

BRYAN TO CHOOSE HIS MANAGER

NEBRASKAN'S DECISION ACCEPTED AS FINAL

John H. Atwood Seems to Be Man upon Whom Task Will Fall—James of Kentucky a Possibility—Plans for Notification Will Be Agreed Upon—No Evasion of Contribution Rule.

Chicago, July 24.—A manager of the democratic national campaign will be selected at a meeting to be held in the Auditorium Annex tomorrow by a sub-committee of the democratic national committee. Mr. Bryan will take part in the deliberations and his decision as to a national chairman and other officers will likely be accepted as final.

Several of the members of the sub-committee have already arrived and have entered upon a preliminary discussion of the matter. The sub-committee selected to choose the national officers consists of Chairman Thomas Taggart, of Indiana; Hall, of Nebraska; Mack, of New York; Osborne, of Wyoming; Greene, of Rhode Island; Ryan, of Wisconsin; Daniels, of North Carolina; Wade, of Iowa; Tomlinson, of Alabama; Cole, of California, and Brady, of Oklahoma.

It is generally believed that John will be chosen as national chairman. Allie James, of Kentucky, is also prominently mentioned.

Mr. Bryan is understood to take the view that a man whose reputation is not national will be a better choice for chairman than some widely known politician. It will be in harmony with the action taken about campaign contributions, and will serve to emphasize the fact that the party has broken with its old traditions. Atwood is a lawyer and was formerly attorney-general of Kansas.

There is still some talk of Champau, of Michigan, and Lamb, of Indiana, but Champau's own state delegation refused to re-elect him as a member of the national committee, while as to Lamb there is grave doubt of the advisability of choosing the chairman from the same state from which one of the candidates comes. There was some talk about James M. Kerr, of Pennsylvania, the man who defeated Guffey.

Notification Ceremony. It is probable that at tomorrow's meeting Mr. Bryan will agree upon final plans for the formal notification ceremony, which will take place at his home, Fairview, near Lincoln, Neb., on August 12.

Coincident with tomorrow's meeting, delegates to the national convention of Hearst's independence party will begin to arrive in Chicago. It has been suggested that Mr. Bryan may have hopes of affecting a reconciliation with the New York editor, but this is denied by prominent democrats here today. They declare that the break between Bryan and Hearst is final and irreconcilable, and that the Nebraskan has no desire for a coalition with the handful of Hearst men.

Plans for making publicity as to campaign contributions a live issue will also be informally considered by the members of the sub-committee. Democratic leaders are convinced that this issue alone will attract thousands of voters to the Bryan standard and they intend to make the most of it. No evasions, it is declared, will be permitted, and the publicity rule will be strictly carried out.

Tainted Money. It has been suggested that a corporation might make a contribution through an individual, an employee of the company, but the national committee, it is said, understands thoroughly that Mr. Bryan will not tolerate any such evasion and that he intends to keep a close watch.

Another suggestion is that while a limit of $10,000 has been placed on contributions from individuals, there is nothing to prevent one man making ten or twenty contributions of $10,000 each. But Mr. Bryan has made it clear to his visitors, including the national committee, that this will not be permitted. Nor can the committee evade the order because of the proposed full publication of all contributions, beginning on October 15.

There is no prospect of the committee disregarding Mr. Bryan's wishes on this or any other point. His control is absolute. He has only to suggest a wish, and it is instantly complied with. Such members as privately oppose him are entirely willing to let him have the full responsibility of the campaign management.

Mr. Bryan is not overpleased with the extreme docility of the committee. As the whole responsibility for the management of the campaign, almost down to small details, is upon his shoulders, he fears that, with nobody to act as a countercheck, he may make mistakes.

Bryan's Speaking Tour. Mr. Bryan has no speaking date until Labor Day. After that it is planned for him to make a talking tour that will include New England and New York, with an invasion of Taft's state and the Mississippi valley.

The fact that Mr. Bryan tentatively has determined to make an early invasion of New York is interpreted here as indicating his purpose to wage a fierce battle in that state. He believes from the representations made to him by Charles F. Murphy, W. J. Conners, Norman E. Mack, Bird S. Coler, Lewis Nixon and other democratic leaders, that in spite of his failure to get an eastern running mate New York is debatable ground. The belief has been strengthened within the last twenty-four hours by the tone of several editorial utterances by New York city newspapers which Mr. Bryan has counted against him. The fact that the Denver platform has not met wholesale denunciation by the eastern papers appears to have convinced Mr. Bryan that his cause is stronger in what he once characterized as "the enemy's country," than even has been represented to him by politicians. His advisers say that he will sound his first appeal in New York for the labor vote and that he will depend for success upon enlisting the solid support of that element of the electorate in New York, New Jersey, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois.

ENGINEER NOT GUILTY. Weiser Jury Does Not Hold Engineer for Killing Child.

Edward Hubbard, a veteran engineer on the Oregon Short Line, was acquitted Saturday of the charge of manslaughter preferred against him on account of the accidental killing of the little 4½-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Grimmer, on June 12, when the boy was struck by an engine and killed, says a dispatch from Weiser. The case was one of the hardest fought in the history of the county, Bowen & Ayers conducting the prosecution and B. S. Varian, of Weiser, and J. H. Hawley of Boise, the defense.

