AMONG THE EXCHANGES OF THE INLAND EMPIRE

Greeks Form Union.

That Greeks have some ideas along lines of labor unions and organizations was demonstrated yesterday when a number of men who had from the Oxbow where they had been employed but quit work because two of their number had been discharged, says the Baker City Herald.

They stood on their rights as American citizens by adoption, and when the foreman of the work checked out two Greeks who were incapable, the remainder of the bunch began a rattle in their own language much like the cackling of geese. Finally a Greek leader proclaimed some kind of a command in loud tones and they all lined up and started for Baker.

When they arrived here the railway yards attracted them. Greeks have a strong liking for the railroad, somewhat, and upon finding other Greeks in the city the Oxbow bunch decided to clean out their brothers who were already here. Policeman Henry Bowman, who does service at the O. R. & N. yards, was kept busy with the club separating the Grecian gladiators yesterday evening.

Cattlemen Kill Sheep.

Yesterday evening a sheep herder arrived in Baker City from off the Burnt river range and reported that trouble had again broken out between the sheep and cattle men of that section of country, says the Baker City Herald.

According to this story, the difference had reached an acute stage, for he claims that himself and a herder for A. N. Whittier, a large sheep owner of the Burnt river country, were held up by three masked cattle men and relieved of their guns. Afterward the masked cattle men ordered the sheep herders to round up their bands of sheep, which they did, and the cattle men then began the destruction of sheep with 30-30 rifles, killing forty-six outright, crippling ten or more so they died and injuring twenty-six.

It is understood from the herder that criminal proceedings are to be brought against certain cattle men who are supposed to be the ones who wore the masks, and the courts will be used to adjust the matter.

Historic Flag.

Mrs. H. C. Furnell of this city, has in her possession a flag that is thought to be the oldest in the state and was made in Portland in 1869 by Mrs. L. Deardoff, says the Jone Proclaimer. It was made near what is now known as Sunnyside, before Oregon was a state. At that time Portland was only a small town and flags could not be purchased. As the colony wanted to celebrate the glorious Fourth and as they could not get a flag, Mrs. Deardoff got some turkey red calico and bleached cotton, dyeing the white to get blue. The little girls were to have had new dresses of this stuff but went without them and had the flag which their mother made of these materials. A young fir tree supplied the staff and in the shade of the glorious colors of freedom, all had a good time.

The flag has come to be the property of a grandson, J. Deardoff, who considers it priceless, and it is now in the care of Mrs. Furnell of this city and well worth a visit to see.

Local Option League.

Rev. Mr. Doyle, pastor of the Congregational church at Pomeroy, was in Walla Walla this morning conferring with local pastors on the advisability of organizing a local option league in Walla Walla, says the Bulletin.

After a conference with Rev. J. C. Reid of the First Presbyterian church of this city it was announced that no steps would be taken immediately toward an organization, but such a league will be formed in the near future.

These leagues are being organized throughout the state, and Rev. Mr. Doyle left this afternoon for Dayton, where the league will probably be organized immediately. A state league has already been perfected and many local leagues formed in cities. The purpose of the league is to elect a state legislature this fall which will pass a bill providing for local option.

Beer Came High.

Last Sunday while the inmates of one of the houses on Court street were enjoying their dinner with beer as a side issue they were suddenly surprised to have Marshal Harper appear on the scene and notify them that they were liable to arrest for dispensing liquor on Sunday. Monday morning the warrant was issued and the parties were brought up and fined $10.

Marshal Harper says that it is strictly against the law to give away liquor on Sunday, and as he has been instructed by Mayor Wingate to enforce all the laws and ordinances he intends to do so.—The Dalles Chronicle.

at Chester, Texas, and who years ago read newspaper accounts of how Jones had chopped his hand off, dreamed a few weeks ago of the affair. He also saw in his dream the murder of the woman—saw the tragedy enacted, he declares, as plainly as though he had been an actual eyewitness. Waldrip was not acquainted with Jones—had never even seen him, but he was familiar with his description from hearsay, and the man he saw in his dream—the man who killed the woman—was of entirely different appearance.

Waldrip was so impressed with his dream that he felt called upon to study the case. He neglected his own business and delved into the records. He interviewed the prosecuting attorney in the case. He sought the trial judge, long since retired, and begged him for assistance in freeing Jones.

"This man is not guilty, I know it—I saw another man commit that murder—saw him in my dream," Waldrip declared with earnestness.

Mystery Is Solved. At first Waldrip's dream was looked upon as a joke. His friends feared for his sanity. But he kept persistently at his task, and at last attracted more or less of a following.

Little by little the tangled skein was unwound, and now, through the dream of Waldrip, a total stranger, the Governor of Texas and the pardon board have set free Convict Jones.

Bereft of his wife for whose love he sacrificed his right hand, Jones has sought seclusion on a ranch near San Antonio, where he says he shall remain.

THE AMOUNT OF YOUR "BELIEF IN ADVERTISING" WHICH IS PUT INTO TYPE IS WHAT COUNTS.

There is probably a clothing ad in today's paper that will remind you that your new suit is overdue. Meet the ad "face to face," and it will help you to meet the clothes problem that way.

If you have lived too long in one place, look at the furnished rooms advertised today—and get a change of scene.

It won't pay you to try to deal with a buyer who wants your property only half as much as "the right man" would want it.

Any quest by which you can make a "new test" of want advertising today? Think it over.

Your store is NOT "big enough," or prosperous enough, unless your ambition and aspirations are under-sized.

There never was a day in any calendar when adequate advertising would do more for your store than it will today.
