IRATE HUSBANDS USE TAR AND FEATHERS

Washington, Aug. 10.—F. E. Bliss, Jr., a member of the contracting firm of Bliss & Albrecht, paper rulers, was coated from head to foot of hardened tar and is under the treatment of several physicians.

Henry C. Cole, Charles Marthison and James L. White, prominent as brokers and business men, who admit applying the tar and regret they did not make a better job of it, were arrested after news of the affair came out through one of Bliss' physicians. The three men were released on $500 bond to appear in police court.

A statement given out by E. F. Col-lady, attorney for the three men who gave Bliss a drubbing and then tarred him, declares that recently Bliss met Mr. and Mrs. Marthison at a social function and was later entertained at their home. Bliss subsequently became acquainted with Henry C. Cole and his wife, who live near the Marthisons.

Claimed to Be a Hypnotist.
At these two homes Bliss was a frequent visitor. He is about 35 years of age, suave, handsome, a fine conversationalist and boasts of his powers as a hypnotist. He often was entertained at dinner parties and really got the lion's share of feminine admiration.

On several occasions Bliss and Mrs. Marthison have been seen together at the theater and other public places. Marthison on Wednesday saw them together, and a quarrel with his wife followed.

Mrs. Marthison said she had been under Bliss' hypnotic influence for some time and was unable to control herself when he was near. She said she got instructions from him by mental telepathy.

Husband Sets a Trap.
Bliss called Mrs. Marthison over the telephone. Mrs. Marthison talked over the phone with her husband, near by, offering suggestions. He told her to have Bliss call at their home, about 9 o'clock and enter through the basement.

Mrs. Marthison met Bliss at the door and was fondly embraced by him. Marthison, Cole and White were secreted in another part of the basement listening. They heard Bliss ask if any one was at home, and Mrs. Marthison said no. Then he made several suggestions as to how to spend the evening.

The three husbands sprang upon Bliss and frightened him into trembling and pleading for mercy. A sound thrashing was administered first to Bliss, and later the bucket of tar, which had been carefully warmed for the occasion, was brought forth. Bliss was stripped and every square inch of his body was covered. His face was fairly bathed in the tar, some of it getting in his eyes.

After their task was well done the husbands turned Bliss loose and he fled across town in search of a physician. In the effort to remove the tar from the victim's face, most of the skin was pulled off, and rather than disfigure him the physician will allow the tar to wear away.

Bliss talked reluctantly about the affair, but will be compelled to tell his story in police court today.

White, who is a retired business man, acted merely as a friend of Marthison and as a witness.

MADMAN SPARES INVALID.

Farmhand Shoots Farmer and House-keeper—Then Commits Suicide.

Chicago, Aug. 11.—A tragedy in which one person is dead and two dying, occurred at Blackberry Center, a small village 15 miles from Aurora, Ill., at 4 o'clock this morning, and will leave a blind woman 90 years old as the sole survivor of the household of J. A. Morrill, a wealthy farmer.

The probable fatal shooting of Morrill, a man well known for his charity, was followed swiftly by the attempted murder of Mrs. Mary Balcorn. After the shooting the assailant, John Larson, a farm hand, compelled the wounded couple to sit in chairs for hours while he held a shotgun. Then, with a jest, Larson blew out his brains.

Blind Woman Tells of Tragedy.
The story of the tragedy was told by Mr. Morrill's aged mother, totally blind, whose life was spared by the whim of the madman. When the final explosion, followed by a fresh scent of gunpowder and blood, told her that Larson was no more a menace, she groped for a quarter of a mile along the country road to the nearest dwelling, where she fainted after gasping out her awful message.

After Larson had placed his bleeding and nearly unconscious victims in two chairs, his murderous mood seemed to change to one of pity. He began to bind their wounds with handkerchiefs. He heard a rustling at the door and on turning he saw that it was Morrill's feeble old mother.

