Beautiful Cottage Finished.

One of the most beautiful and attractive cottages in the city has just been finished by Contractor Dunlap for Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Terpening on Tustin street, under the hill. The cottage cost almost $4000 and is modern and exceedingly beautiful and convenient. The arrangement is one of the very best in the city and it is a most comfortable and attractive home. Work has been under way on the building for the past three months.

SPIED ON BOARDERS AND LETTRED—A LESSON.

Pendleton boarders will smile over the fate which overtook a rooming-house keeper in Pittsburg, who was too inquisitive according to a dispatch just received from that city, which says:

It isn't fair for the pretty star boarder to fill the mattress full of cayenne pepper in leaving the house, in order that a peeping landlady might get what is coming to her. That's the decision of Magistrate Negley, who fined Mrs. Minnie Adley, a member of the fashionable east end colony, $25 and costs.

Mrs. Adley declared her landlady Mrs. Jane Wallace, 5802 Kirkwood street, had arranged the mirrors in her rooms so that by standing in the halls at a certain point she could see all that transpired in the bedroom of Mrs. Adley, whose husband is connected with a downtown bank.

Mrs. Adley heard from friends stories which forced her to believe that certain unholly eyes had been upon her and her husband even in the seclusion of their bedroom. She found after some days that the mirrors, which were plentiful in the apartments, had been shifted around since their first occupancy of the rooms.

This aroused her suspicion, which turned to horror on finding that anyone outside in the hall could, by the aid of high mirrors cunningly arranged, have a full view of her bed.

When arraigned for malicious mischief, Mrs. Adley admitted she had bought pepper on leaving the house of Mrs. Wallace, and that she had scattered it plentifully around where it would get into the eyes and nose of anyone who touched anything inside the rooms.

"I thought I'd give the old cat an eyeful for once," said Mrs. Adley in tears of humiliation as she thought of those mirrors. "She couldn't keep things to herself, either, but had to go out and talk about me."

Justice Negley, between blushes, said he thought $25 would repair the damage done by the pepper, and fined Mrs. Adley that amount.

COMPANY L WILL SHOOT.

Local Guardsmen Will Engage in a Target Practice Tomorrow.

Every member of company L is expected to engage in target practice tomorrow on the Tutuilla range near the Peter West ranch. The boys will leave the armory about 8 o'clock and will spend the greater part of the forenoon in ascertaining how near they can come to making some world records.

The season for target practice will soon be over, so it is regarded as important that all members attend every shoot remaining to be held for the reason that it will soon be necessary to send in the records of marksmanship for the individual members and for the company as a whole.

BIG OFFER FOR BOYS.

Dog Race and Boys' Race at the Fair for Prizes.

The Nissen Implement store has arranged for two races to take place during the coming fair, one a boy's footrace and the other a dog race, the dogs hitched to wagons and driven by boys on Saturday, October 3 at 2 p. m.

Every boy who will cause to be brought to the Nissen Implement store $25 worth of custom will be permitted to enter the dog race, the winner to receive a $10 boy's wagon with tongue and shafts and a $5 dog harness.

Boys' Race—Every boy who causes to be brought to the Nissen Implement store $15 worth of trade will be allowed to enter a boy's foot race and the winner will be given a $6 coaster wagon, but no boy who enters one of the races shall enter in the other.

Here is a chance for the boys to get to work and win some prizes with but little labor. Any purchaser at the Nissen Implement store between now and the fair may place the amount of his purchase to the credit of any boy he chooses.

The races will be judged by three of Pendleton's best business men and started by the city marshal. The length of the races will be one block and will take place on Main street, Pendleton.

Boys, get in training and see that your dogs are on to their job. For further particulars inquire at the Nissen Implement store, opposite the Pendleton Hotel.
