From the W. C. T. U.
December 2.—(To the Editor.)—It has come to us through reliable channels that the city authorities who recently made a so-called moral raid upon one of the hotels in Pendleton, are endeavoring to shield themselves from public criticism by asserting that they acted upon complaints made by us as a social purity committee of the local Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

In justice to ourselves, the public and the organization to which we are proud to belong, permit us to state the facts. We did call upon the mayor to ask that something be done toward suppression of the whitechapel district, so-called, especially to request that the existing fences there be removed in the interest of public morals. No other request was made, and no other subject discussed. So far as the hotel which was raided is concerned we beg to say that we never heard its reputation questioned and any attempt to make us or the W. C.
T. U. responsible for the municipal fiasco does that hostility, as well as the undersigned, an injustice which we have a right to resent.

MRS. W. S. BADLEY,
MRS. J. T. HENDERSON,
MRS. S. A. LOWELL.

Timely Sale of Clothing.
The Peoples Warehouse is doing something praiseworthy in placing on sale at special cut prices their immense stock of men's and boys' suits and overcoats just at a time when it will mean a big saving to people who have not yet supplied themselves with the winter needs. A reading of their advertisement on the second page of this paper will be worth your while.

Dissolution Notice.
The partnership formerly existing between H. J. Latourelle and C. L.
McGinnis, proprietors of the State saloon, is this day dissolved by mutual consent. H. J. Latourelle will collect all money and pay all accounts after this date.

Dated, December 2, 1909.

ment of the financial condition of the ermore and this was followed by a statement from the board of directors as to the amount of money necessary to raise it.

PECKHAM'S DEATH MAKES CHANGES IN SUPREME COURT

Washington.—The recent death of associate Justice Peckham, leaving one of the places on the supreme bench vacant, has resulted in a rearrangement of the seating of the other justices of the highest tribunal of the nation.

With the one exception of the chief justice, the members of the supreme court of the United States are seated in order of their seniority—the oldest member in point of service to the right of the chief justice, who occupies the center seat, and the next senior to the left of the chief justice, and then alternately right and left.

For years Justice Harlan has had the honor of being the senior member of the court and sitting on the right hand of Chief Justice Fuller. He has had 32 years service—more than the chief justice, who has only been on the bench 21 years. Justice Brewer has likewise held the next most coveted post, as the next senior member, seated on Chief Justice Fuller's left.
He has served 20 years. Justice White, who has been on the bench

15 years, occupies the seat to the right of Justice Harlan.

Races to Continue.
Ostend—Pa, what is the "Suburban Handicap?"
Pa.—The lawn mower in the summer and the snow shovel in the winter, my son.

Worth Going to Jail For.
Judge (at the close of trial)—Prisoner, you may have the last word.
Prisoner (turning to his wife in the audience)—Do you hear that, old lady?

"Ethel is not very handsome. Why do you call her a belle?"
"She's waiting for some man to ring her."

"Women are more and more crowding men out of employment."
"That's right; our cook buttoned my wife's waist this morning."

Notice to Firemen.
The annual fire election will be held in the city hall Monday evening December the 6th, from 7 to 9 o'clock.
J. L. VAUGHAN, Chief.
