NEW CATHOLIC ENCYCLOPEDIA

BAKER CITY DIOCESE GIVEN PROMINENT PLACE

Fifteen Counties or 65,683 Square Miles Under Bishop Charles J. O'Reilly—Diocese Has Catholic Population of 4000—More Than 500 Catholic Indians Attended to on Umatilla Reservation.

The Baker City diocese of the Catholic church is given a prominent place in the new Catholic Encyclopedia, which is now being compiled by the Catholic church of the United States. The following excerpt is taken from the article on the Baker City diocese presided over by Bishop C. J. O'Reilly:

Baker City, diocese of, comprises Wasco, Klamath, Lake, Sherman, Gilliam, Wheeler, Morrow, Grant, Union, Crook, Umatilla, Wallowa, Baker, Harney, Malheur counties in the state of Oregon, U. S. A., an area of 65,683 square miles.

It was established in 1903. The Rev. Charles J. O'Reilly, rector of the Church of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, Portland, Oregon, and editor of the Catholic Sentinel, was named its first bishop and consecrated August 25 of that year.

The diocese has a Catholic population estimated at about 4000, whose spiritual needs are cared for by 19 diocesan and seven Franciscan and Jesuit priests. The Sisters of St. Francis, St. Dominic and the Most Holy Name of Jesus and Mary conduct five schools and academies.

At the Umatilla Indian reservation, there are more than 500 Catholic Indians attended to by the Jesuit Fathers of the Rocky Mountain Mission, two Brothers of Christian Instruction, and eight Sisters of St. Francis. There are 13 churches and 36 mission stations in the diocese.

Bishop O'Reilly was born January 4, 1842, at St. John, New Brunswick, Canada, and educated at the Christian

He was then appointed to the mission of Oswego and Tigardville, and in February, 1894, was made rector of the Church of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, Portland.

DIED WITH LOCK JAW.

O. R. & N. Section Foreman Victim of Dreaded Disease.

Charles Palmer, employed as section foreman on the O. R. & N., died on the train last night between Hot Lake and La Grande while on the way to the hospital at Portland, says a La Grande report. Death was caused by lockjaw, which developed from a very slight injury caused by the explosion of a torpedo.

He was in charge of section work at Lime, near Huntington, and last Monday while handling one of the torpedoes used in giving signals to trainmen, the torpedo exploded, striking him on the face. A small scratch was inflicted on his lip, and from this wound developed tetanus or lockjaw. He was put on No. 5 with the object of taking him to Portland. His condition grew rapidly worse and death came to his relief shortly before the train pulled into La Grande.

The remains were taken from the train at La Grande, turned over by one of the company's physicians, Dr. Hall, to the undertakers, Henry & Carr.

The deceased was about 35 years of age and unmarried.

HAIL RUINS CROP.

Quinlan Brothers Sustain Heavy Loss in Nez Perce Country.

John Quinlan has just received word from his brother in Idaho saying that the crop on their ranch in the Nez Perce country has been entirely ruined by the hail storm that occurred there a few days ago. Three of the Quinlan brothers have a ranch in Nez Perce and according to John Quinlan they had every prospect for an unusually fine crop this year.

Crops all through the Nez Perce country are said to have been good this year until the hail storm came a day or two ago and changed the face of affairs.

FUNERAL OF WILLIAM GUION.

Well Known Newspaper Man Buried With the Setting Sun.

Funeral services of William F. Guion were held yesterday evening at 6:30 from the Hennesey chapel. A large number of the friends of the deceased attended to pay their last respects and many beautiful floral offerings were made. At the services Mrs. Anna Selkirk Norton rendered a solo. B. E. Ladue, Seth Maxwell, Nathaniel Higgins and M. H. Ellis acted as pallbearers.

From the chapel the funeral procession made its way to the cemetery, where the last services were conducted by Father Loeffler just as the sun went down, in accordance with a request made by Mr. Guion.—Walla Walla Statesman.

SENATOR HEYBURN THROUGH.

Senior Senator of Idaho Passed Through Pendleton on His Way to Wallace.

Senator W. B. Heyburn of Idaho, passed through the city today over the O. R. & N., on his way from Boise to his home in Wallace. He is worn out with the work of the recent session in congress in which he took an active part and will remain in the mountains during the summer in the hopes of recuperating.