"I won't kill you, old lady," he said, with a peculiar effort at courtesy. "Sit down and make yourself at home. I'm going to watch over these two here. They need guarding."

The blind woman took a chair near that of her wounded son. She realized only dimly what had happened, and her son, still conscious, dared not talk to her. Larson, too, seated himself, with the gun across his knee. He said nothing to his victims, merely muttering to himself.

Thus four long hours were dragged out, the wounded pair groaning feebly at times. At the end of the fourth hour Larson said, "Well, nobody is coming to shoot me, after all. I believe I will shoot myself."

The next instant he suited action to the word and the blind woman groped her way from the house.

OREGON MILK IS TOO RICH

E. H. HARRIMAN IS RUSTICATING IN OREGON.

Good Roads Conference Opens Tomorrow—Oregon Athletes Will Be Welcomed Home as Conquerors—District Fairs Help Portland's Show—Colonist Rates Next Month.

Portland, Aug. 10.—The postmasters of Oregon had a rousing convention at the Portland Commercial club Friday and Saturday. Postmaster Minto of Portland, presided and gave a luncheon to the visiting fraternity. A special incident was the organization of the Fourth Class Postmasters, with Addison Bennett of Iririgon as president, and W. J. Clark of Gervais as secretary. Everybody felt that they had greatly profited by attending.

Vigorous protest was entered by the commercial interests of Oregon and the Oregon State Dairy association, against the adoption by the pure food conference at Mackinac Island, Michigan, of a standard for evaporated milk requiring 28 per cent solids. Oregon's milk is rich in butter fat, owing to our climatic conditions, but abundant pasture means less solids than in milk from cows fed eight months in the year. Oregon dairymen and condensers insist that solids should be such as result from the use of whole milk in their product.

E. H. Harriman, the greatest individuality in the railroad world, is enjoying with his family the glories of Oregon's August climate at Pelican Lodge, near Klamath lake. Their stay will cover several weeks. Vice-Presidents Julius Kruttschmidt and E. E. Calvin accompanied Mr. Harriman to Oregon, but during his vacation they will be busy inspecting their roads throughout the state.

The Good Roads conference opens tomorrow. There is absolute assurance of a thoroughly representative gathering and it is generally understood that permanent organization will be effected and result-getting legislation agreed upon. Conference is under the auspices of the Oregon Development league.

Three Oregon athletes won honors at the Olympic games in London—no other state in the Union made such a showing. The boys will be royally entertained in Portland when they return early in September. Both athletic and commercial bodies are uniting in the arrangements.

The different fair associations of Oregon are co-operating for a splendid display of products and great showing of livestock at the fall show in Portland, with the best races ever held in the state. All this has its part in the development of the state by creating such an interest in livestock production as will mean an ample supply for the support of the great packing plants now under construction in Portland.

A delegation of business men from Spokane, under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce of that city, will be entertained in Portland August 15.

The sale of special one-way tickets from all points in the United States to all points in Oregon begins September 1 and continues until October 31. Your community can get more than its share of the newcomers, with a little effort.

TENNESSEE G. O. P. SPLIT.

Party Is Hopelessly Divided and Will Hold Two State Conventions.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Aug. 10.—Hopelessly divided, the republicans of Tennessee will hold two state conventions this week, that of the Brownlow-Austin faction meeting in the city today, while the Evans-Hale faction will foregather at Nashville on Wednesday. At today's convention the insurgents will nominate a candidate for governor and other offices. A stormy session may develop. The delegates declare that their organization is entirely regular. Taft and Sherman are endorsed. T. A. Wright is mentioned prominently as the gubernatorial nominee.

The Evans faction, which will meet two days hence, claims to be the regular organization. It is led by H. Clay Evans, former congressman, United States commissioner of pensions and United States consul-general at London. Evans was elected governor of Tennessee in 1894 on the face of the returns, but a recount was favorable to Turney, his democratic opponent.
