REAL ESTATE MEN TO MEET

CALL ISSUED BY SECRETARY OF LEAGUE.

Question of Aid for Publicity Bureau One of the Most Important to Come Up—Several Other Questions Involving Future Policy of County Organization to Be Settled at That Time.

In response to a call that was made Saturday another meeting of the Umatilla county real estate league will be held in this city Friday evening. The meeting has been called by D. B. Costuma, secretary of the association and the object of the gathering is set forth in the following letter which was addressed to each member of the league:

Pendleton, June 16, 1908.—The necessity for united action and publicity relative to the resources of Umatilla county are now more necessary than at any previous time, and in order that our campaign may be conducted along harmonious and effective lines as it concerns all, it is imperative that every man interested in real estate put his shoulder to the wheel.

Our organization has had a good start and in order to further perfect our body a meeting has been called for Friday, June 26, at the rooms of the Commercial association. It is sincerely hoped that you will be present and at the same time interest in the organization such men in your community handling real estate who have not yet joined us.

There will be several very important questions involving the future policy of the organization which will come up for consideration and as our strength depends upon the individual activity of our members you are further urged to be there and help along with your good advice.

PENDLETON MAN LANDS IN JAIL

R. E. PORTER, INDICTED FOR LAND FRAUD

Unable to Give Bond and Having Failed to Answer to a Subpoena He Is Lodged in Jail—Formerly Resident of This City and Wood Dealer at Meacham—Recently Moved to Benton County.

The seriousness of the Umatilla county land fraud cases was brought vividly to mind in Portland Friday night, when R. E. Porter, a former resident of this city and once the leading wood dealer of Meacham, was placed under arrest in Benton county, his present home, and on failure to give bonds was immediately placed in the Multnomah county jail on a charge of conspiracy to defraud the United States government out of valuable lands on the Blue mountains near Meacham.

Mr. Porter is well known in this city and for a number of years handled practically all of the wood shipped out of Meacham and was one of the foremost dealers in fuel in eastern Oregon. That he was intimately and directly connected with the fraudulent acquisition of Umatilla Indian lands is the belief of the federal grand jury which has been in session in Portland for the past two weeks. The Oregon Daily Journal of Saturday says of Mr. Porter's arrest: Robert E. Porter, formerly a well-known wood and timber dealer in Umatilla county and against whom an indictment charging conspiracy to defraud the United States government, was returned several days ago by the federal grand jury, was brought to Portland last night by a deputy United States marshal and placed in the Multnomah county jail.

Porter recently moved to Benton county. Several weeks ago Mrs. Porter was subpoenaed to appear before the grand jury as a witness in the Umatilla land fraud cases which were being investigated. Porter was also in the city at the time. Later United States Attorney John McCourt requested him to appear as a witness. When he was wanted Porter wasn't found. Later, the indictment against him was returned.

STATUS OF SALOON CASE. Injunction Suit Complaint Must Be Amended or Dropped.

At a circuit court session this morning Judge S. A. Lowell, one of the attorneys for the saloon men, brought up the subject of the suit that was filed by Anton Nolte, and intimated that the plaintiffs will file an amended complaint soon.

As to the exact status of the Nolte case there seems much doubt and seemingly the saloon men are more or less at sea as to what course they will pursue. Apparently their complaint as it now stands is of no use to them for the only thing prayed for, an order restraining the county court from issuing the prohibition proclamation, was denied. This is the opinion held by District Attorney Phelps who regards that case as settled unless an amended complaint is filed.

When interviewed today attorneys for the saloon men seemed to be somewhat in doubt as to what they will do. But it is understood a conference will be held this evening and in all probability a line of action agreed upon. Should it be considered worth while to carry their fight further an amended complaint will be filed and Judge Bean asked to set a date for a trial of the case upon its merits.

Insurance Money Paid.

J. P. Walker, clerk of the local camp of the Woodmen of the World, has been notified by the clerk of the head camp that checks for the amount of the insurance carried by the late E. H. Clarke, who died recently in this city, have been forwarded to the children of the deceased in Oakland and Sacramento, Cal. There was $1000 for the girl and $1000 for the boy. Clarke was one of the charter members of the local camp.

"Sunny Jim" at the Boston Store. G. Herb Palin, well known advertising specialist and poet, has been retained as an advertising man for the Boston store and his wit will adorn the advertisements of that bustling store in the future. Palin made the principal part of his reputation as the author of the "Sunny Jim" poetry for Force.

New Hearse Team for Rader. M. J. Carney, the liveryman, has returned from Prairie City, where he purchased a fine big team of E. L. Lawrence, ex-sheriff of Grant county. The team is to be used as a hearse team for M. A. Rader's undertaking parlor.

St. Dennis Suit Friday. Next Friday a jury will be called in the circuit court for the purpose of taking up the case of Ferguson vs. D. St. Dennis. The case is one growing out of the dispute between Reynold Harris and St. Dennis and involves about $500.

Artisans, Attention! All members of Alpha Assembly, No. 2, are requested to be present Tuesday evening, June 23. Business of importance will be transacted.

CHASES ROBBER ALL OVER STATE OF OREGON

Man Wanted in Alaska for Embezzlement Is Finally Run to Earth.

After a chase lasting four years William Sanders, indicted at Nome, Alaska, has been run to earth and is now in jail at Katella, Alaska.

The arrest is directly due to the activity of Joe Warren, former chief of police in Spokane, who ran down Sanders and has been hot on his trail for months. Warren is now a special agent for the federal government and has the Alaska territory to cover.

"I got onto this man Sanders' trail a number of months ago and located him at Sumpter, Ore. I hurried there for him and missed him by a few days," stated Warren this morning. "Then came the chase. I followed him to Baker City, The Dalles, Cascade Locks, Portland, Seattle and finally found he had struck back to Alaska.

"I could not catch up with him in the states, for about every time I would get him located he would move away and I had to hunt him again. He was not aware, however, that I was on his trail, but couldn't have dodged me better had he tried to do so.

"The arrest is particularly gratifying in view of the fact that before I took up the chase three other officers had been after him for several years. He was indicted for embezzlement at Nome by the federal grand jury in 1904 and skipped out at once. I have been expecting to hear of his arrest as I wired the marshal at Cordova near Valdez to look out for him. The marshal, acting under by instructions, caught him at Katella. He will be returned to Seattle, where I will take him in charge and escort him back to Nome for trial. In spite of the time elapsed the witnesses in the case are still in Nome. I do not know the amount he is charged with embezzling, but it was enough to make his capture worth while."—Spokane Chronicle.

It is stated that farmers south of Wilson creek in Washington, are losing a large number of horses and mules from some strange disease. As yet the difficulty is unknown, but investigations are being made.

OREGONIANS ARE GLAD.

Pendleton and Umatilla County People Send Greetings from California.

The East Oregonian has just received the following letter of congratulations to the people of Umatilla county from the "Oregon colony" in Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 20.—(Editor East Oregonian.)—There has been great rejoicing among a little company of Oregonians here in southern California since the returns from the recent Oregon election reached us, and we wish to extend our congratulations to the good people of Umatilla county for taking the stand they did and voting out the institution that has so long wielded its power for evil.

We would have liked to have had a part in the actual work of re-making Pendleton, but since that could not be, nothing will give us greater pleasure than to some day walk down the streets of the "new city," free from the sights that have caused so much sorrow as well as always a feeling of disgust—a clean Pendleton.
