JACK BROWN DEAD

WELL KNOWN CHARACTER DROPS DEAD ON STREET.

Real Name of Well Known Hide Dealer Was Adam Parr—Relatives Reside in Baltimore—Changed His Name When He Came West 20 Years Ago—Well Liked by Everyone But Had Weakness for Strong Drink—Will Be Buried Tomorrow.

Jack Brown, the hide dealer, and a familiar character in Pendleton for 15 or 20 years, dropped dead on the street last evening about 8 o'clock, and the body is now at the Rader undertaking parlors where funeral services will be held tomorrow.

Though the deceased was widely known as Jack Brown, his real name was Adam Parr and his relatives live in Baltimore. He took the name of Brown when he came west when a young man, but his exact reasons for so doing are not known.

The immediate cause of his death is thought to have been an injury to his chest which he received about two months ago. A rib was broken at that time and was not properly attended to. It has pained him greatly since then and yesterday he hurt it again, and as this is in the region of his heart it is believed to have caused his death.

Jack has lived in Pendleton ever

ROBBERY AT ATHENA.

Two Stores Burglarized But Little is Taken—Razors and Watches Constitute the Plunder.

Some time Thursday night, burglars entered the McEwen hardware store and Pioneer drug store at Athena and carried off considerable plunder.

The cash drawers in each of the establishments were rifled but little money was found so the miscreants had to content themselves with carrying off some razors, watches and other similar articles.

It is believed that the perpetrators of this latest burglary are the same who attempted to crack the depot safe at Milton Monday night and the officers are working on that theory. There are so many tramps in the country at this time that it makes the work of the officers doubly difficult. It is estimated that in the neighborhood of 30 suspicious characters were held up yesterday, but nothing was found which would connect them with the crime.

Entrance to both stores was obtained by picking the locks and this leads the officers to believe that they have to deal with men who are not altogether strangers in the business.

WILD WEST SHOW.

Stanley Brothers Will Present Their Production at the Ball Park.

The following concerning the Wild West show which is to be here the last of next week is taken from the La Grande Star:

Stanley Brothers' Wild West show at Athletic park was enjoyed by a large and appreciative audience yesterday afternoon. The feats performed were something worth going out of one's way to see and all who witnessed these daring horsemen will long remember it.

Several animals with reputations as bad actors were successfully ridden and each act was greeted with rounds of applause.

They show next at Union and will again entertain the La Grande people at the ball park on next Tuesday afternoon.

NEW YORK BANKER NAMED ON FIRST BALLOT

bias Schanfarber, who expressed thanks for the nomination of a man of "strong mind, a true heart and strong will, but who is open conviction and one whom the lust of office cannot buy."

Lodge formally announced the nomination of Taft at 10:31 and received great applause. The New York delegation then entered with a banner bearing a big picture of Representative Sherman, and the band played "Hot Time in the Old Town." Sherman entered shortly afterward and was given a big ovation.

When the roll call for nominations was started Delaware yielded place to New York. Woodruff was then recognized and his nomination speech was listened to 10 minutes, the second speech to five minutes. Woodruff presented the name of Sherman, who was smiling in the midst of the New York delegation. Cannon seconded the nomination in a speech stirring great applause.

National Committee Organized.

Chicago, June 19.—The new national republican committee met immediately after adjournment and selected General Powell Clayton of Arkansas, as chairman to serve until such a time as the candidates have decided on a man to hold the position permanently. Elmer Dover of Ohio, was re-elected secretary. Sergeant-at-arms Stone was also re-elected.

The following were appointed a sub-committee and instructed to interview the candidates, and ascertain their choice of a permanent chairman: General Clayton, former Governor Herrick of Ohio, Frank Gelllogg of Minnesota, Charles Nagel of Missouri, William L. Ward of New York, Senator Borah of Idaho, E. C. Duncan of North Carolina, Frank Lowden of Illinois.

English Views of Taft.

London, June 19.—All afternoon papers comment on Taft's nomination.

The Standard declares that Taft learned statecraft from a brilliant master and possesses the mind of an Owen and has the ability.

While praising the nominee, the Globe does not deem his election as certain. It says Bryan is certain to give his opponent a hard fight.

A few papers are inclined to sneer at Taft as subservient to Roosevelt. The Pall Mall Gazette says the nomination of Taft is an endorsement of the policy, "Love me, love my dog."

Negro Held for Murder.

