MAY SETTLE STRIKE.

Canadian Pacific Employees May Go Back to Work.

Winnipeg, Sept. 8.—The striking machinists on the Canadian Pacific railroad are seriously considering the adoption of an alleged offer of the railroad company to take all strikers back to work at their old positions.

It is reported negotiations have been opened in connection with certain questions on which the men and the company were unable to agree.

PAPKE IS NOW THE CHAMPION

he came into the arena first, were curled up in a sick, imploring grin. Papke was now attempting with all his ferocity to put his man out.

Through the ninth and tenth both men rained dozens of blows, more than half of which went wild. Ketchel was fighting with both eyes shut and he was spattered with blood.

Face a Blurred Spot.

In the tenth both men missed repeatedly. Ketchel's face was a blurred blotch like the butcher's meat on the block.

The eleventh round was a repetition of the tenth, with Papke hammering Ketchel at will and the latter staggering around the ring, unable to see. The song saved him just as he was knocked through the ropes. After about a minute of fighting in the twelfth Papke sent Ketchel to the mat twice and the second time the Michiganander was counted out. Papke finished almost as strong as when he entered the ring.

Ketchel, was taken to his dressing room presented a terrible spectacle. Both eyes were swollen into great black puffs and completely closed. His face was beaten and cut and puffed out of shape.

Best Man Won.

Ketchel's manager, Joe O'Conner, said:

"There's nothing to it. The better man won. You can see for yourself how my man looks. How could I do anything?"

Papke, bright and chipper, was exultant over his victory.

"I always knew I was the better man. You notice I didn't shake hands with him. The time we fought before he hit me when I shook hands with him and this time I took no chances. I got him first, that was all."

Papke was absolutely unhurt. The only mark on him as an abrasion below the belt where he said Ketchel struck him.

Los Angeles, Sept. 8.—Although Papke is the hero of the hour here today, Stanley Ketchel has not lost as much prestige as it would naturally be expected after such a decisive defeat yesterday when he was knocked out in the 12th round of a scheduled 25-round match. Although it is a serious setback, Ketchel says he has not finished. Papke says he beat Ketchel at his own game with a lucky punch early in the fight.

The Featherweight Battle.

Colma Arena, San Francisco, Sept. 7.—Abe Attell, the champion featherweight of America, and Owen Moran, England's premier boxer in that division, fought a drawn battle at the Colma open-air arena this afternoon in the presence of about 6,000 spectators.

The battle lasted 23 rounds and at the conclusion of the contest Referee Jack Welsh unhesitatingly grasped both lads by the hand, signifying that the fight was a draw. The decision seemed to please the crowd and there were cheers galore for each fighter as he wended his way from the ring-side. The fight, on the whole, was rather tame, but this was offset by the cleverness of both the fighters. The fight was a very even one and was characterized by Moran's aggressiveness and Attell's cleverness in blocking and his all around work from a defensive standpoint. The consensus of opinion would indicate, however, that the Hebrew has gone back quite a bit and that he lacks the dazzling speed which has governed his previous battles in this and other cities.

After the fight Owen Moran said to the assembled newspaper men:

"I broke my right hand in the second round. After that it was almost useless. At that I think I won by a mile. I am willing to fight Attell 45 rounds, winner take all."

An Associated Press representative visited the Englishman in his dressing room after the contest and carefully examined his right hand which Moran claimed was broken. The arm was badly swollen around the thumb but it was not possible to verify the claim of a broken arm. Moran's face was much cut and his left eye was nearly closed as a result of Attell's almost ceaseless prodding. On the other hand Attell emerged from the scrimmage without a mark. Attell gave out this statement, after being informed of Moran's challenge for a return match:

"I will fight no one 45 rounds, not even for my mother's sake. I want to live awhile yet. But I will give him a return match for any number of rounds up to 25. I beat him at every stage. I bear no marks, while he is cut up. As to his breaking a hand, look at the dislocated knuckle of my right hand. It went back on me early in the fight."

Examination of Attell's right hand disclosed the fact that the middle knuckle had been dislocated.

A resume of the fight by rounds shows that Attell had more or less advantage in nine rounds. Moran was given six and the balance showed even honors.

The contest throughout was an even one.

