Churches

Methodist.
Sunday will be children's day at the M. E. church. The music will be by the children and a sermon for the occasion will be preached. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon the two lodges of I. O. O. F. will hold their annual memorial service at the church. Special musical program for this and a sermon by the pastor for the occasion. The first of a series of stereopticon sermons will begin at the evening service. The theme of these is "With Kodak, Notebook and Field Glass Through Oriental Lands and What I Saw There." These views were taken by the pastor in person in Egypt, Palestine and Asia Minor. All the familiar gospel hymns have been arranged for the screens so that all may have before them both words and music and as this will encourage congregational singing the service is added very much in this way. These sermons are helpful to all who hear and see them and are instructive.

Christian Science.

New Rotterdam Sails.
Rotterdam, June 13.—The new twin screw steamer Rotterdam, of the Holland-American line, sails today on her maiden trip for New York. The first sailing from New York will be on July 1.

The new Rotterdam is a vessel of the Leviathan type, 668 feet long, 77 feet wide, 48 feet deep, 17 knots speed and raps among the greatest trans-continental liners of the present day. Her registered tonnage is 24,170, her displacement 37,190 tons, while she offers accommodation for 595 first class passengers, 520 second class and 2000 third-class passengers.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup is the one that children like so well to take at it tastes nearly as good as maple sugar. It acts gently yet freely on the bowels and thereby it drives the cold out of the system. It is sold by Tallman & Co.

Demand Woman's Rights.
Amsterdam, June 13.—Demanding the ballot for women suffragettes from more than a score of nations, including some of the most famous women of Europe and America, are assembled in Amsterdam today. The conference of the International Woman's Suffrage Alliance will be opened Monday. Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, of New York, is its president. A majority of the European delegates, especially those from Germany, are socialists, and a resolution favoring the principles of international socialism may be introduced.

At Leavenworth Thursday the plant of the Pacific Coast Pipe company was destroyed by fire, said to have started from the ignition of oil in the rubber-tar mixture. The loss is estimated at $1000.

AMUSEMENTS

Pastime Change.

There will be a change of pictures at the Pastime this evening and tomorrow, among the new attractions being "Orphans Easter Eggs," "Awkward Orderly," "Perverse Statue," "Ice Cream Jack," "Misadventure of an Equilibrist" and that beautiful illustrated song, "Upon a Sunday Morning When the Church Bells Chime." This program will continue over Sunday and is very appropriate for the Sunday crowds.

Eagle Show Shop.

The Eagle show shop which has been moved from Court street to the corner of Main and Court, opened this afternoon, and this promises to be a very popular place of amusement, as the management has arranged to get some of the very best pictures that are being sent out anywhere. There is good ventilation here, and it is up to date in every way.

Dime Attracts.

The Dime will have an entire change of moving pictures tomorrow all new and up to date. The management announces some excellent pictures for the next week. The pictures the past few days have been the best ever shown in the city, especially those of the fleets and "Nero and the Burning of Rome."

Turnfest at St. Joseph.

St. Joseph, Mo., June 13.—Attracted by the third annual tri-state turnfest, Germans from all over Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska are the guests of St. Joseph Turners today and will be entertained in an avish manner during the next three days. The competitive games, field sports and drills will be held tomorrow and Monday at Lake Conrary and will be participated in by several hundred men and women. Costly prizes will be awarded the victors.

Flag Day Monday.

Washington, June 13.—Owing to the fact that Flag Day, June 14, the 131st anniversary of the adoption of the Stars and Stripes falls on Sunday, the official exercises will be held on Monday next.

Delegates in Chicago.

Chicago, June 13.—With the new York delegation leading the van, and other delegates and politicians pouring in from all over the country, Chicago has already commenced to assume the appearance of a national convention city. Lobbies of all the leading hotels are swarming with excited, gesticulating exponents of the great America game of politics and the names of the presidential and vice presidential candidates are on every tongue. The big New York delegation is not highly enthusiastic in its advocacy of Hughes and has scarcely made an impression in the solid phalanx of Taft boomers. Adherents of a "second elective term" for Roosevelt are also here in force and are making a great deal of noise.
