FOR GOOD ROADS.

Most Important Meeting of Kind Ever Held.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 7.—What will beyond doubt go down in history as the most important good roads convention ever held in America was opened here this morning, when Mayor Adam delivered an address of welcome to the hundreds of delegates present. Although the meeting was called by the American Automobile association, and a majority of the visitors are motorists, the farmers of the nation are also represented by delegates from the National Grange, and the professional road makers by members of the American Road Makers' association.

The inaugural session this morning was under the direction of Charles T. Terry of New York, chairman of the legislative board of the American Automobile association. The present status of motor vehicle legislation in the nation and the various states was discussed and plans made for united action by motorists everywhere in favor of the pending federal registration bill, and motor laws in states not yet possessing them.

The good roads convention will be formally opened this afternoon, with Robert P. Hooper of Philadelphia, as chairman. The list of speakers for this afternoon and tomorrow morning includes authorities on highways improvement from New England to the Pacific coast. Practical demonstrations will be given by professional roadbuilders tomorrow afternoon.

The meeting will close tomorrow night with a banquet at the Troquois Hotel, at which several men of national reputation will respond to toasts. Most of the visiting motorists will remain over until Thursday to witness the start in the Glidden tour.

DEMOCRATS OF NATION GATHER AT DENVER

States, and each territory—Alaska, District of Columbia, Hawaii and Porto Rico—shall have six delegates. All democratic citizens of the United States, irrespective of past political associations and differences, who can unite with us in the efforts for a pure, economical, constitutional government are cordially invited to join with us in sending delegates to the convention.

When the reading of the call had been completed Chairman Taggart announced that the Rt. Rev. James J. Keane, Roman Catholic archbishop of the archdiocese of Wyoming, would offer the invocation. As the distinguished prelate lifted his hands the entire audience rose to its feet.

Chairman Taggart then announced the names of the temporary officers selected by the national committee, the principal ones being:

Temporary chairman, Hon. Theodore A. Bell of California; temporary secretary, Hon. Urey Woodson of Kentucky; temporary sergeant-at-arms, Hon. John I. Martin of Missouri; official reporter, Milton W. Bloomburg, Washington, D. C.; first assistant secretary, Edwin Sefton, New York.

The selections of the committees were ratified by the convention without delay and Taggart then appointed a special escort to pilot Temporary Chairman Bell to the stand. The California statesman thereupon "sounded the keynote" of the convention.

At the conclusion of Bell's speech a motion was put and carried directing the various state delegations to announce the names of their representatives on the following convention committees: Credentials, permanent organization, rules and order of business and platform and resolutions.

Following the reading of the committee names and the transaction of some minor routine business, the first day's session was brought to a close in an impressive manner. On motion of the delegation from New Jersey, home of the late Grover Cleveland, the convention, by a rising vote, adjourned until tomorrow out of respect to the memory of the ex-president, and the delegates and spectators filed slowly from the hall, while the soft strains of "Nearer, My God, to Thee" floated out through the open windows, a tribute to the man who twice carried democracy's standard to victory after stirring battles.

HOTTEST DAY.

Official Thermometer Registers 104 in the Shade.

This has been the hottest day this summer in Pendleton and this afternoon the thermometer at H. F. Johnson's residence registered 104 in the shade. Until today the highest temperature was 102.

There has been but little breeze during the day and with the high temperature the heat has been more noticeable than on any other day, this summer. On Main street this afternoon the thermometers are soaring skyward and the pavement simmers under the hot glare of Old Sol.

SECRETARY GARFIELD IS COMING SOON.

Returns From Honolulu and Will Visit Hermiston Project and Umatilla Reservation.

Good news for Hermiston was contained in the brief telegraphic dispatch in the East Oregonian today announcing that Secretary James R. Garfield of the interior department, has arrived at San Francisco from his vacation in Honolulu.

The secretary has promised the people of Hermiston and the engineers in charge of the government irrigation project that he would visit the Umatilla project immediately upon his return from Hawaii and now that he has landed on the continent an early visit from him is expected.

Secretary Garfield will go over the Umatilla irrigation project thoroughly and when satisfied with the completion of the work there it is expected that some definite plans will be announced looking toward the opening of the remaining lands to settlement.

Will Visit the Agency.

While in Umatilla county the secretary will not confine his visit to the irrigation project, but will also be a visit at the Umatilla Indian agency and will look over the condition of the Indians and discuss the policy of the agency with Agent McFarridge.

RAILROADS WIN.

Interstate Commerce Commission Says Regulations Are Just.

Washington, July 7.—In a decision rendered today by the interstate commission it upholds the present regulations of the railroads, requiring lumber shippers to stake and pack their own shipment when forwarding in open cars, declaring the practice is economical and not unjust.

The decision grew out of a number of complaints filed by the National Wholesale Lumber Dealers' association and the Pacific Coast Manufacturers' association against several of the largest railroads.

The lumbermen contended the present regulations were unjust and discriminatory.

Commissioners Clark and Harlan filed a dissenting opinion.

DEATH STALKS AT AUTO RACES.

Dieppe, France, July 7.—Cissac, driver of one of the French cars and a mechanic, were killed and one other person seriously injured in the grand prix race today, in which Germany carried off the first three prizes.

Lautenschlager, in a Mercedes, won first, making the run in six hours, 45 minutes and 33 seconds.

Strang, driving an American Thomas was never a serious competitor.

Garfield Headed This Way.

San Francisco, July 7.—James A. Garfield, secretary of the interior, arrived here today on the cruiser St. Louis from a visit to the Hawaiian Islands, where he went to familiarize himself with conditions.

DEEPER WATER IN COQUILLE.

Bandon Business Men Raise Fund for River Improvements.

Bandon, Ore., July 7.—The business men of Bandon are raising a fund for river and harbor improvement work, independent of congress. A lagoon near the mouth of the Coquille river deflects a considerable volume of water from the channel, lessening its scouring efficiency and causing the formation from time to time of a sand bar. The money, of which a considerable amount has been already subscribed by public spirited citizens, business men and mill and ship owners, will be used to build a break water across the lagoon. It is the opinion of engineers in the government service that this will confine the water to the main channel and keep the sand washed away.

The regular government appropriation of $50,000, which is being expended on the North Jetty, is making a wonderful improvement in the entrance to the river and no vessels have been barbound for a period of nearly a year.

Mrs. Baumelster, mother of Mrs. W. L. Thompson, left today for her home at Asotin, Wash., after having visited with her daughters in this city.

"Known For Its Strength"

What It Means

Many people do not know what a bank's capital means to its depositors, or the difference between a bank of little or no capital, and one with a large capital. One of the functions of

A Bank's Capital

is to protect its depositors from possible loss; therefore the larger it is, the greater protection the depositors have.

Capital of . . . . .	200,000.00
Surplus Fund of . . . . .	50,000.00
Undivided Profits . . . . .	25,000.00
Additional Shareholders
Liability . . . . .	200,000.00

A TOTAL OF 475 000.00

This means that this bank must lose practically half a million dollars before its depositors could lose a cent.

This protection is for YOU.
