

TO SAVE OREGON'S VAST FORESTS

The Oregon Forestry Association, which was first organized October 9, 1896, and reorganized December 22, 1906, has begun the publication of a monthly magazine, The Oregon Forester, at Corvallis, and sets forth a declaration of principles and a plea for forest preservation, as follows:

This organization solicits your support and co-operation in effecting:

A campaign of publicity for the purpose of educating our people as to the great economic value of the forests of the state.

An awakening of our people to the necessity and importance of legislation on behalf of the forests of our state.

A public sentiment in favor of conservative forestry and forest protection.

An intelligent state forest policy.

Here are a few figures that are worth your careful attention:

Our forest area is approximately 20,000,000 acres. At least one-third, and probably more, of this area is of such character that no other crop will equal in profit that of a permanent forest cover.

Oregon today possesses more standing timber than any other state in the Union. She has over one-half of the standing timber of the Pacific coast area, and over one-fifth of the standing timber of the United States, not including the insular possessions.

The crop standing on the commercial timber land of Oregon today is estimated to be 300,000,000,000 board feet.

The output of lumber for 1906 was approximately 2,000,000,000 board feet, and for the last year, 1,540,000,000 board feet.

At a market price of $10 per thousand, that makes a total of $15,000,000 to $20,000,000. The other products of the forest are tan bark, ascaris, poles, piling, cord wood, pulp wood, etc., easily brings the total for the forest products up to $40,000,000.

Of this vast amount probably not far from $30,000,000 went to pay the various workers in the woods and mills of the state.

Then add to this their wages derived from the manufacture of finished products within the state, which has been estimated to be $5,000,000, and we have a total of $35,000,000 in workmen's wages for one year.

What other industry of the state can make such a showing without one dollar's expense to the commonwealth?

This great wealth of timber is an inheritance from the ages and this association stands for the protection, conservation and economic harvesting of it.

It is conservatively estimated that in this state an amount of timber equal to twice the mill cut is each year destroyed by fire, except possibly the year 1907. What does this mean to our people, our manual workers especially? Nothing more nor less than a dead loss of $70,000,000 a year, enough to build and equip 20,000 homes for average families.

Is it not time that we took steps to avoid this appalling loss; to protect this most valuable resource?

The work that lies before us now is one of pure, loyal patriotism. We want to leave to the future citizens of this great state as unimpaired an heritage as the redman left us.

We desire to see Oregon avoid the creation of such barren wastes as are too frequently seen in the wanton de-forested areas of parts of Europe and parts of eastern America.

This we can do by pursuing a wise forestry policy, which simply means using the forests as a great factor for the production of trees.

May we not count on your assistance in this good work?

Moral, financial and political aid is needed; in at least one of these ways, perhaps, you can help the cause of conservative forestry in Oregon. Will you? Then send us your name, and tell us in what way we may expect you to help in the cause.

KILLS ARDENT ROMEO.

Brother Mistakes Sister's Lover for Burglar and Shoots Him Dead.

Huntsville, Mo., July 7.—Thomas J. Bagby was shot and killed near here Saturday night when, like Romeo of old, he clung to a rope ladder and talked to his sweetheart, Nellie Carter, 17 years old, the daughter of a Randolph county farmer.

E. J. Carter, jr., the girl's brother, admits the shooting, but declares he thought Bagby a burglar. The Carters and Bagbys are neighbors. They were friendly until young Bagby began to pay court to Miss Carter. Bagby was forbidden to see her.

Through friends, the young couple arranged a meeting, he to call at her window after the family had retired. Bagby had just mounted the ladder when her brother awakened, seized his shotgun and ran outside. He saw a man's form in the vines and fired.

Delay in commencing treatment for a slight irregularity that could have been cured quickly by Foley's Kidney Remedy may result in a serious kidney disease. Foley's Kidney Remedy builds up the worn out tissues and strengthens these organs. Commence taking it today. Pendleton Drug Co.

QUARREL LEADS TO MURDER.

Woman Shoots Man Who Seeks to Have Marriage Postponed.

Los Angeles, July 7.—Mrs. Margaret Finn, a widow aged 30, who keeps a rooming house at 702 1/2 South Broadway, last night shot and killed J. E. Mahaffy, aged 30, to whom she was engaged to be married. The couple had been engaged for some time.

Mahaffy called on Mrs. Finn and asked her to put off the marriage indefinitely, giving as a reason that he was leaving the city soon and expected to be gone for some time. Mrs. Finn objected to a postponement and the couple had a quarrel.

This quarrel was overheard by Judge Lang, a brother of the woman and when Mahaffy left the house Lang followed him into the street and engaged him in conversation. He was attempting to effect a reconciliation between the two when Mrs. Finn came up behind the pair and fired two shots from a revolver into Mahaffy's back. Both shots penetrated the lungs, proving almost instantly fatal.

AGED MAN SAVES GIRL FROM DEATH.