James Moore, a negro was arrested at Vancouver, B. C., on a charge of having murdered fisherman Pat O'Brien Friday night. An Indian woman with him is badly cut and may not recover. The police traced the suspect from the fact that the woman said that a negro with one eye did the deed. He was arrested four miles out of the city.

Air Pipe Broken.

In the morning mine at Mullan, Idaho, Tuesday night two men, Jack Hayes and Sam Hutzel, were severely injured by the breaking of the air pipe. They were going into the mine on the motor to bring out the men when a car jumped the track and struck the air pipe, breaking it. The force of the air threw the two men against the side of the mine and they were badly cut and bruised.

The Schooner Ida Schnauer, was wrecked on Tillamook spit Wednesday afternoon. The crew of seven men was rescued by the life saving crew.

Saw Auto Races.

Many Pendleton people went to Walla Walla yesterday to witness the amateur automobile races which were held at the fair grounds in that city. Most of those who went were disappointed, saying that the races were very tame in comparison with those pulled off at Portland during the rose fiesta. Among those who went over were Jim Sturgis, Roy Alexander, Fred Lampkin, Dr. Lynn K. Blakeslee, Dr. Ralph Swinburne, Will McCormmach, Clark Nelson, Cress Sturgis and Will Ferguson. A part of the Pendleton bunch became disgusted with the tournament and left before it was over.

Horse Insurance Paid.

Charles P. Koontz, owner of the large stallion which died recently after a brief illness, this morning received from the National Livestock Insurance association, a check for $1000 as payment in full for the insurance carried on the stallion. Mr. Koontz is naturally very much elated over the prompt payment.

E. J. Wilbur, the pioneer sawmill man of McKay creek, came in today after a load of supplies for his mill.

THE EAST WILL SEE THE WEST THROUGH MOVING PICTURES

To show the big industries of the west through the medium of the moving picture machine, is the plan of the official photographer of the reclamation bureau, who is coming to Idaho this week to secure a set of photographs.

The Boise Capital News says of the project: E. B. Thompson, the government photographer in the employ of the reclamation service, will arrive in Boise this week and will be accompanied through different sections of southern Idaho by D. R. Hubbard as a representative of the Water Users' association, while he is photographing the various enterprises under way here for a set of moving pictures to be exhibited throughout the east in order that the people may see what is being accomplished by the reclamation service in the arid region of the west.

The trip mapped out by Mr. Hubbard will start at the government dam near Nampa, where photos will be made of the gigantic steam shovel at work, the various teams, men and equipment used in constructing the big dam at the upper end of the Deer flat reservoir.

A visit to some of the big shearing plants will be made in order to show up the method and magnitude of the wool industry of the Gem state. Silver City is to be the next point and photographs will be taken in several of the mines of the busy camp showing the men at work; Among them will be the Trade Dollar, the Le Lamar and the Potash.

During the month a trip will also be made into the Boise basin country, where an effort will be made to get pictures of placer mining, and the dredging machine if they are in operation. Various logging camps will also be photographed to show the magnitude of this industry and if possible a number of drives providing the logs are not all down at that time. The latter part of the month will be spent in going over the Boise and Payette valleys, showing up the farming industry in all its phases, irrigation, haying, stocking, etc., and also the dairy business with a number of pictures of the best herds of cattle feeding on the farm, while pictures of horses and poultry will also be taken.

If the fruit is sufficiently advanced while Mr. Thompson is here photographs of a number of the big orchards will be taken. A limited number of still pictures will be taken of the best buildings in the towns and cities under the Boise-Payette project and also a picture for the films of a scene in the plunge at the Natatorium.

Mr. Thompson is an expert at his profession, having spent three years in the mountain wilds of the west photographing animals in their native haunts and his group pictures of elk, deer, bear and mountain sheep, are said to be the finest on exhibition. He is also in possession of that new and startling discovery of taking pictures in natural colors and he will take a number of the best scenes here with that process.

After his return to Washington films for the moving pictures will be made and will be shown under the auspices of the Water Users' association through the several commercial clubs. A lecturer familiar with conditions here will probably accompany the pictures to the largest cities to tell of the opportunities offered in the west under the present system of irrigation.

According to Mulhall's estimates, 130,000,000 persons speak English and 84,000,000 German. Russian is spoken by upward of 85,000,000, but these numbers are far exceeded by the 350,000,000 to 400,000,000 Chinese and 140,000,000 or more Hindustani.
