AMONG THE EXCHANGES OF THE INLAND EMPIRE

Town Wiped Out. With the exception of Robinson & Robinson's general store, the residence of W. P. Yarnell and a lodging house in the rear of the main street, the town of North Hooper was wiped off the map at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, says the Washtucna Enterprise. The fire originated in an unknown manner in a little room connected with Gholson & Larson's saloon and the devastation was complete in 40 minutes. The only theory advanced is the careless throwing about of cigarettes.

The building destroyed were G. O. Mustard's saloon, Gholson & Larson's saloon and dance hall, George Barnes' barber shop, W. P. Yarnell's saloon, Miller & Pearson's saloon, Ben Johnson's saloon, a restaurant and other smaller buildings. The total amount of the losses sustained can not be estimated. The contents of all the buildings except Mustard's were burned. Mustard saved a part of his goods from the flames and established business in a small shack. No means of fighting fire were at hand. The buildings were temporary structures and it is understood that no insurance was carried in the town, as none of the companies would invite the risks.

Big Mining Deal.

A placer deal and one of the biggest that has been pulled off in Oregon since the days when placer mining was king in the mining camps of the west, was consummated in Baker City yesterday, says the Baker City Democrat.

The sale was that of 160 acres of placer ground, known as the under-wood placers, on Pine creek, two miles south of Cornucopia, owned by George Herbert, H. G. Blair and James Underwood. The purchasers are Spokane people represented by C. F. Soderling and B. E. Smith. The consideration was $50,000.

It is understood the purchasers will make immediate arrangements to operate the placers on a very extensive scale.

For several years the owners have carried on operations in a primitive way on account of lack of means to properly equip them. They have paid handsomely, however, and it is certain that big dividends will result for the new owners.

Drilling for Oil.

Actual drilling commenced last Thursday on the first prospect well which is to be sunk by the Madras Oil & Gas company, and unless some unexpected accident delays them, work will be continued steadily night and day until they have solved the question of whether or not oil exists

LEWISTON EXPECTS TRAINS.

Rumored That Service Will Be Inaugurated on Lewiston-Riparia Line.

It is rumored in railroad circles today that an early schedule may be expected on the Lewiston-Riparia line, but no definite information as to when the service will be inaugurated is available. It has been known for some time that the officials of both the Northern Pacific and O. R. & N. companies have been laboring to reach an agreement as to the plan for joint operation and division of the business, but the companies have not yet announced the results of these conferences.

The Portland office of the O. R. & N. company has made all preparations to inaugurate a train service as soon as instructions to do so are received. The first traffic sheet preparatory to inaugurating the service was then extended to June 1, and a further extension until July 1 afterwards taken.

The tariff sheets for the new road have been recently revised, and a train schedule adopted, but the time for these to become effective has not been stated. The company has also had the tickets for the new road printed, and it is generally believed an early announcement may be expected.—Lewiston Teller.

Mrs. S. L. Bowen of Wayne, W. Va., writes: "I was a sufferer from kidney disease, so that at times I could not stand straight. I took Foley's Kidney Remedy. One dollar bottle and part of the second cured me entirely." Foley's Kidney Remedy works wonders where others are a total failure. Pendleton Drug Co.

MAY OUST FOREIGNERS.

Montenegrins May Be Asked to Vacate Roslyn Region.

No fear is felt as Roslyn because of the disturbance made there and the threats issued by the Montenegrins, according to City Councilman Fred Shaw who has just returned from the hills, says the North Yakima Republic. The Montenegrins, who are husky, big men, without families, are not considered altogether desirable as an element in the community by the other miners, and will probably be given an opportunity to move along to some other center of activity.

At present there is no trouble of a special kind. The whole difficulty arises from the fact that the men have little time on their hands. There is not sufficient demand for the output of the mines to keep the hands all busy and therefore the men are not crowded with work. The company is giving them a day or two a week, enough to support them, but the balance of their time is their own and as a consequence they have grown discontented.

Wanted, at Once.

Good clean rags; market price paid. East Oregonian office.

In paying quantities underneath the wheat fields of north-central Crook county, says the Madras Pioneer. The work is in charge of General Manager Ross, who has had 23 years' experience in drilling for oil, and preparations have been made to continue the first well to a depth of 4000 feet if necessary, although it is confidently expected that oil will be found long before that depth is reached. For the present only one shift is worked at the drill, but as soon as it gets in good working condition the drill will be kept going night and day, so that rapid progress will be made.

No Trouble This Year.

A troublesome question, which has heretofore been a bitter one of contention, was amicably settled last week and there will be no feud between the sheep and cattle men this year, says the Sumpter American.

A committee of the sheep and cattle owners who recently leased the 100,000 odd acres of timber lands between Sumpter and the Susanville and John Day country, on the south and west, and Burnt river country on the south and east, met Frank Gardner, who has charge of the lands, during the week and allotments were made to the complete satisfaction of all.

The sheep men are to graze on the lands running from Sumpter to Whittin, while the cattlemen are to confine their stock on what has been termed the Burnt river slope, which embraces the lands between Whitney and the Malheur county line.

A Big Realty Sale.

The largest sale of real estate in the history of the northwest where the transfer is being made by one firm is now being negotiated at Wenatchee and involves the sale of the large stock ranch of which Lester Coffin of this city, says the Lewiston Teller, is the owner of a half interest. The ranch is located on the Columbia river below Wenatchee, and is several miles in length by several miles in width. It contains a complete independent telephone system, and is equipped with every facility for handling the ranch business. The deal now being negotiated deals only with the ranch and its improvements, but involves approximately $250,000.

A New Deputy.

As the present deputy district attorney for Morrow county was elected school superintendent at the late election, District Attorney Phelps has appointed C. M. White, of Ione, to fill the position. We believe Mr. White will make a capable and satisfactory official.—Irrigon Irrigator.

STATE FAIR PREMIUMS.

Book of 100 Pages Issued by Fair Board.

Salem June 30.—The premium list of the Oregon state fair has been published, and is being distributed throughout the state. The list of premiums, together with the rules governing the awards, is put up in book form, the volume containing about 100 pages and is profusely illustrated. The sum of $10,000 will be given in premiums on live stock, agricultural and manufactured products.

The work on the preparations for this fair this year is progressing rapidly. The new addition to the grand stand is well under way. This addition will accommodate several hundred more people. The track is in the best of condition, and will be faster this year than ever. The Salem track has the reputation among horsemen of being the fastest harness track on the coast, three world records having been broken on it.

More than 100 horses are now in training at the fair grounds, and the stables have never before been so full at this time of the year. It will require 300 stalls to house the horses that will take part in this year's racing events.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup is the one that children like so well to take at it tastes nearly as good as maple sugar. It acts gently yet freely on the bowels and thereby it drives the cold out of the system. It is sold by Tallman & Co.
