DAIRY COWS TO BE INSPECTED

CITY COUNCIL ADOPTS DR. COLE'S SUGGESTIONS.

Federal Bureau of Animal Industry Will Make Examination Without Any Cost to City or Owners of Cattle—Diseased Bovines Will Be Placed Under Ban—Ordinance Being Drafted.

Pendleton is to have an investigation of its dairy cows and those found affected with tuberculosis will be put under the ban.

The inspection of the herds will be made by the bureau of animal industry, men under Dr. McClure, and it will be without expense to the city.

At the council meeting last night Dr. W. G. Cole, city physician, brought the subject of bovine tuberculosis before that body. He told of the situation that probably exists here and said he had asked Dr. McClure if the government would permit him to make an inspection. After writing the head of his bureau Dr. McClure learned that he could do so and he informed the city physician accordingly.

When the proposition was laid before the council last night the aldermen were found ready to take up the movement. It was decided to draft a general ordinance covering the subject and this will be done at once by City Attorney Raley with the assistance of Dr. Cole and Dr. McClure.

It is very probable that the ordinance will contain other things than a provision calling for the inspection for tuberculosis.

The report of the views for Madison street was heard last night and accepted. The report recommended that $10 damages be awarded to Mrs. J. F. Robinson because of a change that will necessitate a concrete wall on the Madison street side of her place.

The proposition of bridging or filling in the gulch on High street was also up but no final action taken.

REGULAR ARMY OFFICERS SCARCE

CONDITION OF SQUADRON HERE SHOWS SHORTAGE

Squadron Commanded by Captain Who Would Ordinarily Have Troop—Few West Pointers—Soldier Boys on Hard Hike—Fine Lot of Fellows Make a Hit—Band Concert Greatly Enjoyed.

That the regular army is far short of its requisite number of officers is very effectively shown by the condition in the squadron of the 14th cavalry which arrived yesterday and left this morning on its march to American lake.

The first squadron is commanded by a captain who normally would have but a troop, while three of the troop commanders are lieutenants and the remaining troop, Troop C, is without an officer and is commanded by its first sergeant.

The personnel of the officers with the squadron is as follows: Captain Pope, commanding; Lieutenant Ellis, adjutant; Captain Joyce, chaplain; Dr. Chamberlain, surgeon; Lieutenant Hume, quartermaster; Peterson, veterinarian; Lieutenant Converse, commanding machine gun platoon; Lieutenant McKenney, commanding Troop A; Lieutenant Meyer, commanding Troop B; and Lieutenant Rush, commanding Troop D.

Very few of the officers are "West Pointers," most of them owing their commissions to Spanish-American war service.

Owing to the shortage of officers those now with the squadron receive a "workout." Regulations call for an officer with a troop at every call and as there is but a single officer with each troop on the march he has to do work that would normally be distributed among three men. This they do without receiving additional pay for Uncle Sam makes no "overtime" allowance with his fighting men.

On Hard March. The first squadron is now just started on a very long and dusty march. From here they go across the Cascade mountains, via the Barlow road, to Gresham, and from there over to Vancouver barracks, where they will entrain for American lake. The march from Walla Walla to Vancouver constitutes the squadron's "hike" for this summer. Today the squadron goes to Echo.

Both in personal appearance and behavior the men of the first squadron are exceptionally good. All of the officers and troopers are well-built, hardy cavalrymen and most of them are in the service because they like it. While in the city the men were remarkably well behaved and won the respect and good will of all by their conduct.

Concert Was Enjoyed. At the fair pavilion last night the regimental band gave a concert that was listened to by four or five hundred people and it was highly enjoyed. Under the leadership of Chief Musician Osterman some fine selections were rendered last night and all brought forth applause. The concert was given under the auspices of the baseball association.

QUESTION OF JURISDICTION.

Attorneys for Roy Peringer Say Case Does Not Belong Here. Claiming that the federal court alone has jurisdiction in the case, Messrs. Lowell & Winter, attorneys for Roy V. Peringer, filed a motion this morning asking Judge Bean to revoke the restraining order issued several days ago at the instance of Marion Jack.

An answer to the complaint filed by Jack's attorneys was also filed. When the other side has replied to the answer the case will then be taken up and the motion acted upon by Judge Bean.

Couldn't Secure License. After failing to secure a marriage license in this city because nobody could swear as to the age of the bride-to-be, Miss Bessie E. Girtton of Harney county, and Elvin B. Marshall of this county were compelled to go to Walla Walla to wed. There the license was secured without trouble and the young people were united by Rev. A. L. Thoroughman, formerly of this city.

Cle Elum, Wash., July 16.—Restrained by the temporary dam erected by the government engineers here, the waters of Cle Elum lake are 13 feet higher than normal. It is planned to let off this reserve water in a few days and it will take two weeks to do this, so great is the supply.
