Sunday's Contest Was the Real Thing While Saturday's Exhibition Was Heartrending—Former Won by Pendleton 2 to 0 and Latter by Visitors 15 to 6—Taliaferro Pitched Shutout Ball and Only Allowed One Hit.

With every man on each team upon his toes and in the game every minute, Pendleton pulled down a well earned victory in a real game of baseball Sunday afternoon, defeating Baker City by the score of 2 to 0.

Taliaferro was the man who pitched the shutout and it came nearly being "a no hit" for a scratch two bagger was the only hit registered by Baker City.

The exhibition yesterday was the real article and showed that while both teams played worse than a lot of school boys Saturday, it was simply because it happened to be an off day and not because they did not know how or could not play the game.
 The score that day was 15 to 6 in favor of the visitors.

PORTLAND LEADS LEAGUE

Batters Return Home in Cellar and Will Leave at Top of Percentage Column.

Portland, Ore., June 14.—Portland won the final game with Oakland and went to first place in the league, by heavy and timely hitting. All the runs were made off Hopkins, who pitched the first five innings. Rafferty scored two with a three bagger in the first and Johnson drove two in the fifth when Hopkins walked Bassey to take his chances with the "Terrible Swede." The same trick was pulled off in the third inning and Van Hallren made the star play of the game, pulling down what would have been a three bagger.

Score— R H E
 Portland 5 5 2
 Oakland 2 6 3
 Batteries—Kinsella and Whalen; Hopkins, Killian, Slattery and Lewis.

Seals Win Both Games.

San Francisco, June 14.—San Francisco won two hard fought games from Los Angeles today. It required three pitchers to win the morning contest for the home team. A drive to center field by McArdle scored the winning run in the afternoon.

TWO FUNERALS SUNDAY.

Remains of Mayne Hays and Mrs.
 Fitz Gerald Laid to Rest.

Funeral services were held Sunday over the remains of Miss Mayne Hays and Mrs. Mary FitzGerald. The first occurred at the Baptist church at 2:30 and the second at the family home on Stark street at 4 p. m.

The church had been beautifully decorated for the Hays funeral and the floral offerings were many and beautiful. The services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. R. E.
 Storey. Interment followed immediately in Olney cemetery.

Rev. W. L. Van Nys, pastor of the Presbyterian church, conducted the services for the deceased pioneer woman and many of the old-time residents of Pendleton and vicinity who had known Mrs. FitzGerald for years attended. The interment was had in Olney cemetery.

First Crop of Alfalfa Cue.

Col. J. F. McNaught, who was in the city last night, said that the first crop of alfalfa on his irrigated land at Hermiston had just been harvested and while light in quantity, was of excellent quality and was entirely satisfactory. Water will now be turned on the land and the second crop will be rushed as rapidly as possible. The alfalfa area of that section is increasing each year and soon large tracts will be producing three and four crops annually.

Will Bury Schomburg Here.

Henry Schomburg, the laborer who died at Cayuse station on the O. R.
 & N. on June 10 and whose remains have been held by Coroner Folsom for instructions from relatives will be buried in Olney cemetery in this city. A message from his son in Minnesota was received by Mr. Folsom today giving instructions to bury the remains here.

One Hundred Transferred

One hundred people transferred from the main line of the O. R. & N. to the Spokane branch of the system at 1:30 today. These were partly passengers from the Northern Pacific and Great Northern roads, delayed by the washouts in Montana. However, a large part of this heavy transfer is the ordinary business of the O.
 R. & N. which is exceedingly heavy this month.

Mrs. Hailey Receives Insurance.

George A. Robbins, clerk of Tutuilla camp No. 639, Modern Woodmen of America of this city, has just forwarded to Mrs. T. G. Hailey at Portland, a voucher for $3000, being the amount of insurance carried by her late husband in that order. Judge Hailey was an enthusiastic member of the order and carried the limit of insurance in it.

North Powder Depot Burned.

