WHEN BOURNE COMES.

Portland Paper Reviews Outlook for Harmony in State Committee.

With the arrival in Portland within the next few days of United States Senator Jonathan Bourne, jr., and W. M. Cake, chairman of the republican state central committee, the struggle between the two opposing factions of the party, one of them striving to oust Cake from the chairmanship and eliminate Statement No. 1 from its present overpowering position in Oregon politics, and the other faction seeking to maintain both Cake and the principle upon which the people have vigorously declared themselves, will come quickly to a head, says the Oregon Daily Journal.

Senator Bourne comes west from New England. It is expected he will leave the Atlantic coast Friday. He has been spending some time with William H. Taft during the latter's trip through Virginia and at present is visiting with relatives in Massachusetts.

W. M. Cake is already en route to Portland. It is expected he will arrive here the last of this week, Senator Bourne reaching Portland early next week.

There is little question that the arrival of both political workers will mark a crisis in the fight between the Fulton adherents and those who have linked republican political fortune and progress with the Cake-Bourne faction.

There is determination written in large letters on the banners of the Bourne side of the controversy. Bourne will support Cake. The senator, through his lieutenants here, has signified his opposition to any attempt to overthrow either Cake or Statement No. 1. Hence, Fulton's fight to break the will of the people will meet with sturdy opposition.

On the other hand, Fulton adherents have set their traps in the rule or ruin policy adopted soon after Governor Chamberlain came out victorious in the senatorial campaign.

S. C. Beach has been hurried east. His destination is Chicago. With pockets bulging with soft words and credentials in favor of Fulton he will use all his persuasive powers to bring about an alliance between Chairman Hitchcock of the republican national committee and the Fulton faction in the hopes of downing Cake, placing Bourne in oblivion and annihilating Statement No. 1 and turning Oregon into the Taft column—a matter now which is very largely in doubt.

But the Bourne adherents will refuse to sleep while this is going on. If the republican campaign sack is to come to Oregon they will see to it that it comes on a non-factional platform. The idea is not entertained for a moment that Hitchcock will be drawn into an alliance with Fulton. A step in that direction will be effectually blocked at the start if political ingenuity is capable of accomplishing the act.

In consequence, with Beach conferring with Hitchcock, Bourne and Cake in Portland, Fultonites struggling for the trump card and the Cake-Bourne adherents forestalling each and every play, republican political factions in Oregon are more than likely to reach the point where for some time they have been making ugly grimaces at each year. That point will be a deadlock.

Hence, the arrival of Senator Bourne and Chairman Cake in Portland, will result in somewhat of a stir in the ranks. Factional swords will again be sharpened. Things will come quickly to a head.

For the People's Choice.

J. M. Fiedler, a candidate for the republican nomination for representative of the state legislature from the 13th district, yesterday filed in the auditor's office the declaration contemplated by Section 37 of the primary law, declaring that he would abide by the choice of his party in the election for a United States senator, says the Walla Walla Statesman.

Although Fiedler has filed his declaration it was stated in the auditor's office today that the fact of his so filing would not appear on the official primary ballots, as the filing was too late. According to the law all such filings must be made 15 days prior to the primary election and Fiedler, according to the officials, did not file his declaration within the limit.

New Road Opened Into Oregon.

The line of the California North-eastern railroad was opened from this city to Calor, on the line between Oregon and California today, says a San Francisco item. The first car to stop at Calor was that of W. F. Herrin, chief attorney for the Southern Pacific road. E. H. Harriman, since he went over the road on his way to Klamath lake, gave orders to get the line built through to Klamath river as soon as possible, and work has gone on night and day.

Makes Business for Farmers.

Nearly 1000 farmers and dairymen are patronizing the condensers at Hillsboro and Forest Grove, and, as the farmers get their pay checks every month it makes it a fine business. Hillsboro has made the jump from eighth to first place in dairy production since the advent of the condensers, says the Argus.

A WOMAN TO BE PRETTY

Must Have Luxuriant and Glossy Hair, No Matter What Color.

The finest contour of a female face, the sweetest smile of a female mouth, loses something if the head is crowned with scant hair. Scant and falling hair, it is now known, is caused by a parasite that burrows into the scalp to the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality. The little white scales the germ throws up in burrowing are called dandruff. To cure dandruff permanently, then, and to stop falling hair, that germ must be killed. Newbro's Herpicide, an entirely new result of the chemical laboratory, destroys the dandruff germ, and, of course, stops the falling hair, and prevents baldness. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.
