HERMISTON NOTES

FIGHT BETWEEN WATER USERS HAS BEGUN

Six Attorneys Employed by the Plaintiffs—All Anxious for an Early Settlement—Hermiston Outclassed Echo in Baseball—Game is Played in Midst of Wind Storm—Teachers are Re-elected for Next Year—Personals.

(Special Correspondence.) Hermiston, April 30.—In consequence of the recent ruling of Secretary of the Interior Ballinger recognizing the so-called new board of directors of the Water Users association a strong fight is being put up by the board of directors known as the old board and the one in possession of the records and funds of the association.

In behalf of the plaintiffs six attorneys have been employed, including Attorney Bartlett of this city and Raley, Richards & Raley and Fee & Slater of Pendleton. The case will doubtless be watched with considerable interest by the stockholders of the association, who are individually and collectively interested in having a final settlement.

Hermiston Defeats Echo.

Hermiston 15. Echo 5. Owing to the wind storm of last Sunday the baseball fans witnessed a rather uninteresting contest between Echo and the home team. Echo proved to be entirely outclassed and owes her few runs to the presence of the wind which, at times picked up a good deal of dust on the diamond and caused several errors.

Teachers Re-elected.

A meeting of the school board was held this week for the purpose of electing teachers for the coming year. The approval of this year's work seems very evident and the board, by way of showing their appreciation, re-elected the entire corps. The following are the teachers now employed and re-elected: F. Pennock superintendent; Miss Bertha Randall, Mrs. B. G. Monkman, Miss Jutta Kirkpatrick, Miss Jessie Williams.

Personals.

F. L. Kicker and F. H. Ricks of Pottsdam, Mo., are among the visitors on the project who are making a thorough investigation with view to permanently locating. Having visited other projects on their westward journey they are in a position to judge of the merits of this locality and hold it in high favor.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Dyer are here from Denver, guests at the home of H. G. Newport. After a trip to the coast Mr. and Mrs. Dyer will return and locate here permanently, having purchased a five acre tract of land under the project. Mr. Dyer is familiar with irrigated countries and sees great possibilities for this section.

J. L. Waller, a resident of Ottalia, Wash., has been looking over the lands under the project with view of investing. Mr. Waller is familiar with the results obtainable in irrigated sections and considers that Umatilla project has as many and more conditions in its favor than many other projects that have met with decided success.

A Harvester for Umatilla County must be put up for rough usage. The best material goes into our machines. Many of our machines built 20 years ago are still in operation.

Mr. E. L. Smith agent for the Holt Company in Umatilla County has himself placed 283 Holt Harvesters in the field and has never had to duplicate a single machine or refund a single dollar.

These machines are all operating—piling up dollars for their users instead of being fence-cornered or labeled "failures."

It has taken a long time to build such results. The full name "Holt Bros., Link Belt Side Hill Combined Harvesters" marks successive stages in the development of our machine. It was first put on the market in 1885. The Holt is the genuine and the original Side Hill Combined Harvesters—all others are sold on the reputation of the Holt.

You can not afford to experiment with a machine that is to harvest your grain. Remember that with a Holt you are taking no chance whatever.

Our 1909 horse-harvesters, five styles, are improved over last years machines in many respects, lighter draft and more perfect than ever before.

A COMPLETE LINE OF HOLT EXTRAS AND SUPPLIES ALWAYS ON HAND.

CROP PROSPECTS ARE BRIGHTENED BY RAIN

Alfalfa is Somewhat Damaged by the Frost—All Fruit Seems to Have Been Killed—Ordered Sprayed Just the Same, However—Literary Society Holds an Interesting Debate—R. R. Stafford Ships Horses to Portland Markets.

(Special Correspondence.) Nolin, Ore.—April 29.—The recent shower has brightened the vegetation and the wheat farmer is jubilant over his prospects. Alfalfa is looking good but was somewhat damaged by the recent frosts. The fruit is all killed and the fruit inspector who passed through our orchards lately gave orders for us to spray our trees just the same.

Our literary society had a very interesting subject for debate last Saturday night, which was not confined to a few debaters, but was discussed by most all the farmers present. The subject was: "Be it resolved, that the present method of farming in this community is inadequate." The speakers for the affirmative were John Fisher and O. F. Steele. Negative, Lewis Updike and Walter McCutchen. The decision was given the affirmative.

Personals. R. R. Stafford passed through our burg last Monday from his ranch on the John Day river to Walla Walla and vicinity with a bunch of nice work horses for the market.

J. T. Hinkle stopped over with us Monday night while on his way from Pendleton to Echo. If Joe will bring another shower with him as good as the one we had on that night he will find our latch string hanging out at all times.

C. G. Brownell of Umatilla, was in our hamlet last week looking over some real estate for other parties. He was very favorably impressed with the outlook and said the Nolin community had a bright future ahead.

Deputy Assessor O. F. Steele spent Sunday with his family, returning to the Holdman country in the northwest part of the county the first of the week.

THREE LADS START OUT TO CHASE INDIANS

San Jose, Cal.—Three lads of this city are in the custody of the police at Salina, a plan they evolved to rid the county of its remaining Indians having been frustrated by the authorities. The boys, who are being held awaiting the arrival of officers from this city, are Charles Skuse, George Hennessy and John Schafer. The three Indian fighters yesterday appropriated a horse and buggy on one of the main streets of San Jose, and after loading the buggy with firearms and ammunition drove across the mountains to Santa Cruz, 37 miles. There they left their exhausted horse, found another on Pacific avenue and continued to Salinas. The officers of Santa Cruz, Santa Clara and Monterey counties were notified to search for the missing boys, and the mountain roads were patrolled all day and far into the night. The lads were captured after they had made a third exchange of horses. They stated that they intended to scour the mountains for redskins who might be in hiding there.

RECLAMATION TRACTS WITHDRAWN FROM ENTRY

Oregonian New Bureau, Washington April, 28.—Secretary Ballinger today withdrew from all entry three desirable reservoir sites in Oregon, which may at some future time be utilized in connection with government irrigation projects.
