SAYS MT. M'RINLEY IS

EASY TO CLIMB Scattle-James Little of this city who has spent twelve years in the vacious camps of Alaska, believes that Mount McKinley can be scaled with-out difficulty. "I went to Dawson in 1897 over the Chilkoot pass," said Mr. Little, "and since that time I have been in nearly every camp in Alaska. I was one of the party that went with Judge James Wickersham to climb Mount McKinley and I sincerely think that had we taken the time we could have reached the top without much trouble. Dr. Cook took plenty of time, and I believe he did make the ascent."
