EDITOR KENNEDY BADLY "SCARED"

NEWSPAPER MAN'S THRILLING EXPERIENCE.

Lady Passenger on O. R. & N. Sleeper Made Mistake and Temporarily Occupied Mr. Kennedy's Berth—Timid Baker City Journalist Was Badly Frightened.

To B. E. Kenledy, proprietor of the Baker City Herald and a former resident of Pendleton, befell a most interesting experience a few nights ago. At the time the newspaper man was on board train No. 5 bound for Portland.

As the night was warm, and in order to be as comfortable as possible, Mr. Kennedy left the curtain of his berth partly opened. Suddenly he was aroused from his fitful slumber and to his immense astonishment saw a lady crawling into his berth. From a remark which she made he knew immediately that she had made a mistake in the number of the sleeping compartment.

However, the consternation of the newspaper man man was so great that he could utter no words of welcome. But a moment later when a tender kiss was emplanted upon his brow he could hold his feelings no longer.

"You act very strangely, my dear," uttered the fair visitor, and when she caught sight of Kennedy's face a moment later, she uttered an "oh" that was heartbreaking. By the time the echo of the exclamation had died away Kennedy was entirely alone, wondering whether he had been dreaming or had actually seen someone.

The woman had made a mistake in going to her berth, but soon found her husband, who was in the adjoining berth.

ORDER HAS BEEN RESTORED.

American Consul Has Reached the Capital of Persia.

Washington, Aug. 17.—"Teheran, De Billier" was the text of a cablegram received at the state department today. It did not look very intelligible or important upon its face, but it conveyed to the wise men of the navy department that Frederick Ogden De Billier, the new secretary of the American legation at the capital of Persia, had arrived safely at his distant post.

Interesting as this might have been to De Billier's personal friends in the District of Columbia from whence he was appointed after competitive examination, it was much more so to the officials of the department. It was the first message that had been received from any of our representatives in the disturbed empire of Persia for at least 10 days.

The last dispatch that had come through was from Consul William P. Doty, at Tabriz, containing the single word "anarchy." From that time there had been silence, except for the press messages reporting severe fighting in various parts of the country between the troops of the Shah and the revolutionists.

De Billier's message therefore was welcomed for other reasons than merely the information it conveyed of his safe arrival. It meant two other important things:

First, that telegraphic communication was open between the Persian capital of Techeran and Washington, and second, that because of that fact, this government might rest assured that everything was well with the American diplomatic and consular representatives in the disturbed district, because nothing had occurred of sufficient importance to warrant the use of the cables. It thus allayed whatever apprehension there might have been.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.