San Francisco, Sept. 8.—The consensus of opinion in prize fighting circles is there will never be a final settlement between Attell and Moran who fought a draw yesterday.

They fought the first draw on New Years. Both fighters continue to score Referee Welsh, each claiming a victory.

San Francisco, Sept. 8.—Nelson and Gans both went on the road for a little work this morning preparatory to entering the ring tomorrow for the 45-round battle for lightweight championship of the world. The betting prevails at 10 to 6, Nelson being the favorite.

EXTRACTS TEETH NOT PAID FOR.

Dentist Gets His Gold Back and Patient Goes to Jail.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 8.—Dr. Earl Truell, dentist, doesn't ordinarily take chattel mortgages on the new teeth he furnishes, but the man whose mouth he supplied with gold teeth and who offered him a $13 check in payment of the $10 fee had to give up his new teeth, when the dentist found the check was worthless.

Ed J. Reed came to town from Ravenna and when his change ran out he proceeded, it is alleged, to write out checks on a Ravenna bank in which he had no money.

He dropped into Earl Truell's dental parlor and had gold crowns put on his teeth. The charge was $10.

Reed wrote out a check for $13. But the dentist would not give him the change. He investigated the check, assured himself that it was no good, and had his patient arrested.

He followed the arrest in person, armed with a pair of forceps. Reed refused to give up the teeth and in addition delivered a highly colored and prejudiced opinion of the doctor and the police.

Then a city detective's fist landed on the prisoner's jaw and the dentist pulled out the gold crowns.

Reed not only lost his teeth, but drew 20 days on the charge of trying to obtain money under false pretenses.

THE CITY TO PAY.

Springfield Victims Begin Their Suits Against City.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 8.—The wife of Scott Burton, the first negro lynched in the recent riots here, has made no attempt to settle with the city for the death of her husband heretofore, but today filed suit for the $5000 which the law allows to the heirs of persons who are killed by mobs. It is announced also that a similar suit will be filed by the heirs of William Donnegan, another negro who was lynched.

The heirs of four other negroes killed during the rioting cannot obtain the money because they were killed by stray bullets or in open battle, and were not slain by the mob.

Property owners still continue to file suits for damages against the city, and the sum of the claims already made is over $50,000.

It is expected that these cases will be given preference in the courts and will receive quick action. The general sentiment among the citizens is that the survivors of the families of the mob victims should be paid at once and that the city should pay for the damage done by rioters.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Thompson have returned from an extended visit in Portland, Aberdeen and other places on the coast.

BOY SCRATCHED DAY AND NIGHT

Eczema Began When a Tiny Baby and Lasted 7 Years—Tore Crusts from Face Till It was All Raw—Screamed with Pain and Could not Sleep—Though Specialists Failed

CUTICURA EFFECTED A WONDERFUL CURE

"When my little boy was six weeks old an eruption broke out on his face."

I took him to a doctor and got ointments and medicines but his face kept on getting worse until it got so bad that no one could look at him. His whole face was one crust and must have been very painful.

He scratched day and night until his face sometimes looked like a raw piece of meat. I was nearly insane with his scratching day and night. Then I took him to all the best specialists in skin diseases but they could not do much for him. He sometimes screamed with pain when I put on the salve they gave me.

"When he was two years old the eczema got on his arms and legs so that I had to keep them bandaged up and I made gloves for his hands so the nails could not poison him worse. We could not get a night's sleep in months and my husband and I were all broken up. Then my mother asked why I did not give up the doctors and try Cuticura. So I got a set and he felt relieved the first time I used them, the Cuticura Ointment felt so cool. He used to wake up and ask for Cuticura to be put on when he itched so badly that he could not sleep, and he would say, 'Oh! Mama, that makes my sores feel so good!' I gave the Cuticura Remedies a good trial and gradually the eczema healed all up and now he is as well as any other children. He is now seven years old and the cure has lasted two months, so I think it will never return. I can't tell you how glad I am that Cuticura did such wonderful work in our case and I shall recommend it everywhere. Mrs. John G. Klump, 80 Niagara St., Newark, N. J., Oct. 17 and 22, 1907."

A single set of Cuticura Remedies, consisting of Cuticura Soap (25c), Ointment (50c), and Resolvent (50c), or Full Size, per trial of 60c, is often sufficient to cure. Sold throughout the world. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston, Mass.
