AMUSEMENTS

"The Devil" Is Here.

His satanic majesty arrived in Pendleton today noon and is now to be seen on the big white curtain at the Orpheum. He will remain until tomorrow night, when he will continue his journey around the circuit. This is a very striking film. Another interesting set of pictures being shown at the Orpheum is the reproduction of the Olympic games recently held in London. The remainder of the program consists of two sets of pictures, "How Glue Is Made," and "The Policeman's Vision," and the illustrated song, "Two Blue Eyes."

"A Pair of Kids."

"A Pair of Kids" is the feature of the program now being shown at the Eagle show shop. The other numbers are all good, including the illustrated song, "A Romance of the Old Mill." This is something above the ordinary in illustrated songs. Two other numbers which are good are the "Persistent Trombonist," and "The Dancing Flead."

The Pastime.

An exceptionally good program is being offered at the Pastime for the closing week series. It includes "A Romance of the Fur Country," "Easy Money," "Amateur Hunter," "Street Fakir" and the illustrated song, "Broncho Buster."

Brown in Trouble.

"Mr. Brown Has a Tie Loose," is the title of an interesting moving picture film now being shown at the Old Dime, though "Fido's Funeral" is perhaps the feature of the present program. "A Fine Easter Egg," "Recompense" and an "Unfortunate Mistake" are also worth seeing.

"The Mesmeriser."

The feature film of the program now being offered at the New Dime is "The Mesmeriser." This is highly colored and is a beautiful film. "The Wages of Sin" is another good number. The illustrated song is "Sweetheart Days."
