

Stupendous Sale of Ladies' and Misses' SUITS AND COATS

It has always been our rule to never carry over from one season to another a single garment, and if price has anything to do with it we will not do it this season.

We have on hand just 138 Suits and 97 coats that MUST be sold. The suits come in strictly up-to-date styles, colors wine, gun metal, cardinal, old rose, gray, raisin, reseda, green, catwba, navy and brown.

Sizes 14 to 20 in Misses'.
 Sizes 32 to 46 in Women's.

The prices this week will be by far lower than you would expect to pay.

NO CHARGES FOR ALTERATIONS.

Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Son Is Born.
 Among the recent births recorded in this city is that of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hale of 609 Thompson street.

One Marriage License.
 A marriage license was issued today to Orville D. Townsend and Miss Rosie Farr. The groom-to-be is a resident of Washington county.

Dance at Helix.
 On the evening of December 3 a dance will be given in the new hall in the Odd Fellows building at Helix. A public Christmas tree will also be given there on Christmas eve.

Dentist for Hermiston.
 Fred Westerfield of Portland, has filed his dental certificate with County Recorder F. W. Hendley and will open an office in the town of Hermiston. This makes the first dentist for the thriving reclamation project town.

Land Cases Tomorrow.
 Private advices received here today from Portland state that the land cases in which the Umatilla county men are involved will not be called until 2 o'clock tomorrow. At that time the various defendants will be called upon to plead.

Will Change Tracks.
 E. L. Williams, assistant O. R. & N. engineer, is in the city today with a party of surveyors making the preliminary arrangements for the changes in the yard tracks made necessary by the building of the new depot, round house and the rearrangement of the yards.

New Set of Shakespeare.
 The public library has recently purchased a complete set of Shakespeare in the Rolfe edition, consisting of 40 volumes. This is the most desirable edition for ordinary use as the print is good, the notes very full and clear and the volumes a convenient size.

High School Band Organizes.
 The high school band held a meeting recently and elected officers for the year. Dudie Devine was elected president and Chester Gordon secretary. Prof. Frank Carruth will have charge of the direction and promises soon to have the boys in shape for public appearances.

Will Be Tried Here.
 Theodore Earhart, the lone ex-convict who shot up that town last spring, is to be tried in this city, next January, having been granted a change of venue by Morrow county court. The transcript of all proceedings so far, was received this afternoon by County Clerk Frank Saling.

Humphrey Wins Shoot.
 In the prize shoot that closed last Saturday night at the Indoor Rifle Range, 725 Main street, A. V. Humphrey and Gus Ellstrom tied with a score of 28 out of a possible 30 points. In the shoot-off which was held last night, Humphrey won with a score of 26 against a score of 21 made by Ellstrom.

Prince Lecture Tonight.
 At the court house this evening Fred W. Prince of the Harriman publicity department, will give his illustrated lecture "Picturesque California." The lecture will be illustrated with moving pictures, directed by Norman F. Juers and the entertainment should be both pleasing and instructive. No admission will be charged.

Pilot Rock Children Generous.
 County School Superintendent Welles has been notified by the principal of the Pilot Rock schools, that the sum of $35 has been contributed by that school for the benefit of the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society of Portland. A basket social was arranged to secure this money.

Kirkleys to Portland.
 Mrs. Roy Kirkley and little son Phil will leave Friday for Portland to join Mr. Kirkley and the family may remain there permanently. Mr. Kirkley has been traveling representative in this section for Hazeltine & company and in the future he will likely have a position in the house with that company.

No Developments in Murder Case.
 There are no developments today in the Umatilla murder mystery and the perpetrator of the brutal crime is evidently as far from capture as ever. It was learned at the office of the sheriff today that Andy Rabeal, the murdered man, was not known in Nampa, Idaho, and that he had not secured any bank drafts there.

Desirable Books Donated.
 Miss Hatterson, public librarian, is rejoicing in a recent donation which was made to the library by Mrs. G. H. Clark. The donation consists of three volumes by Harold Bell Wright and as the author is a personal friend of the Clark family, the books are autograph. They are three that have been called for frequently and are as follows: "That Printer of Udells," "The Calling of Dan Matthews," and "The Shepherd of the Hills."

Woolmen Elected Officers.
 At a meeting of Pendleton camp, W. O. W., held last evening officers for the coming term were elected as follows: Ben F. Hill, consul commander; J. H. Morris, advisory lieutenant; Thomas Fitz Gerald, banker; J. P. Walker, clerk; J. P. Earl, escort; C. E. Bowlsby, watchman; Dr. I. U. Temple, sentry; A. A. Manning, manager. All of the officers with the exception of banker and clerk serve for six months. The clerk and banker are elected annually. Last night Pendleton camp also elected seven new members.