The O. R. & N. depot building and freight warehouse at North Powder was burned early Friday morning and everything contained in the building, including the furniture and household goods of the agent was destroyed. The loss will amount to over $5000. It is supposed that the fire was started by a spark from a passing engine.

Section of Land Brings $9000.

George Richardson has just sold to David Shumway all of section 34, township 3, range 30, two and a half miles north of Yoakum station on the O. R. & N. for $9000. A portion of the land is agricultural and a portion of it is range. It is understood that considerable of it will be plowed and seeded to wheat this fall.

O. Turner and wife are among the visitors at Wenaha springs. Mr. Turner will probably spend a greater part of the summer in that vicinity on account of his health.

G. A. R. CAMPFIRE

MORE THAN HUNDRED SOLDIERS AND FRIENDS.

Baked Beans and Hardtack Serve as Principal Articles of Diet at Interesting Event Saturday Afternoon—Addresses Made by Judge Lowell, J.
 P. Winter and E. B. Aldrich—Enjoyable Time for All.

One hundred and twenty-five old soldiers and their friends gathered at the campfire given by Kit Carson post, G. A. R., at the armory hall in this city, Saturday afternoon. Plates were laid for 100 people and a luncheon of hardtack, coffee, baked beans and Russian hardtack was served by members of the post. The women of the city also donated cake for the old soldiers' luncheon and it was a unique and pleasant affair.

An excellent address was made by Judge S. A. Lowell, who was the chief speaker of the afternoon. Attorney J.
 P. Winter, "Uncle" John Gurdane and R. J. Slater also gave reminiscence talks, while E. B. Aldrich made a merited address on part of company L. of this city.

A resolution was passed thanking company L. for the use of the armory hall, and for the assistance of the company on Decoration day, and in the campfire exercises. It is hoped by Kit Carson post to give a campfire in Byers' grove at some time in future when neighboring posts will be invited and a fine program will be rendered.

Stewart L. Woodford, president of the National Hughes league, to present the name of the governor to the convention for nomination. The 40 delegates attending the caucus were unanimously in favor of casting the vote for Hughes on the first ballot.

The Massachusetts delegation adopted a resolution declaring for Governor Gullit.

The California delegation announced the following selection: Credential committee, H. H. Mayberry; resolutions—Judge Henry A. Melvin of Oakland; national committeeman, George A. Knight.

Hand Disclosed.

President James W. Van Cleave of the National Manufacturers' association, admitted this afternoon he was responsible for the telegrams the delegates are receiving, opposing the demands of the labor organizations.
 He said: "The personnel of the committee will be known tomorrow.
 It's up to me, who pays the bills, to see that it stands for a square deal and I am asking every man with mountain investments in the country to wire every republican he knows to avoid any reference to the anti-injunction proposition in the platform."

Working Against Dolliver.

Judge Lacey, of Iowa, after stump-ing the state for Allison, arrived today. He said the situation of the republican party in Iowa is desperate.
 He declared if they took Dolliver from the senate they would stand to lose the legislature and both seats in the senate, which he said would go to the democrats as it only required 25 votes to make the state legislature democratic. He said they can't afford to have Dolliver nominated for vice president.

Gans Disappoints Fans.

San Francisco, June 15.—Joe Gans disappointed the fight fans today by announcing he will do nothing but regular road work and some light bag punching until the last week before the fight with Battling Nelson. He says he does not want to take any chances with his hands. Nelson is expected to return from his mountain trip next week.

City Reservoir Cleaned.

Water Superintendent William Sutherland has just finished cleaning the city reservoir on the south hill and it is now in excellent condition for the hot season. The reservoir was entirely drained of water and the bottom and sides were swept and scrubbed out and it was then flushed and cleaned in the best possible manner.

To Be Operated On.

Mrs. Lorenzo Harvey of Pilot Rock has just been brought to the city to be operated upon for appendicitis at St. Anthony's hospital. The operation will be performed within a day or two, when her condition improves somewhat.

Eugene Murphy, Edwin Wallace, John Dooley and James Sullivan have been arrested at Sandpoint, Idaho, on the charge of stealing a quantity of goods from a Great Northern freight car.
