

NEW ROAD TO TAP CENTRAL OREGON

CROOK COUNTY PEOPLE TO BUILD OUT OF SHANIKO.

Vast Rich Section Adjacent to the Deschutes Will be Tapped by a Line of Road, Perhaps This Season—Farmers Are Joining in the Work—Right of Way Is Being Secured.

The Oregon Sunday Journal says of the progress of the new railroad to be built from Shaniko to the upper Deschutes River district:

Progress is being made in the undertaking to build a railroad from Shaniko into the upper Deschutes river country. The people of Interior Crook county are working as one man in the harness to accomplish the result they aim at, and if work proceeds at the present rate they will have a road built and in actual operation in time to move next fall's wheat crop.

Farmers are signing subscriptions of money and labor to the cause, men with capital are putting what they can spare into the fund, and no time is being lost in completing all preliminary arrangements for the construction of the line. It is proposed to build about 98 miles of road, from Shaniko to Bend, and tap the region tributary to Prineville, Redmond, Madras, Lamona and Haystack country.

The farmers are in earnest and determined to have a transportation line that will relieve them from the present burdensome method of hauling wheat and grain products by wagon over the long trail from the upper Deschutes to Shaniko, the terminus of the Columbia Southern railroad. This haul costs them 25 cents per bushel of grain delivered, and in addition a waste of valuable time in getting the grain to market when prices are favorable and quick delivery is desirable.

R. Howard, superintendent of the Deschutes Irrigation & Power company, was in Portland yesterday conferring with officials of that company, who are deeply interested in the success of the project and are rendering valuable assistance.

Among the men directly connected with the railroad project are some of Portland's substantial citizens as well as leading Crook county business men. The list of incorporators of the company includes Jesse Stearns, Fred S. Stanley, A. F. Biles and others.

Rights of way are being rapidly acquired and within two weeks the company will be ready to begin construction work.

READY FOR WORLD CRUISE.

Big Fighting Ships Ready to Weigh Anchor.

San Francisco, July 6.—Headed by the Connecticut, the flagship of Rear Admiral Sperry, the Atlantic fleet of battleships will steam out of San Francisco Bay tomorrow morning and sweep away in majestic array, out into the Pacific. All is in readiness for the great fighting machines to weigh anchor and begin the second long leg of the world tour, which will take Uncle Sam's voyagers to many strange lands of the Far East before they again arrive at an American city on the Atlantic seaboard.

Read Admiral Capps, chief of the bureau of construction of the navy department, will accompany the fleet as far as Honolulu. Admiral Capps will make an inspection of the site of the proposed naval station at Pearl Harbor, and will report upon the location of the dry dock and the various buildings of the station. He will also make a report to Secretary Metcalf on the fleet's cruise from San Francisco to Hawaii. A board of naval officers will convene at Honolulu upon the arrival of the fleet there for the purpose of inspecting and recommending the location of the new dry-dock and the building of the proposed naval station at Pearl Harbor.

The itinerary of the fleet provides for its arrival at Honolulu on July 16, remain seven days; arrive at Auckland on August 9, remain six days; arrive at Sydney on August 20, remain seven days; arrive at Melbourne on August 29, remain seven days; arrive at Albany, Australia (for coal) on September 11, remain six days.

A WEEK OF SPORTS.

Great Speed Events in Countries of the World.

New York, July 6.—Speed-mad motorists will occupy the spotlight in the sporting world this week, the two big events being the Grand Prix of France and the start of the Glidden tour in this country. As the premiere automobile racing event, the eyes of motorists throughout the world will tomorrow turn toward Dieppe, where 47 of the greatest speed machines ever built will contest in a dare-devil, death-defying struggle for international supremacy. The list of entries includes 34 French, six English, four Italian, two German and one American cars. The latter is a Thomas and will be driven by Lewis Strang. The Thomas has drawn the fifteenth position in the start.

The Thomas entry for the Grand Prix is not only noteworthy in that it is the only American car entered, but it is also the lowest powered car in the race. There is little possibility, in the opinion of experts, for an American victory, but the Thomas is confidently expected to finish well up in front. Reports from Paris state that Hemery, who drove a Benz racer to victory in the St. Petersburg-Moscow event, is a favorite.

The course and conditions are the same as those of last year. The course is a triangular one of about 77 kilometers, which the competitors will traverse 16 times, making the total distance a little over 769 kilometers, approximately 477 miles.

The race last year was won by Nazario, an Italian, who covered the distance in 6:46:33, at an average speed of 74.5 miles an hour.

Glidden Tour.

American motorists, too, will have a busy week of it. Following the big legislative and good roads convention to be held tomorrow and Wednesday in Buffalo, under the auspices of the American Automobile association will be the start of the annual touring contest for the Glidden trophy. There will be 12 days of more or less arduous travel for the contestants, with two Sundays of rest intervening. The distance covered will be 1,669.7 miles, the start being from Buffalo on Thursday, with the finish at Saratoga Springs on July 22. The principal cities on the route are Pittsburgh, Harrisburg, Philadelphia, Albany, Boston and Bethlehem.

Olympic Games.

The present week will mark the gathering of all the crack athletes of America and Europe who will compete in the Olympic games at the big stadium of the Franco-British exhibition, near London. While the athletic contests will not be commenced until next week, there will be two important Olympic competitions this week. The international grass court lawn tennis contest commences today, and on Thursday, Friday and Saturday the rifle and pistol competitions will be held at Blisley. The American team is composed of some of the crack shots of the army and militia and a victory is confidently anticipated for American arms.

W. R. Ward of Dyersburg, Tenn., writes: "This is to certify that I have used Foley's Urino Laxative for chronic constipation and it has proven without a doubt to be a thorough, practical remedy for this trouble, and it with pleasure I offer my conscientious reference." Pendleton Drug Co.

Sheriffs in Twin Cities.

Minneapolis, Minn., July 6.—Sheriffs from 29 northern and western states assembled here today in the seventeenth annual convention of the Interstate Sheriffs' association. Members of the association are here from all over the territory between Michigan and California and will remain three days. A number of papers dealing with criminals and their treatment will be read, including one by Felix Alston, vice president of the Wyoming Sheriffs' association, who will tell about "Catching Horse Thieves in the Far West."

Bucklen's Arnica Salve Wins.

Tom Moore, of Rural Route 1, Cochran, Ga., writes: "I had a bad sore come on the instep of my foot and could find nothing that would heal it until I tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Less than half of a 2 cent box won the day for me by affording a perfect cure." Sold under guarantee at Tallman & Co.'s drug store.

Educational Campaign.

Jackson, Miss., July 6.—An educational campaign, which has for its object the extension and improvement of the public school system of Mississippi, was launched at a conference commenced at the state university today under the auspices of the Mississippi Teachers' association. Industrial and agricultural education in the elementary and secondary public schools is recommended. In addition to the attendance of a large number of educators, many commercial and civic bodies, industrial and farmers' unions and women's clubs are represented.

THE AMOUNT OF YOUR "BELIEF IN ADVERTISING" WHICH IS PUT INTO TYPE IS WHAT COUNTS.

There is probably a clothing ad in today's paper that will remind you that your new suit is overdue. Meet the ad "face to face," and it will help you to meet the clothes problem that way.

If you have lived too long in one place, look at the furnished rooms advertised today—and get a change of scene.

It won't pay you to try to deal with a buyer who wants your property only half as much as "the right man" would want it.

Any quest by which you can make a "new test" of want advertising today? Think it over.

Your store is NOT "big enough," or prosperous enough, unless your ambition and aspirations are under-sized.

There never was a day in any calendar when adequate advertising would do more for your store than it will today.
