SERIES OF STEREOPTICON SERMONS AT M. E. CHURCH

Innovation Will Be Carried on Throughout the Summer Months.
In many city churches during the summer the stereopticon sermon is coming into vogue. It is a very critical matter to be able to give this work in such manner as will gain the approbation of all. This has largely been accomplished by means of the religious song placed in such manner that all are led to take part in the singing. Wherever this has been accomplished the criticism usually heard when these are first introduced is largely taken away.
These sermons appeal to the eye and ear at both the same time. The lasting impression made is more valuable than by spoken sermon alone but because of its novelty some churches do not take kindly to its introduction, but the stereopticon sermon has come to stay. Hundreds of churches are taking it up and with great success.
The first M. E. church of Pendleton will introduce this kind of work for the warm summer evenings. The first one will be given tomorrow night at the usual hour. This is not a new work for the present pastor, he having given many of the holy land views in a lecture he has delivered over much of this western section during the past eight years.

When you buy a clock from us you know that if anything goes wrong we are ready to make good with the proper repairs.
All alarm clocks guaranteed and cost from $1.00 to $2.50.

An extensive program has been arranged for the meeting which will be presided over by W. W. Harrah, assistant moderator.

S-SH! SHE'LL WEAR IT.

Sheath Gown, Naughty Garment, to Be Seen in Washington.

The directorate or sheath gown, that daring, naughty garment which is said to cling to the dainty feminine form in a manner to leave nothing to the imagination, will make its first invasion of social Washington on Monday, according to reports that are now being whispered, in shocked, awed tones, by the social leaders of the national capital.

Mrs. Preston Gibson, daughter of Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page, will be the fair exponent of the charms of the sheath gown, according to reports. The occasion of the display will be the marriage of Miss Errol Cuthbert and Lieutenant Charles Train, at which Mrs. Gibson will be matron of honor. It is a strange coincidence that Mrs. Gibson's adoption of the directorate gown follows the rumor that Charles Dana Gibson will dress his future Gibson girl pictures in that garb.

Mrs. Gibson's gown is said by those who have seen it to live faithfully up to the plans and specifications laid down by the Parisian designers of the grape-skin garb. The slash at one side which is a pronounced feature of the very unmodest dress, is present, it is said, in Mrs. Gibson's gown. It wasn't, say those who have been allowed to see the dress, she wouldn't be able to walk.

RUSH WORK ON JETTY.

Thousands of Tons of Rock Being Dumped Into River Mouth.

Rock deliveries at the Columbia river jetty will be increased soon from 2000 tons daily to about 4500 tons, and the work of pushing the structure to completion will be rushed, says the Portland Telegram. Owing to the bad weather which has prevailed at the bar the greater part of the spring is feared that the project cannot be completed before the stormy season starts. But it will be so closely finished as to be about as serviceable as though every rock had been put in place.

Gerald Bagnall, the United States engineer who is in charge of operations at the mouth of the Columbia, arrived in this city this morning and is well pleased with the progress which has been made. He says the limited rock deliveries and the inclement weather have delayed the work more than had been anticipated but everything is getting in shape so that the best of results will follow before many days elapse. The output at the quarries was not so great as had been expected on the start, but this matter will soon be remedied. There will be no trouble in taking care of all the shipments which can be forwarded in the jetty site.

GRANT COUNTY PAPERS MERGE.

Grant County News Absorbs Blue Mountain Eagle.

The Grant County News says of the purchase and absorption of the Blue Mountain Eagle by the News:
Further changes in the newspaper situation of this county were made last week when P. F. Chandler, the veteran editor of the Grant County News, and C. P. Haight, formerly of the Prairie City Miner, formed a new partnership to engage in the printing and publishing business.

The new firm purchased the Blue Mountain Eagle plant, of Canyon City, and Mr. Haight took over the interest of C. J. McIntosh, in the Grant County News.

The former owners of the Blue Mountain Eagle have retired from the publishing business, to engage in other lines. C. J. McIntosh, who has not been actively connected with newspaper work for the past three years, also retires altogether from that work and will turn to other and more congenial employment.

The new firm starts out with every promise of success, and should make a rare combination of business ability and newspaper talent. The field is one of the largest for any country paper in the state, and the combined subscription list doubtless among the best.

Irrigation Talk No. 39.

Justice David J. Brewer, of the U. S. Supreme Court, in discussing the future of our country says:

"We should take to heart the practice of Europe in looking after the soil and then we will be able not only to continue to feed our own people, however great the population may become, but to provide the world with foodstuffs."

The experience of our every day life teaches us more forcibly the necessity of providing for and guarding against the future. As a progressive people we must continue to advance, and in that forward march our prosperity must continue.

Property values will increase instead of decrease, and the selling price of the Furnish-Coe lands will be rapidly advanced to keep step with the development of the project.
