CHURCH YEAR ENDS

WORK OF REV. CHARLES QUINNEY REVIEWED

Church of the Redeemer Shows Much Activity During Past Year—Two Hundred and Sixty-three Services Have Been Held—Seventy Persons Baptized, Seventeen Couples Married and Twenty-seven Funerals Conducted.

The close of another church year in the history of the Church of the Redeemer, Episcopal, of this city, was celebrated Sunday and the statistics given in the morning sermon of that day, by Rev. Charles Quinney, rector of the church, show something of the progress made and of the activity of this well known church in the life of the community.

Following is a portion of an able sermon preached by Rev. Quinney, reviewing the work of the past year and his first year in the church: "It is just a year ago today," said Rev. Quinney, "since we arrived in Pendleton and commenced work in connection with this church and parish, and in that period there has been no intermission of the regular Sunday service and the pastoral work during the year.

"No less than 263 services have been held and 173 times have we stood on Zion's watchtower to proclaim the gospel. The communion table has been spread 70 times during the year and there have been 1495 communicants thereof in that period.

"We have baptized 70 persons, 29 of whom were admitted as adults. These may not all come to confirmation, but many of them will and some have done so already. Thirty-five have been presented to the bishop for confirmation and 13 have been presented from our Weston mission making a total of 48 confirmed during the year.

"We have tried to make 17 couples happy by uniting them in holy matrimony and we have experienced the sadder duty of committing 27 bodies to the grave.

"We have made 1145 visits to the homes of people in this city and vicinity. The list of communicants has been enlarged and the average of these communicating has been raised considerably, 112 having been received at the Easter service.

"The financial support has assured us that all are more interested and determined that the work shall go on without let or hindrance."

So well pleased are the members of the Church of the Redeemer with the services of Rev. Quinney that they have decided to erect a handsome rectory for him at once. Funds for this building have been provided and work will begin as soon as the plans are approved, which will be but a short time.

Recent Rains Help Wheat.

With the prediction of fair and warmer weather, issued by the weather bureau this morning, it looks as if the rainy period were over, for the present at least, says the Walla Walla Statesman. Rain has quit falling in the northwest and there is every indication that the precipitation will be discontinued for a few days.

During the last five days, all of which have been more or less showery, 57 hundredths of an inch of rain fell, bringing the total for the month up to .84, or but .02 behind normal for the month at this time. There must be .35 more this month, however, to bring the total up for the 30 days.

The rain was general through the northwest and particularly good in the Walla Walla valley. It did inestimable good as the wheat is mostly in the dough and the moisture and cool weather aided it materially in filling. Unless unexpected conditions happen, the wheat crop is in good shape for the rest of the summer.

Elopement Is Cut Short.

Ed Pierce was arrested this afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Painter, between this city and Wabburg, on the charge of seduction, says the Walla Walla Statesman. He started out this morning from Wabburg with Mamie Bailey, aged 14, and the two, it is said, intended to elope. The girl's parent, who lives in this city, was notified and the sheriff's office made a quick capture. Pierce is about 25.

It is said that Pierce has threatened to take the girl away as her mother has repeatedly refused her consent to the match; and on one occasion Pierce is said to have asked the mother what she would do if he took the girl away.

Indians Long for Pendleton.

Three Indian women were in town Saturday from their camp on Ditch creek, says the Monument Enterprise. Two of them are said to be daughters of Columbia Joe, and the third, their sister-in-law, Maude, one of Columbia Joe's daughters, seemed to be unusually bright and spoke English without a hitch, not stinting it either. To one lady here in town she complained about this being a lonely country and expressed herself as wishing to return to Pendleton where she had friends and a sweetheart. One Monument man of leisure refused to carry a sack of flour to her packhouse when requested to do so by the self-possessed Indian maiden, who then wrapped some paper around the mealy sack and carried it herself. When asking for a drink of water, one man told her to get the drinks at the saloon, but she scornfully replied, "We are not looking for that kind of fun."

Caterpillars Numerous.

Caterpillars in the Port Faney, B. C., and nearby districts, are causing agriculturists considerable worry at the present time, these insect pests having appeared in tens of thousands during the past few days. Extreme measures are being taken to protect the orchards and crops from damage and so far the precautions of the farmers have been entirely successful, but rain is earnestly desired by the residents in that locality, as wet weather is a sure killer of caterpillars.

If you see it in the East Oregonian, it's so.

AFTER OLSEN.

Intimated That He Wrongfully Transferred His Property.

T. C. Taylor was today named by Referee Thomas Fitz Gerald as trustee of Olsen & Hansen, bankrupts. The appointment was made after the creditors had failed to agree upon a trustee. Mr. Taylor's bond was fixed at $1000.

In the hearing of the Olsen & Hansen case the attorneys for the creditors followed a line of questioning that indicated they believe some of Olsen's property had been wrongfully transferred before the bankruptcy proceedings were started. Mrs. Olsen especially, was examined at length upon the subject.

Should it be found that property was fraudulently transferred the creditors may bring suit to have the same thrown back into the bankrupt estate. However, no action has yet been taken along that line.

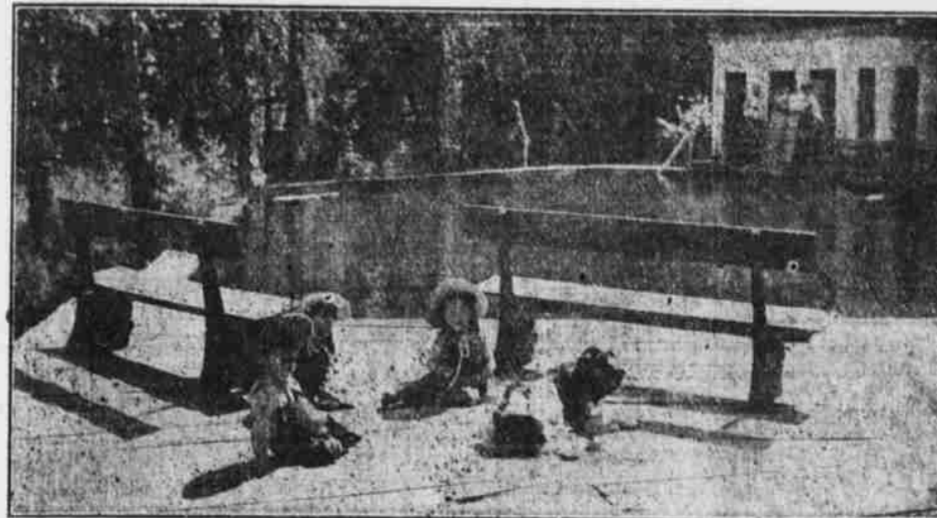

Carter & Smythe, Will M. Peterson and D. W. Bailey are attorneys for the creditors, while J. T. Hinkle represents the bankrupts.

Home from Eugene.

Mrs. Henry Dixon Jones and her daughter, Miss Edna Zimmerman, will return to this city from Eugene where Miss Zimmerman has been a student in the University of Oregon the past year. They will spend the summer in this city.

While working in the hay field at the Murphy ranch, near Freewater, Tom Grimes was struck on the head by a derrick and almost instantly killed. His skull was crushed.
