen would be taken out to his claim and shown a cabin, his "residence," and believing that this cabin was on his land the entrymen could innocently make oath that he had a residence on the land.

The facts are that the cabin shown many entrymen as their "residence," was from four to eight miles from their land and the same cabin served for everybody who simply took the land for speculation.

Many of the entrymen located their own lands, built their own cabins and made their own improvements and in these cases were familiar with their claims, but a large number of claims were taken by people who simply took the land for speculation and who were duped as to the location of the land and as to the improvements made upon their land by the locators.

Married at Ukiah.

Miss Olive Turner and James Baldwin, both of Ukiah, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Turner at Ukiah this week, and after a brief wedding trip will reside permanently at Mr. Baldwin's ranch in Camas Prairie. Mr.
 Baldwin is a native of Umatilla county, having been born in the Camas prairie country, while Miss Turner is an accomplished young lady of the south part of the county. Mr. Baldwin recently erected a new dwelling on his farm in Camas Prairie and will take his bride there on their return from their wedding trip.

Pendleton Souvenirs.

The Monday afternoon card club held a very enjoyable meeting with Mrs. McMillan last week. The keenest interest was taken in the game of cards when it was known that the prizes for the afternoon had been sent by Mrs. Montie B. Gwinn of Pendleton, formerly a member of the club.
 They were won by Mrs. Erv Johnson and Mrs. Nourse and were swastika spoons, souvenirs of Pendleton. The guest's prize, a handkerchief, was won by Mrs. Coate—Boise Statesman.
 Mrs. Gwinn was a member of this club during the time they lived in Boise.

Returned from Eastern Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Rugg, the pioneers of this city, who have been in the east for the past six months, have just returned home and are delighted to be back in Umatilla county again. They left here last fall for Kansas, and visited in Kansas, Nebraska, Los Angeles and other places and have enjoyed a most pleasant stay. While in the east they had the novel experience of witnessing a cyclone in action, although they were not in its path. It destroyed two small towns and did much damage.

New Picture Show.

A. C. Friedley has opened a new picture show in the building recently vacated by the Pullman saloon on Main street, next to the Pendleton Drug company, and the doors will be opened to the public tomorrow. He has arranged to have the best pictures that he can secure, and as he is in a good location, he will no doubt have a very liberal patronage.

Many Saloons for Sale.

The East Oregonian is receiving advertisements of saloons for sale in Washington and other northwest states and judging from the anxiety in this line the liquor business is not paying well anywhere in the northwest states any more.

A. H. Johnson and Carl Guitt left this afternoon for Umatilla, where they will play for the trainmen's dance to be given this evening.
