OREGON SHEEP
ALL INSPECTED

WORK COMPLETED
JULY 1—REPORTS MADE

Efficiency of Work of Bureau Is Shown—Number of Scabby Sheep in State Reduced From 17 to 2 Per Cent—Believed That September Inspection Will Find State Entirely Free.

July 1 the federal stock inspectors, working in Oregon under the direction of Dr. S. W. McClure, completed the inspection of the sheep of this state and the returns that have been received at the Pendleton bureau of animal industry office show some very interesting things. The efficiency of the present state sheep law and the benefit that the state receives from the work done by the government are two things that are very evident.

A year ago when the sheep of Oregon were inspected by the federal men it was disclosed that 16 4-5 per cent of the sheep of the state were affected with scabies. Under the provisions of the sheep law every sheep in the state was dipped, the work being done between April and September.

This year the federal inspectors commented an inspection February 1 and all the sheep of the state were inspected between that time and July 1. Reports received from his men by Mr. McClure show that out of the 2,245,055 sheep in the state only 2 52-100 per cent were found to be scabby. These sheep were all dipped twice under the supervision of a federal inspector and all exposed sheep were dipped once.

On September 1 another inspection of all the sheep in the state will be started and it will require three months to complete the work. At that time all scabby sheep, if any, will be dipped.

The inspection just closed shows that the following counties were absolutely free from scab: Baker, Wallowa, Grant, Wheeler, Crook, Sher-

This year Umatilla county had 1900 scabby sheep, whereas a year ago it had 42,000. The 1900 scabby sheep found this year were dipped in May and when inspected again June 20 were found free from disease. There is now no scab in Umatilla county.

Nearly all of the scab now existing is found in Lake and Malheur counties. Most of the scab is among bands in southern Malheur and owned by Spaniards. These men were slow to dip last year. The scab in Lake county was scattered by a band of bucks.

In the Willamette valley there is now no scab excepting among a few small bands in Douglas county.

Mrs. Ruhnke Sues for Divorce.
Mrs. Albert Ruhnke, formerly of this city and later of Kamela, has sued for a divorce from her husband, the suit being filed in Portland. Mrs.
Ruhnke was formerly Christina Wagonblast and was practically reared in this city, where she married Ruhnke, a locomotive engineer, 12 years ago. They resided in La Grande for a few years after their marriage and later moved to Kamela, where Ruhnke was helper engineer on the O. R.
& N. for seven years. A few years ago he purchased a farm on Hood river and is now running an engine on the Hood River railroad, owned by William Eccles. Mrs. Ruhnke charges cruel and inhuman treatment in her complaint and asks for her maiden name and her share of $29,- 000 of property.

Will Move to the Mountains.
R. E. Tarbet and family and Mr. and Mrs. John E. Bennett will leave in a few days for Meacham, where they will reside on their homesteads for the next year. Mr. Tarbet will leave the last of the week for Meacham to prepare the camp and the families will go up a few days later. They expect to do considerable work on their land during the summer and fall.

Off for the Mountains.
A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs.
G. W. Phelps and Dr. and Mrs. M. D.
Metzler of Heppner, will leave next week on a month's outing trip into the mountains. From here the party will go to the springs in the south end of the county and then on to Desolation lake. A month or more will be passed in camping hunting and fishing in the wilds around Desolation lake and creek.

Begins Harvesting Today.
Hermann Suhl who resides five miles north of the city, began harvesting his wheat crop with a combined harvester this afternoon. He will have an average yield, and practically all of that section north of the city will make an average crop, he believes.

James Ross Will Be Committed to State Insane Asylum.

Jim Ross, who tried to commit suicide at Echo by hanging himself by a barb wire rope from a cliff, is very likely to go to the asylum. Ross was brought to this city last evening and is now at the county poor farm. He was not dangerously hurt by his suicidal attempt and was taken care of by Dr. G. W. Cole after his arrival here.

But today Ross has been sufficiently "bug house" to be unpleasant for the remainder of the poor farm guests and it is the intention to examine him for insanity.

In talking with the fellow Dr. Cole learned that he had previously tried to kill himself while he was a resident of Washington. But the attempt like the one at Echo, proved a failure.

RADER WAS "CANED."

Retiring President of Funeral Directors' Association Is Handsomely Remembered.

On his return from Portland this morning M. A. Rader brought with him a cane of which he is justly proud. It is a handsome gold-headed walking stick and is engraved with his monogram and also that of the state funeral directors' association.

During the past year Mr. Rader served as president of the state association and the cane was given him Tuesday evening by his fellow members in appreciation of the work he has done for the association during his term. The convention this year was held at McMinnville and during a banquet Tuesday evening the president was "caned."

Mr. Rader is now a member of the executive committee of the State Funeral Directors' association, and he will represent the state association at the national convention to be held at Indianapolis in October.

Evening for Rectory Fund.

The choir of the Church of the Redeemer will give an ice cream festival and social at the dining room of Hotel Bowman on Saturday evening, July 11, from 8:30 to 11 p. m.

The entertainment will be for the benefit of the rectory fund of the church and will be accompanied by a delightful musical program, beginning at 9 o'clock. Judd Fish, proprietor of the Bowman, has kindly tendered the dining room for the entertainment and a pleasant and profitable evening is anticipated. The complete program for the entertainment will be published in the East Oregonian tomorrow evening.

Mr. Fish desires to announce that he will tender the free use of his elegant dining room to any church desiring to give a like entertainment for

GIVEN LIFE SENTENCE.

Dan Doherty Denied New Trial by Judge H. J. Bean.

Dan Doherty, slayer of Oscar Allen, was yesterday sentenced by Judge Bean to serve a life sentence in the penitentiary as punishment for his crime. Doherty had been convicted of second degree murder and he was sentenced at Heppner yesterday.

