HARNEY CROPS LATE BUT GOOD

DR. KERN FINDS
SEASON MONTH BEHIND.

Local Dentist Returns From Tour of Southern and Central Oregon—Dawn of Great Development Era Is Breaking — Outlook for Railroad Across the State Is Bright.

That the season in Harney county is nearly a month behind the usual order is declared by Dr. M. S. Kern, who has just returned from a month's trip to his ranch in that region. But while the season is late he says that the crop outlook is better in Harney than on the John Day river or in Baker county, through which he passed en route.

Harney county and the entire section of central Oregon is now on the eve of a great development is believed by Dr. Kern.

He says the outlook for a railroad across the state now seems brighter than ever before and that the people of Harney county are expecting to see construction work started next spring. Surveying parties are now at work in Lake county and other places along the projected line.

CZAR PARDONS A REBEL.

Acts on His Own Initiative in Remarkable Case.

St. Petersburg, July 6.—Although the Russian senate court of appeals refused to present a petition for a pardon, Czar Nicholas has on his own initiative pardoned an ex-soldier, Lust, who, after being legally dead for two years, showed up again and was sentenced to two years hard labor in the Siberian mines.

During the revolt of 1905 in the Baltic provinces, Lust was sentenced to death by court-martial. The next day he was taken out for execution, a platoon of his comrades firing a volley at him as he stood against a tree. Incredible as it may seem, Lust, with 12 bullets in his body, was

NOT AN ACCIDENT

NO ONE INJURED IN UMATILLA ON THE FOURTH

Nothing Happened to Mar the Pleasure of the Many Celebrations in Umatilla County—"Safe and Sane" Could Be Applied in Every Instance—Horse Falls and One Runaway But No Damage Done.

There were no deaths or injuries from fire crackers in this county on the fourth nor were there any other accidents of any importance. At Cayuse where hundreds of people had gathered in rigs and on horseback for the Indian celebration there was nothing to mar the pleasure of the occasion.

However, one runaway occurred on the road to this reservation. It was a team driven by D. B. Costuma and Dr. Easley and the animals started to run a short distance this side of the reservation line. After they had run some distance one of the horses commenced to kick and he was pulled down by Mr. Costuma. No harm was done excepting that the circle of the buggy was broken. The two men rode home on a friendly dray wagon.

Another young man, William Coffman, was thrown from his horse while on the way to the Indian celebration but he escaped without any injury.

During the celebration at Walla Walla one celebrator, said to have been drunk, was struck on the head by a policeman and for a time it was feared he would die.

LIQUOR AT AUCTION.

Bankrupt Sale of Maze Saloon Will Be Sold July 18 at 10 O'clock.

Judge Thomas Fitz Gerald, referee in bankruptcy, has set July 18 at 10 o'clock as a time for selling the bankrupt stock and fixtures of the Maze saloon owned by Hansen & Olsen. The sale will be held at 124 West Court street, where the stock is now stored and the entire list of fixtures, liquors and tobaccos will be sold at auction. The various articles will be sold by cases.

Though the prohibition law is in effect its provisions do not prevent the sale at auction of a bankrupt stock of liquors for the reason that the national bankruptcy law provides for the public sale of liquors.

Balloon in Wheat Fields.

Robert Kirkpatrick, the well-known farmer near Cayuse while attending to his evening work on his farm a few evenings ago, saw a paper balloon alight in his wheat field, near the barn. The balloon was on fire and alighted in dry wheat which would have taken fire had he not been at hand to extinguish the blaze. It is not known where the balloon started from, but Mr. Kirkpatrick feels that it may be a source of danger for the wheat fields if they are released during the harvest season when grain is dry enough to burn.

DIES FOR EACH OF THREE LOVES

Morphine for Carrie, Laudanum for Eva and Shotgun for Henrietta. Chicago, July 6.—A dispatch to the Record-Herald from Hazlehurst, Miss., says: Unable to decide which of three women he really wanted to marry, Ell Hood, 17 years old, a boarder at the farm house of Ell Graves, eight miles from Hazlehurst, yesterday decided that the best way out of this difficulty was to commit suicide, in such a way that each of the women would know that he had killed himself for her.

For Miss Carrie Nelson, 18 years old, he swallowed 60 grains of morphine, for Mrs. Eva Spellman, aged 35, he drank four ounces of laudanum and for Miss Henrietta McDonald, aged 16, he put the muzzle of a shotgun into his mouth and pulled the trigger with his toe.

Beside his body was found on a table a paper wrapper that contained the morphine. On it was scrawled "For Carrie." The empty laudanum bottle stood on a slip of paper on which was written "For Eva." An empty envelope on which a picture of a shotgun had been drawn was inscribed "Henrietta."

Except that he had been acting queerly and that he had become despondent Graves said he saw nothing in Hood's behavior that indicated that he contemplated self-destruction.

C. B. FORD IS DEAD.

Mr. Ford was 55 years of age and came from Missouri to Pendleton four years ago at which time he was employed in the bridge and building department of the O. Mr. Ford's death breaks a family circle of 12 children, he being the first to die in the family since 1862. The youngest child in the family is now 39 years of age.

Three brothers and four sisters live in Missouri and two sisters in Nebraska, while Charles P. Ford lives in this city. The funeral will be conducted under Masonic auspices one day this week and interment will take place in Olney cemetery.

WATER SHORTAGE

STREET SPRINKLING TEMPORARILY STOPPED.

Mayor Thinks Difficulty Will Be Overcome in a Few Days—Volume of Water Tributary to Wells Being Increased—Water Muddy Today Because of Workmen.

Pendleton has suffered for the past few days from a temporary shortage of water and as a consequence the street sprinkling had to be tabooed yesterday and today. However, Mayor Murphy states that they will be at work as usual tomorrow morning.

In order to increase the water supply the commission is now having a concrete wing wall built across the river just above the pumping plant. By doing this they expect to increase the volume of water above the plant. From the river bed the water seeps through the gravel bed to the pumping plant. No water is taken directly from the river.

Today workmen have been busy with scrapers excavating for the proposed concrete wall and the muddy water today has been due to them.

LINKS THEM BY MARRIAGE.

Chinese Empress Forces Rival Families to Make Peace.

The Chinese empress dowager has a characteristic and diplomatic way of making peace when the heads of rival factions fall out. She issues the command that their families shall be united by marriage.

In this way she has restored harmonious relations between Yuan Shih Kai and Chang Chi Tung, leaders of the progressive and conservative parties. When both statesmen were present at a conference before her throne the empress suddenly announced that it was her wish that their youngest son and daughter should be betrothed, and, although both men were furious, they were too much afraid of losing their heads and accordingly a marriage was immediately arranged.

About a year ago the empress in the same way made peace between Yuan Shih Kai and Tish Lang, who were political rivals. The latter was commanded to give one of his daughters in marriage to the former's son.

VICTIM OF "DIP."

"Woman in Black" Takes Purse and Rings.

Tacoma, Wash., July 6.—State Railroad Commissioner J. S. Jones is the latest victim of the mysterious "woman in black." His pockets were picked and his wallet, containing $27 in cash, several drafts, two rings valued at about $150 and other valuables, was extracted by the slender fingers of the female "dip."

Mr. Jones, while passing through a crowd about a bargain counter in a prominent store, came face to face with a tall, slender, young woman dressed entirely in black. The "woman in black" crowded close to Commissioner Jones as he passed in the crowd and a few moments later he noticed that his inside coat pocket felt a trifle light.

He then discovered the loss of his wallet. A search of the store was immediately instituted for the "woman in black," but she could not be found.