He is enthusiastically supporting Taft and believes that he will simply sweep the country on November 3. As Taft stands for the Roosevelt principles he believes that the Roosevelt strength and the Roosevelt enthusiasm will all be back of the republican candidate and he sees no reason why victory should not come to the republican ticket.

GOOD PROGRESS MADE ON WALLOWA BRANCH

Conductor Harry Grady of the Elgin branch of the O. R. & N. passed through the city today on his way to Walla Walla on a few days' vacation, says that the track on the Wallowa branch of the O. R. & N. is now laid to a point five miles above the mouth of the Wallowa river and half way between the mouth of the river and the bridge at the mouth of the Minnam.

It is now about 20 miles from the end of the track to the town of Wallowa to which point they expect the track to be laid by September 1. So far the track on the branch has been laid by hand, but now a tracklaying machine will be used and the work will proceed much more rapidly.

Here from Texas.

W. C. Kelsay of The Dalles, an old friend of Manager Judd Fish of Hotel Bowman, is in the city today from northern Texas, where he has invested in wheat lands in the vicinity of Amarillo and Dalhart. He believes that much of the former range lands of that section of the Lone Star state will be converted into farming land within a few years. Mr. Kelsay will be the guest of Mr. Fish for a short time before going to his home in The Dalles.

Club Year Book Is Issued.

The year book for the Thursday Afternoon club is being sent out to the members this week and shows that the coming club year will be very active. Dates and subjects for all of the meetings are announced in the year book and other information concerning the club is given. Mrs. C. J. Smith is president, Mrs. Mary J. Lane, vice president, Mrs. H. J. Bean, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. E. P. Marshall treasurer.

Cavalryman Lost Belt.

A cavalryman's belt, evidently lost by one of the 14th cavalry boys, was brought to the East Oregonian office today. It was picked up on the camp by the ball grounds after the first squadron had departed. The belt was fully loaded with the new Springfield cartridges in clips, thus indicating that the squadron is making its "hike" with complete war-time equipment.

Moving to Meacham.

J. F. McLaughlin, who has been section foreman for the O. R. & N. at Echo for the past nine years, has been transferred to Meacham and with his family is in the city today on his way to their new home. Mr. McLaughlin is one of the most efficient and popular employes in his department and is glad to be transferred to the mountain section.

Conductor Waffle III.

Conductor F. F. Waffle of the Pendleton-Huntington passenger run on the O. R. & N., is ill from ptomaine poisoning and Conductor Norris of the Pilot Rock branch is on his run for a few days. Conductor Joseph Richardson of the La Grande freight division, is on the Pilot Rock run.

Fruit Is District Attorney.

C. J. Ferguson left last evening for Walla Walla and from there he is to go to Roseburg on business before the land office at that point. He will be gone four or five days and during that time any business that may arise for the district attorney's office will be handled by W. C. E. Pruitt.

Veal from Meacham.

Carney & Tweedy of the Central Meat Market, received seven veal from Meacham this morning. The calves had been dressed at Meacham and were sent down by express.

Garden Land Is High Priced.

William Peacock, says a Salem item, who owns an 18-acre garden tract across the river in Benton county, has been offered $15,000 for the land. It is said the garden lands are the best on the Pacific coast. Mr. Peacock is one of the veteran gardeners of Oregon. He is not anxious to sell. The price offered, almost $1000 an acre, is the highest ever offered for farm land in this vicinity.

Lumberman Drops Dead.

While coming down to New Westminster, B. C., from his lumber camp at Heany Monday afternoon, Robert B. Kelly, 58 years old, suddenly dropped dead in his wife's arms. The cause of death has not yet been ascertained.

Saved From Drowning.

Beaten into insensibility to save him from drowning, Mark Brooke, a farmer of Alberta, Canada, was dragged from the Willamette at Portland, a raving maniac, Tuesday evening.

BARN WAS BURNED

ONE HORSE KILLED;
COW AND HORSE SAVED.

Quick Fire on West Bluff Street Yesterday Afternoon Reduces Barn to Ashes in a Few Minutes—Fire Department Arrives Too Late to Save Building—Prevents Spread of Flames.

One horse and an old barn were burned in a quick fire on West Bluff street about 4:30 yesterday afternoon. The barn was on the place occupied by Charley Neill and was situated at the end of Bluff street. The property was owned by A. Gustafson.