Dashes Into Burning Dwelling at Risk of Own Life and Carries Her to Safety.

Pretty little blue-eyed Dorothy Woods, 6 years old, was saved from death in her burning home yesterday morning by the bravery of Owen Regan, a neighbor, aged 70, who risked his life to save the child, says the Portland Oregonian. The little girl lived with her mother, at 575 Borthwick street, in a small frame cottage. Shortly after 9 o'clock, when Mrs. Woods had gone to church, the child started a fire in the kitchen stove and dropped a burning match on the matting-covered floor. The matting caught fire and in a few moments the dwelling was wrapped in flames.

Regan, who lives next to the Woods cottage, at 577 Borthwick street, heard the girl's screams and broke down the front door of the blazing dwelling. The child was surrounded by flames in the kitchen and her rescuer dashed through a blazing curtain to the single door of the kitchen took the frightened girl in his arms and carried her to safety.

The fire department, when summoned, could do nothing except save the surrounding buildings and the cottage was destroyed, leaving Mrs. Woods destitute. Neighbors gave her assistance and will probably raise money for her benefit. The building belonged to J. Sunski, who carried a small amount of insurance.

Charles Clarke, a deckhand on the ferryboat Mason, who roomed in the basement, had $800 in bills concealed beneath the floor of his room and the money was recovered.

To Reward Heroes.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 7.—As a feature of the convention of the International Association of Accident Underwriters, which opened here today, three medals will be awarded to as many persons in the United States and Canada who, during the last year, have performed deeds of heroism which resulted in the saving of human life.

A committee has been considering many instances of heroism and will announce its decision today, and the awards will be made during the convention.

TWO REMARKABLE CURES OF ECZEMA

Over Twenty-three Years Ago Baby had Severe Attack—Years Later Grandfather Suffered Torments with the Disease—Virulent Sores Developed from Knees to Toes.

BOTH OWE COMPLETE RECOVERY TO CUTICURA

"In 1884 my grandson, a babe, had an attack of eczema, and after trying the doctors to the extent of heavy bills and an increase of the disease and suffering, I recommended Cuticura and in a few weeks the child was well. He is to-day a strong man and absolutely free from the disease. A few years ago I contracted eczema, and became an intense sufferer. A whole winter passed without once having on shoes, my ankles and nearly from the knees to the toes being covered with virulent sores. I tried practitioners, specialists, dermatologists, etc., to no purpose. My daughter-in-law reminded me of having prescribed Cuticura for my grandson more than twenty years ago. I at once procured the Cuticura Remedies and found immediate improvement and final cure till to-day, though well along in years, I am as though I had never had that disease. I am well known in the vicinity of Louisville and Cincinnati, and all this could be verified by witnesses. M. W. LaRue, 845 Seventh St., Louisville, Ky., April 23 and May 14, 1907."

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of scalp, as in scalded head; the facial disfigurement, as in acne—all demand remedies of extraordinary virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills are such stands proven by testimonials of remarkable cures when many remedies and even physicians have failed. One set is often sufficient to cure.

Cuticura Soap (5c.) to Cleanse the Skin, Cuticura Ointment (5c.) to Heal the Itch, and Cuticura Pills (5c.) for the Form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 25c. per box of 60 in Purify the Blood, Sold throughout the world. Foster Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Preps., Boston, Mass.

PREVIOUS CONVENTIONS.

Democracy Is Country's Oldest Political Party.

Washington, July 7.—Today's convention in Denver is properly that of the country's oldest political party, since the present democratic party claims to be the lineal descendant of the organization founded by Thomas Jefferson. In his day it was known as the republican or democratic-republican party.

The first convention since the party assumed something resembling its present form was in 1832, at Baltimore when Jackson was nominated by acclamation. The conventions of 1844, 1848 and 1852 were all held in Baltimore, the presidential nominees being Polk, Cass and Pierce, respectively.

Conventions held since that time have resulted in the selection of the following candidates for president and vice-president:

June 2, 1856—Charleston, Douglas and Johnson.

June 18, 1860—Baltimore, Douglas and Johnson.

June 11, 1860—Baltimore, Breckinridge and Lane.

June 8, 1860—Baltimore, Breckinridge and Lane.

August 29, 1864—McClellan and Pendleton.

July 4, 1868—New York, Seymour and Blair.

July 6, 1872—Baltimore, Greeley and Brown.

July 27, 1876—St. Louis, Tilden and Hendricks.

July 22, 1880—Cincinnati, Hancock and English.

July 8, 1884—Chicago, Cleveland and Hendricks.

July 5, 1888—St. Louis, Cleveland and Thurman.

June 21, 1892—Chicago, Cleveland and Stevenson.

July 7, 1896—Chicago, Bryan and Sewell.

July 4, 1900—Kansas City, Mo., Bryan and Stevenson.

July 6, 1904—St. Louis, Parker and Davis.
