W. P. Temple With Presence of Mind, Sends His Big Machine Crashing Through Fence and Into Joe Tallman's Yard in Time to Prevent Seemingly Fatal Accident—No One Hurt.

There was a harrowing escape from a head-on automobile collision in this city yesterday afternoon and that serious results did not occur is due to the fact that W. P. Temple ran his machine into Joe Tallman's yard in order to miss the other machine.

About 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon Mr. Temple was driving east along Water street and he was just turning the Tallman corner when he met another auto traveling west on Lewis street. This auto contained a party of young people and was being driven by Miss Kinman.

The machine came down Lewis street at a fast clip and at the corner the young lady made the mistake of turning to the left instead of to the right. Temple had turned to the right to pass the oncoming auto, but when he saw the other machine swerve out in the same direction he could readily see that there would be trouble unless he acted quickly. Turning his own auto farther to the right he made a dash for the Tallman yard and succeeded in escaping the other auto. However, he crashed into the lawn with such force that he broke down two fence posts for Mr. Tallman and the auto wheels went deep into the soft earth of the lawn.

Aside from the damage to the Tallman property the Temple auto was also damaged to some extent. But none of the people in either party received any injuries, though they were all badly frightened.

The auto being driven by Miss Kinman was the Breeding car and aside from Miss Kinman contained two other ladies and a young man. At

GOTHAMITE WAS LOST.

Man from Little Old New York Bewildered in Pendleton.

Though Pendleton is a very metropolitan little city it is not often that strangers become lost in the mazes of the business section. But a few days ago a traveler did and he declares that he was not drunk either. A day or two ago Day Clerk McDanel at the Hotel St. George, was astonished when a well dressed man appeared and exhibiting a key said: "Can you tell me what hotel that belongs to. I am stopping at the place but I went there in a bus and when I left did not notice it very closely and cannot find my way back."

Investigation showed that the stranger had been at the Golden Rule and he was instructed how to find that hostelry. He was from New York.

CATTLE TRANSFERRED.

Twenty-Three Cars From Huntington to Seattle Passed Through the City Today.

A shipment of 23 cars, about 600 head of fat cattle was transferred from the main line of the O. R. & N. in this city today to the Northern Pacific and will be sent out to Seattle over that line tomorrow.

The cattle were consigned from Huntington to the Frye-Bruhn company at Seattle and were fed here en route. Nate Rains and Glenn Bushee transferred the shipment and reloaded them here. The cattle were purchased in the vicinity of Huntington and were loaded at that place.

FEW SEE ECLIPSE.

Old Sol Hardly Feazed by Lunar Interposition.

Pendleton people who arose early yesterday morning were able to see the partial eclipse of the sun. However the shadow was so slight that only the more informed ones knew that it was there. By the use of smoked glasses it could be discerned that the lower right hand corner of Old Sol was slightly blemished by a small black shadow in the form of a crescent.

Without glasses it was impossible to see the eclipse.

NEW LAW IS POOR

ACCUSED MUST SERVE LONG TERMS IN JAIL.

Men Arrested for Crime May Be Compelled to Serve Out Several Sentences While Awaiting Trial—Jail Capacity Will Be Taxed and County Will Have Big Board Bill.

An example of the effects of the new law leaving the power of indictment entirely with the grand jury may be seen in the case of J. C. Ireland, now under arrest here charged with stealing a rig from the McBride stable at Athena.

Several days ago District Attorney Phelps started to file an information against Ireland but he found that Governor Chamberlain had already proclaimed the new law in force. Consequently Ireland must wait until fall when his case will be laid before a grand jury. He is now in jail and will have served out a lengthy sentence before he can be tried.

As a result of the change in the law the wheels of justice will be made much slower and there is danger that the present county jail may not be able to hold all the men who will be waiting for grand juries.

In this county, as in other large counties, there are dozens of cases annually wherein transients are arrested for petty robberies or other crimes. Often the cases are "cinches" and in the past speedy justice has been secured through the district attorney's filing information at once. In the majority of instances the prisoners would then plead guilty and receive their sentences.

Under the new law the county will have to feed many prisoners between court sessions and there will be difficulty in securing convictions through the fact that witnesses will leave the county before cases are called.

WIN BY BIG SCORE.

Pendleton Takes Closing Game from La Grande.

By a score of 13 to 1 Pendleton retrieved some of its former bad scores at La Grande yesterday. Following the game the members of team returned home on train No. 5 and they are now here for a few days' rest.