Prior to the passing of sentence upon Doherty Judge Bean denied a motion for a new trial, made by Judge Fee, attorney for Doherty. It is now understood that an appeal will be taken.

Judge Bean Bean, District Attorney Phelps and Judge Fee all returned from Heppner last evening.

POSTOFFICE BUSINESS GROWS

RECEIPTS FOR QUARTER SHOW 15 PER CENT INCREASE

Largest Growth Was During April and May—Election Literature Responsible for Part, But It Will Not Account for Entire $600—Growth Is Steady Throughout the Year.

Receipts of the Pendleton postoffice for the quarter ending July 1 show an increase of almost 15 per cent over the receipts for the same period in 1907. According to the figures contained in the report recently prepared by Harry Rees, assistant postmaster, the total receipts for the past three months aggregate $4759.70.
A year ago the receipts for the same quarter amounted to but $4152.69.

For the months of June this year the receipts were but slightly greater than those for June last year, most of the increase being during the months of April and May. Part of the increase in postal business may be attributed to the election matter that was sent out. But the local postoffice people deny that the 15 per cent increase was due to that source. While considerable matter was sent out through the local office it is said that not more than one fifth of the $600 increase was due to that source.
The fact that the receipts for June surpassed those of June, 1907 indicate that the natural business of the local office is slowly growing.

Language Cost $5.
L. P. Watson was fined $5 by Justice of the Peace Joe Parkes today for using profane language upon a public highway. The particular language used by Watson was addressed to J. G. Richardson, a neighbor, and the complaint was sworn to by Richardson.

FAIR WILL BE SUCCESS

Buildings Are Well Under Way and Army of Men Is Being Employed—Thinks It Will Surpass in Some Respects the Beautiful Lewis & Clark Exposition—Best Buildings Are to Be Made Permanent.

That the Alaskan-Yukon-Pacific exposition to be held in Seattle in 1909 will be a great event, well conducted and appropriately equipped to display the resources of the great territory it is to represent, is the belief of H. C. Willis, formerly of this city, but now of Blalock Island, who has just returned from the sound cities.

The great buildings of the exposition are now well under way and an army of men is employed in constructing them and clearing away the immense grounds.

It will surpass in many features the Lewis and Clark fair at Portland, in the opinion of Mr. Willis, because of the wider experience of the fair management. The Lewis and Clark fair and the Jamestown event of last year taught Seattle a lesson.

One fine feature of the Seattle exposition is that the best buildings are to be made permanent and will be given to the university of Washington for its use. They will therefore become permanent assets of the state of Washington and are being erected with a view to architectural beauty and permanency.

Many Oregon men are at the head of departments of the Seattle exposition. Henry E. Dosch is director of exhibits. Henry Reed is at the head of the publicity department, while Frank L. Merrick, formerly press agent for the Lewis and Clark fair, is also press agent of the Seattle exposition and is giving it much publicity.

BETTER PRESS SERVICE.

United Press Used by the East Oregonian Is Extending Its Wires All Over the Coast.

The Oregon Daily Journal says of the extension and improvement of the United Press telegraphic service, which furnishes the telegraphic news of the East Oregonian:

Growth of the United Press service in the west is exemplified in the extension of the Pacific coast leased wire to Vancouver, British Columbia. The coast wire now stretches from San Diego to British Columbia and has all the important coast cities on the circuit.

From the Journal office in Portland the Journal and United Press operators can work direct with Los Angeles, San Diego, Fresno, San Francisco, Sacramento, Medford, Seattle, Tacoma, and Vancouver, B. C. and many other towns along the line.

The United Press is conceded by such newspapers as the Indianapolis News Baltimore American, New York Journal, Cleveland Press and Chicago Examiner to be the most up-to-date service in existence. It is gradually supplanting the old associations in all parts of the United States.

Postpone Dipping.

Owing to the hot weather the dipping of the horses on the reservation has been postponed until the latter part of September. The dipping was delayed to await the arrival of Commissioner Leupp, who fully approved the plans for the same. But according to Dr. S. W. McClure the weather is now so hot that it would be hard to have the Indian ponies rounded up. So the work has been postponed.

County Alfalfa Harvested.

Superintendent J. B. McDill of the county poor farm, has just finished harvesting the first crop of alfalfa on the poor farm. The first crop amounted to about 100 tons of excellent hay and he expects to cut almost that amount in the second harvest, which will begin in a couple of weeks.

Fleeing From Hot Weather.

A party consisting of Mrs. Joe Tal-man, Mrs. Julia Kinney, Mrs. George Hamilton and young Folsom Tallman, will leave this evening for Lehman springs to remain during the hot weather. The party will be taken to the springs by Harry Folsom.

WHOLESALE DROWNING A JOKE

Clothing and Valuables Found on Raft But Owners Are Safe.

What was feared would turn out to be a wholesale suicide, murder, or fatal accident, has cleared up in a rather laughable episode, funny for all except those concerned, says the Walla Walla Bulletin. Word came to Deputy Sheriff John Cummings at Wallula the other day that a raft had been caught by some squaws upon which was the clothing of four men, together with some personal property.

Deputy Cummings hurried at once to the scene of the trouble and there found out the true status of the case, which was as follows:
The four men, three of whom were Italians, wanted to cross the Snake river but had no boat. They decided to swim, but didn't want to get their clothing wet, so they made a raft and put their clothes on it. They intended to use the raft in helping them across, but while they were getting ready, the raft in some way slipped its moorings and went down the river of its own accord. The river is high at this time and the current swift, and the four saw their clothes disappear, thinking they would never see them again.

They secured some more and went on their way, being last heard of at Pasco. Their garments are being held for them in case they want them.