The accident resulting in the instant killing of the little boy took place six miles west of the city. Mr. Hubbard was engineer on the second section of the afternoon passenger train. The testimony showed that after the first section had passed, the grandmother permitted the little boy to cross the track after some cows.

The distance to the track was about 100 yards from the house, and after the little fellow had crossed, the grandmother, seeing the second section coming, became excited and started toward the track screaming loudly. The boy evidently heard her and started to recross the track, when he was struck by the engine.

Treasurer Won't Quit. When the county court accepted the bond of W. T. Bell, it did all that is usually deemed necessary to qualify a public official, but Treasurer Frank A. Reavis thought differently and did not turn over the money and books, says the Walla Walla Sun.

Mr. Bell at once began proceedings to compel him to deliver the appurtenances of the office and a writ of mandamus was issued from the circuit court by Judge Knowles Monday, but when it was served Mr. Reavis refused to comply.

A sum of about $27,000 now on deposit in the Enterprise bank is involved and it is reported that Mr. Bell will place this sum in the Joseph and Wallawa banks to even things up for last term. Mr. Reavis is an official of the Enterprise bank.

Girl for Horsestealing. Miss Ada Pierce was arrested at Canyon City yesterday by Sheriff Richardson of Harney county, charged with horsestealing. The woman is supposed to have a male accomplice. She is young and pretty. The man is now being sought by the authorities.

TEXTILE COMPANY OFFICERS. E. Y. Judd of Pendleton, is President—Newspaper Man Secretary.

The incorporators of the Gordon Falls Electric & Manufacturing company met at the company's office in the commercial club building yesterday and elected its officers for the ensuing year, says the Telegram. E. Y. Judd, of Pendleton, Ore., and Hartford, Conn., was elected president of the company. Mr. Judd is owner of the majority of the stock of the Pendleton, Ore., woolen mills and the Pendleton scouring plant and a woolen goods manufacturer and wool buyer of extensive experience in both the United States, Australia, Africa and India. He is a man of large means and most excellent capacity for business.

Charles Coopey, first vice-president, is the senior member of the firm of Charles Coopey & Son, civil and military tailors. His firm has had nearly all state contracts for its military uniforms. He is a man of broad experience in the manufacture of woolen cloth and has large knowledge of woolen mills and of wools and dyes. He has resided in Portland for seventeen years, and four years ago began the agitation for the improvement of Gordon falls and the location there of a textile city.

Oscar Heintz, second vice-president, is owner of the Pacific Iron works, that large institution at the east approach to the Burnside street bridge. He is one of the well-known manufacturers of the city and a man of great enterprise and push.

Sydney B. Vincent, secretary, is one of the well-known newspaper men of the city, and on the side publishes a journal devoted to the interests of the furniture trade. He is exceedingly well qualified for the position.

George L. Peaslee, treasurer, has been engaged in the printing business in Portland for twenty years, and is the senior member of the firm of Peaslee Bros. company. This is one of the large printing houses of the state, and up to a few weeks ago the company owned two establishments, but sold its west side plant so that Mr. Peaslee might devote his entire energies to the interests of Gordon falls. He is as live a man as there is in Portland—chock full of enterprise, and, like White Wings, "never grows weary." He has the habit of making a "go" of everything he undertakes. Himself and brother, W. W. Peaslee, own a printing establishment here that does about all the printing of cartons and labels for the cracker companies from Los Angeles to Helena. It is a $30,000 plant without a line of type in the house, all its presswork being done from engraved plates.

A. T. Lewis, chosen attorney for the corporation, has practiced law successfully in this city for twenty years, and no man is better equipped to look after the interests of the Gordon falls people. He is not only a thorough lawyer, but a man of extreme honor, careful, conservative and thoughtful, and a firm believer in the eternal justice of things—a stickler for a "square deal."

The company's directors will be chosen before the week is over.

BABY GIRL CRIED AND SCRATCHED

All the Time—Torturing Eczema Covered Her Body—Could Not Sleep—Doctor Said Sores Would Last for Years—Skin Now Clear.

CURED IN THREE MONTHS BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I take great pleasure in telling you what a great help it was for me to use Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment for my baby niece. She was suffering from that terrible torture, eczema. It was all over her body but the worst was on her face and hands. Her hands were so bad that she could not hold anything. She cried and scratched all the time and could not sleep night or day from the scratching. I had her under the doctor's care for a year and a half and he seemed to do her no good. I took her to the best doctor in the city and he said that she would have the sores until she was six years old. But if I had depended on the doctor my baby would have lost her mind and died from the want of aid.

"I used all the remedies that everybody told me about and I tortured the child almost to death. Then I saw in the paper how Cuticura was the thing for irritating skin. I bathed her with warm water and Cuticura Soap and used the Cuticura Ointment. She was cured in three months. Now her skin is as clear and smooth as it could be. I shall recommend the use of Cuticura wherever I see the skin in bad condition. Alice L. Dowell, 4789 Easton Ave., St. Louis, Mo., May 2 and 20, 1907."
