THIRTY-TWO FREE SCHOLARSHIPS

PENDELTON ACADEMY TO DISTRIBUTE GIFTS.

Sixteen Eastern Oregon Counties to Profit by Remarkable Offer—Two Young People in Each County East of Cascades Will Be Given Free Tuition to Local Institution.

Thirty-two free scholarships are to be given away this summer and fall to students of the 16 eastern Oregon counties by Pendleton academy of this city. The scholarships are to be distributed by county superintendents of the various counties, assisted by Principal W. H. Bleakney of the academy, to whom all communications concerning the scholarships should be addressed.

The counties in which these free scholarships will be distributed are as follows: Wallowa, Union, Baker, Grant, Harney, Malheur, Lake, Klamath, Crook, Wasco, Hood River, Sherman, Wheeler, Gilliam, Morrow and Umatilla, and the distribution of the gifts will bring an excellent class of young people to this city to attend this growing and popular institution.

It has been the policy of the academy to give away scholarships to newspapers in the various counties, and this method of advertising has proved to be extremely beneficial. Hereafter the distribution of the scholarships will be a feature of the academy's work, in appreciation of the patronage received from the eastern Oregon counties.

nection with the methods and work of tax collection."

In the investigation of the treasurer's office a mistake of $2 in favor of County Treasurer Bradley was found, and also a mistake of $9.90 against the treasurer, both of which have been corrected.

Fines Still Unpaid.

In regard to unpaid fines the report says: "In going through the records of the circuit court the examiner finds a number of fines and bail forfeitures of which apparently no disposition has been made and which it is deemed may properly be embodied in this report, for such action as may be deemed best by this court. Following is the list in detail:

October 14, 1905, R. Estes, fined $50 for gambling; unpaid and unserved.

October 14, 1905, J. Skogland, fined $50 for gambling; unpaid and unserved.

November 2, 1905, B. B. Livermore, fined $100 for selling liquor to Indian, unpaid and unserved.

November 2, 1905, D. Carlin, fined $100 for selling liquor to Indian, unpaid and unserved.

October 6, 1906, E. Dickey, fined $25 for larceny, unpaid and unserved.

January 22, 1907, Virgil Wade, bail bond of $250 forfeited; Joe Sullivan and C. A. Nelson, sureties; no judgment docket, nor execution issued.

March 28, 1907, Jack Noble fined $50 for gambling and $50 for malfeasance in office; both unpaid and unserved.

April 13, 1907, Wm. Wells, fined $50 for gambling, unpaid and unserved.

February 8, 1908, L. Swaggart, fined $100 for gambling; C. C. Journal, W. page 509, shows payment of this fine to county clerk, but same has not been turned over to county treasury, and fine was not served out in jail."

Conclusion.

The general financial condition of Umatilla county should be a subject of interest to the taxpayers of the county, as it must be a source of pride to the board of county commissioners. With a cash balance in the county coffers of $73,461.74; a registered indebtedness, uncalled, of but $51,415.98; registered warrants called to within a few months from date, and property within its borders of the assessed valuation of over $42,000,000, the county is unquestionably in better financial condition today than ever before.

MATRIMONIALY INCLINED WOMEN TO BE PROTECTED.

"Darling, I Am in Good Standing in My Union; Will You Be My Wife" Is the Formula.

Chicago, Aug. 5.—"Darling, I am in good standing in my union; will you be my wife?" This will be the stereotyped form of proposals hereafter, if the plans made by the officers of the Woman's Trade Union league is adopted at the national conference of the unions to be held simultaneously in Boston, Chicago and New York next month.

The scheme to be considered at a conference is to send out cards to every member setting rules for the guidance of those matrimonially inclined.

MORROW'S WHEAT CROP IS VERY SHY.

Bunchgrass Region Raises but One-fifth of Last Year's Production.

Morrow county will raise about one-fifth of the wheat it produced last year, according to C. A. Rea, president of the First National bank of Heppner, who resides in Portland, but has been passing several weeks in the bunchgrass region of Eastern Oregon recently, says the Telegram.

"Last year Morrow county produced 2,500,000 bushels," he says, "but this season she will harvest about 500,000. The wheat produced in this section is raised mostly in the foothills around Heppner, while the prairies around Penland butte and the Columbia river have no need of combined harvesters, as the grain had barely sprouted before it dried up. I took a buggy ride all through the northern end of the county and found no field worth harvesting.