Thursday the team will go to Walla Walla for the Fourth of July series and after the series there Walla Walla will come here to play.

Woodmen Lose.

Not the least in importance of the ball games yesterday was a match between the Pendleton Woodmen and the Nolin league team. The game was played on the Nolin diamond and the game resulted in a score of 6 to 5 in Nolin's favor.

For the Woodmen players Lee Drake and Parkes were the twirlers, the former being in the box the most of the time during which he struck out 12 of the Nolin stickers. Stanton caught for the Woodmen. The personnel of the Nolin nine is not known, excepting that Mortimore was behind the bat.

Little Girl on Long Journey.

HARVEST WILL BEGIN MONDAY

AT LEAST TWENTY COMBINES TO START.

Cold Springs and Pilot Rock Sections First to Garner Their Grain—Price of Grain Sacks Much Lower Than for Several Years—Farmers Laying in Supply This Week.

The hum of at least 20 combined harvesters will open the harvest season in Umatilla county next Monday morning, July 6, and from that date until the last crop is harvested the machines will be kept at work.

In the northwest part of the county in what is known as the "light land" district, about 10 harvesters will start next Monday and an equal number will also be started in the vicinity of Pilot Rock. Among those to start in the northwest part of the county are Hans Lorenzen, Henry Lorenzen, Andy Peebler and others, while J. A. Gurdarian, James Agee, Alvin Wade and Jerome Stonebreaker will start in the south part of the county.

Grain sacks have been taken out this week by most of these farmers and everything is in readiness for the beginning of active operations next Monday morning.

In both of these localities farmers say that the wheat is better than they had expected to find it after the long dry spell of weather and a good, average crop will be harvested.

The prices of grain sacks this week are 6 cents for old sacks and 7 1/4 for new.

MORMON PREACHERS ARE EGGED AND THEN DRENCHED

Latter Day Saints Find Preaching in Missouri Town No Fun and Decide to Get Out.

Rolla, Mo., June 29.—Twenty-two Mormons, who arrived here yesterday to preach Mormonism on the street, were "egged" last night and afterwards drenched with water from a fire hose. The water was not turned on the preachers until the eggs, a band of music and the preaching of a Salvation army corps failed to break up the meeting.

An egg was broken on the head of one of the Mormons while he was praying. The water caused the Mormons to take to their heels. One of the Mormons made a short address in front of the Grant hotel this morning. He said that no further effort would be made to conduct services in Rolla and that the band would leave here.

CAMPERS ARE MAROONED.

Six People on Uninhabited Island Without Food or Drink.

San Pedro, Calif., June 29.—A party of six campers from Los Angeles are marooned on uninhabited San Nicholas Island, the outermost of all the islands off the coast of California, about 100 miles at sea. It is believed they are without provisions or water.

Ten days ago the party was taken to the island on the yacht Nita. No names were given the captain, who was told to call for them Thursday of last week. The launch California started for the island Wednesday with provisions, but in the fog the captain failed to locate the island and was driven back by a storm.

Bryan Leaders Scared.

Denver, June 29.—Bryan leaders are frightened today by the report that the eastern wing of the party is planning to get control of the resolutions committee and put through a "conservative" platform. Bryan has sent letters and a reassuring message, saying there is no danger of the "conservatives" putting through a platform. It is expected the fight will be over the anti-injunction plank.

HERDER KILLED.

Jim Moore Pulled Gun Quicker Than Allen Johnson.

Jim Moore, a shepherd, shot and instantly killed another shepherd named Allen Johnson at Lyon's hill, 18 miles east of Union, at 3 o'clock Saturday morning. Allen is a colored man about 18 years of age. Moore had been employed for a number of years by Ed Miller, of Union, and Allen was taking care of the flock of W. Wilshire, a sheep man of North Powder. The two men had a quarrel once before and when they met the tragedy was enacted. Allen had a gun but did not get a chance to use it. Moore does not deny the shooting.

Sheriff Childers, who was attending the pioneer reunion, left for the scene of the trouble as soon as word of the affair reached Union. He returned with Moore at 11:30 tonight. It was considered that an inquest would not be necessary. A preliminary examination will probably be held before Justice of the Peace John Eaton tomorrow, although District Attorney Ivanhoe has not yet been communicated with on the subject. There was one witness to the affair—a man named Dunlap—but he has declined thus far to say anything in regard to it.
