AMONG THE EXCHANGES OF THE INLAND EMPIRE

Lost Is Found.

The people of Sunnyside have recently been much concerned over the absence of Charles M. Lowe, a well-to-do drayman and transfer man of that city. Three weeks ago Lowe disappeared, says the Yakima Republic. He had apparently gone where the woodbine twineth. No one had seen him go and no one had heard him say anything about going. Immediately the Nicolai case was brought up and reminiscences of the mysteries of his disappearance were discussed. Search parties were organized; the river was dragged and the country around Sunnyside was thoroughly scoured in hopes of finding the missing Charley. But there was no Charley. Finally some of the creditors began to grow anxious. Liens were filed on his property and other desperate methods of collection resorted to.

Meanwhile the countryside was becoming more worked up over the mysterious disappearance of the good citizen. Trips to North Yakima were taken by many of the neighbors in the hope of finding the young man here. In vain their search. This morning, however, as several of the searchers walked into the Calumet restaurant, which is owned by George H. Irish, a former resident of Sunnyside, they beheld the long-lost Charley, calmly eating his breakfast.

With perplexed faces each one of the anxious party grasped the young man by the hand and welcomed him as a man resurrected from the dead. Lowe then proceeded to explain the cause of his absence, saying he had taken a notion to visit his people in Iowa some time ago. So he took the train for the east one day without telling any of his friends about his trip.

When Lowe had finished his story every man comprising the searching party took an oath to the effect that hereafter when anybody down at Sunnyside gets lost, they can stay lost until they find themselves.

Irrigation Suit Hearing.

A party consisting of Attorney General A. M. Crawford, his son, James Crawford, State Engineer John H. Lewis, John Kollock and W. T. Muir, left yesterday for Laidlaw, Crook county, where they will take testimony in the case of the state against the Three Sisters Irrigating company, the Columbia Southern Irrigation company, and W. A. Laidlaw, says the Salem Statesman. It seems that all the companies have been dissolved except the Columbia Southern Irrigation company, which claims to be insolvent. Mr. Kollock will be the attorney for the receiver of the company and W. T. Muir attorney for the company. The party will go as far as Detroit by rail and will pack from there in. They do not expect to return for at least two weeks.

Overcome By Heat. Jack Moser, who has been employed by R. J. Allen in the construction of the new store room being erected by George W. Chute in Two Rivers, was slightly overcome by the heat shortly after noon Tuesday and had to lay off work the balance of the day.

The thermometer registered 108 in the shade almost all afternoon and, as Mr. Moser, who had not been accustomed to outside work found it too much for him and began to feel sick and dizzy. He hurried home, and by a liberal application of cold water to his head and face, came around all right in a short time.—Two Rivers Tribune.

La Grande Well Lighted.

La Grande's streets are now illuminated almost to the "lustre of midday" through the liberality of a number of the business people, says the La Grande Observer. A good portion of the extra lights used for the Fourth have been retained and there are now strings of incandescent lamps festooning the two principal thoroughfares, Adams avenue and Depot street. The brilliancy of the lights cannot fail to attract attention and as an advertising feature the additional illumination will be of great value and especially noticeable to strangers who may pass through La Grande on the trains at night. The city is to be congratulated and the energy of the club members and business people are to be commended for this evidence of enterprise.

Farmers Expect Big Crops.

Rev. Bushnell, Congregational missionary for northern Idaho, has returned from an extended trip through the Clearwater and Central Ridge sections, says the Lewiston Teller. Mr. Bushnell says the crop conditions in the Central Ridge country are most promising and farmers expect to harvest a bumper crop this year.

"The prospects could not be better," said Mr. Bushnell. "The grain covers the ground completely and the heads are long and well filled. The spring grain is perhaps a little backward for this season of the year, but no section of the upper country is suffering for rain and no apprehensions are entertained for the spring crop."

Farmers Use 2,000,000 Bags.

Two million grain bags are being delivered to farmers in this section, making shipments aggregating 20 carloads, says the Watsburg News. The bags are largely from Calcutta, only a small portion being manufactured in the state penitentiary. Cars have been received daily for a week and farmers have been busy hauling the bags to the fields where harvest will begin next week generally.

Penitentiary bags are being shipped out freely, many shipments going to each of the grain-growing counties in eastern Washington. The shipment will aggregate 1,500,000 for the season.

association of Oregon and Washington will be asked to cooperate in making the meeting a success. The basis of representation will be announced within a few days, but all commercial and industrial bodies, county judges, county commissioners, editors and mayors, will be authorized to appoint delegates and are urged to have a good representation present.

TOOK THE BRIDE'S GIFTS.

Old Indian "Blessed" Her for $1 Per Blessing.

A Riverton, Wyo., dispatch in the Cheyenne Tribune gives the following humorous account of an Indian wedding at that place:

A wedding ceremony was one of the most prominent features of the Arapahoe Indian festivities given in honor of their visiting kinsmen from Oklahoma and other states, last Sunday, at the lodge about three miles below Riverton.

The bride was none other than the comely daughter of the great warrior, Shakespeare, and granddaughter of Scar Face, one of the oldest "Raps on the reservation, having passed the century mark. The groom was the stalwart brave Big Tracks, a grand specimen of a once mighty race.

The couple were married at the Mission below Riverton Sunday morning, the legal ceremony being performed by Father Sifton. In the afternoon the Indian ceremony took place at their pow-wow lodge near here, before a large assemblage of whites and visiting tribesmen. The happy couple received many presents consisting of ponies, blankets, bead work, provisions and clothing, the bride receiving a jacket trimmed with beads and ornamented with 1050 elk teeth, a most priceless present.

The whites showered silver dollars and halves on the beautiful bride, which caused the old bucks to hold a hurried consultation. After its conclusion the wise old boys advanced one by one and with hands extended over the bride's head, pronounced the tribal blessing and relieved her of a dollar apiece for their trouble. When her silver gave out the blessings ceased, which shows that the Arapahoes are becoming civilized.

The national prohibition party will meet at Columbus, O., next week to name a national ticket. The list of presidential possibilities contains such names as Dr. W. B. Peimore of St. Louis, Seaborn Wright of Georgia, Joseph P. Tracey of Michigan, A. Manierre of New York, Dr. J. B. Cranfill of Texas, and F. Wheeler of California. For vice president, might be mentioned J. B. Lewis of Massachusetts and Prof. A. S. Watkins of the Ohio Northern university.

THE AMOUNT OF YOUR "BELIEF IN ADVERTISING" WHICH IS PUT INTO TYPE IS WHAT COUNTS.

There is probably a clothing ad in today's paper that will remind you that your new suit is overdue. Meet the ad "face to face," and it will help you to meet the clothes problem that way.

If you have lived too long in one place, look at the furnished rooms advertised today—and get a change of scene.

It won't pay you to try to deal with a buyer who wants your property only half as much as "the right man" would want it.

Any quest by which you can make a "new test" of want advertising today? Think it over.

Your store is NOT "big enough," or prosperous enough, unless your ambition and aspirations are under-sized.

There never was a day in any calendar when adequate advertising would do more for your store than it will today.