Around Upper Eight-mile and Hardman, in the southern part of the county, wheat will average about 25 bushels to the acre, and as buyers are offering 75 cents a bushel at the railroad stations, those having wheat will make money this year.

"But Morrow county farmers are out of debt, as a result of several good crops and good prices. Many of them have money to loan out, and so they are able to stand a dry season at this time, without trying to mortgage their farms in borrowing to tide over another season."

Body Found in Stream.

The body of a man was found in the river four miles west of Plains, Mont., Saturday and from the description given it is thought to be that of W. A. Wood of Rodney, Ont., an engineer who was employed by W. F. Carey, contractor on the Paradise-St. Regis line. Wood lost his life by drowning in the Missoula river on July 15, while using a boat to stretch a cable across the stream.

RESERVATION IS A BIG ASSET

$125,000 PAID TO INDIANS DURING YEAR.

Nearly $125 for Each Man, Woman and Child on Reservation—Paid to Merchants of Pendleton Almost as Fast as Received—Money Is Paid to Different Indians in Different Ways.

That the Umatilla Indian reservation is a fruitful source of income and business for the city of Pendleton is shown by the fact that practically $125,000, or $125 per capita, for every man, woman and child of the tribe has been paid out during the past year.

This amount of money has been put out to some members of the tribe in large sums, to others in monthly installments and still to others in only partial payments of the total sum due them. Many heirship titles are in dispute, and until these are settled and the rents for the lands in question and from the estates of deceased Indians can not be paid out, but it has been the policy of Agent McFatrige to pay every cent due every Indian, except small minor children, as fast as the money was collected, where there was no dispute over its possession.

This vast sum of money has been expended among Pendleton business firms as son as it was paid to the Indians, and has formed a large part of the business volume of the city. The amounts to be paid from year to year will increase as more and more heirship lands are sold, and within a few years the tribe will be drawing the largest per capita payments of any Northwest tribe.

There is now but very little dissatisfaction among the Indians as to any policy being pursued by Agent McFatrige on the Umatilla reservation. A small number of the older Indians, including chief No Shirt, and Umapipe, perpetually complain about something, but among the younger and more progressive Indians there are no complaints, and the tribe is making more vital progress than any of the other Northwest tribes.

MUST STAY IN JAIL.

Supreme Court Finds No Validity in Unwritten Law.

Salem, Ore., Aug. 5.—In an opinion by Commissioner Slater the supreme court today affirmed the decree of Judge J. B. Cleland of the circuit court of Multnomah county in the case of the state against Joe Young, who was convicted of assault with a dangerous weapon upon Caspar Van Dran in Portland three years ago and is now serving a sentence of six years in the penitentiary. The principle defense set up by Young was that the assault was necessary to prevent Van Dran from committing a crime upon Young's wife. The court holds that a husband is not justified in killing or attempting to kill another to prevent the debauching of his wife by artifice or fraud, and if the act is by the consent of the wife, the husband, finding the offender even at the time and killing him, is guilty of manslaughter. This ruling puts the stamp of disapproval upon the theory of the unwritten law.

Consideration of the petition for rehearing in the case of the state vs. T. J. Luper, convicted of perjury, was rendered unnecessary because the defendant has been pardoned in the meantime, and the opinion affirming the judgment of conviction given several weeks ago is withheld from publication.

The harder you lift for your fellows the less danger of their pulling you down.

ICE CREAM JAILS HUBBY.
Wouldn't Buy His Wife a Gallon a Day, He Said.

Cleveland, Aug. 5.—Because he chose imprisonment rather than supplying his wife's demands for ice cream, Joseph Smok of No. 4307 St. Clair avenue was sentenced to the workhouse for six months and fined $200 and costs of prosecution by Police Judge Manuel Levine today.

Mrs. Smok caused her husband's arrest on complaint that he struck her when she asked for money to buy ice cream. He told the court she consumed a gallon a day and took money from his pockets and his trunk to buy it.

"You can go to the 'works' or buy her ice cream," ruled the judge. "A woman is entitled to ice cream occasionally."

Smok chose the "works," saying "I'd rather go to the 'works' for a hundred years than live with an ice cream fiend."