The fact that the stable was afire was first noticed by neighbors and the local alarm in that end of town was sounded. However, the response to the local bell was slow and an O. R. & N. engine on the sidetrack took up the cry. The central companies then turned out but arrived too late to do any good aside from preventing the spread of the blaze.

When the fire started there were two horses and a cow inside the barn. The cow and one horse were gotten out, but the other animal was burned to death.

of a chairman, but it is not known that any selection will be made until the meeting in Chicago.

George Fred Williams is suggested in many quarters in connection with the chairmanship on account of his thorough understanding of the eastern situation.

Appeal for Funds.

Bryan and Kern today made public an appeal for campaign contributions, which in part says:

"The first contribution to the democratic campaign fund this year was made by an Iowa farmer.

"Just before the convention, this man, who prefers that his name not be made public, came to Lincoln with a contribution of $100 which he gave Bryan.

"This is an appropriate first contribution, coming from the great body of the population known as agriculturists, for the farmer has nothing to gain by privilege or favoritism. Now that the party has announced its intention not to accept contributions from corporations, not to accept excessive contributions and to publish contributions above a reasonable minimum, it ought to be able to secure sufficient funds from those patriotic citizens who ask from the government nothing but protection.

"As the national committee is not yet organized we ask contributions to this farmers' fund."

Storm Damages Roads.

The examination of the road overseer's report has occupied the attention of the county commissioners today, says the Lewiston Teller. During the day an effort has been made to ascertain what damage has been sustained by the storm of yesterday, but up to a late hour this afternoon no serious damage was reported.

The commissioners were in telephone communication with the commissioners of Idaho county relative to the construction of the wagon bridge across Lawyer's canyon south of Nespecke, and received a report that Idaho county has suffered an additional loss of several thousand dollars by yesterday's hail and rain storm. Communication is cut off from a number of the sections of the county and a complete report of the damage to the Idaho county roads will not be known until all reports are in.

Woman Had the Best of It.

Yesterday there was some domestic infelicity which culminated in a horse whipping on First street, near the corner of Washington street, says the Baker City Democrat.

It would seem that Mrs. Nels Gardner had some little difficulty with Mr. Gardner and she took the matter in her own hands for adjustment. This she proceeded to do with a horse whip she secured from a wagon Mr. Gardner was driving. She belabored her better half with the energy that a parent would use in correcting an incorrigible boy, and he like the self same boy jumped into his wagon and drove away from the reach of his assailant. This is a case where the woman is the better man.

Girl Mystery.

A girl claiming to be 14 years old and saying her name was Florence Grigsby, was brought into police station this afternoon by a constable from Milton, says the Walla Walla Bulletin. She seemed to know where she lived, but was unable to tell any of the officers. She was found in the chapel of Columbia college, where it is claimed she had been playing the organ.

It is not known how the girl happened to get into the chapel or where she came from. It is thought she lives with her parents south of Walla Walla and it is possible that she strayed away from home.

Shot Her Husband.

Timothy Reardon, a bartender at Billings, Mont., was shot and killed Sunday by a woman calling herself Florence Reardon and alleging the dead man was her husband by virtue of a marriage contract entered into last fall. Insane jealousy is believed to have been the cause of the crime.

Narrow Escape.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hill of Somers, Mont., had a narrow escape from drowning and their little daughter, 2 or 3 years old, was lost, in a fierce squall that swept across the upper end of Flathead lake Monday evening.

PRaised Pendleton Hotel.

Easterner Says Best Accommodations This Side of New York.

The Dalles Optimist says of Judd Fish and the Bowman hotel of this city: Coming down on the train a few days ago we met a gentleman who was in the west sight seeing and had stopped a day or so at Pendleton, where he put up with Judd Fish, at the Hotel Bowman.

He, the traveler said, gave him the best accommodations he had had since he left New York. He said that the morning he left he had breakfast for himself, wife and daughter, which cost $3.10, and that he never got better value for his money in his life.

He complimented Judd very highly in every way, and said one could get a two-bit meal or one costing two dollars, but you at all times get the worth of your money, and more. He also said the rooms were very fine and furnishings elaborate and handsome.

Judd's friends in The Dalles will be glad to know he is doing so well, for he has the best wishes of all of our people.
