ALL STARS DECIDE TO DON MOLESKINS

ENTHUSIASTS MEET AND DISCUSS PLANS

Fred Stelwer Elected Manager With Instructions to Arrange Game With Multnomah, the Dalles, Baker City or Walla Walla—Probably Two Games Will Be Played.

Pendleton is sure going to have an all-star football team and one or more games are to be played during the holidays, if any team in the northwest can be found that is willing to meet the local aggregation of scintillators on the gridiron.

At last night's meeting of those interested it was not only decided that a team should be organized but that a game or games should be scheduled with the strongest team available. Attorney Frederick Stelwer was elect manager with the understanding that a game be scheduled with Multnomah if possible. Falling in that Baker City, the Dalles, Walla Walla or La Grande were to be taken on in the order named.

A number of old stars were on hand last night and freely signified their intention of turning out for practice and trying for positions on the team, provided a game with either of these towns could be scheduled. An agreement to that effect was drawn up and signed by those present.

It was also agreed that any moneys remaining in the hands of the manager after all expenses are paid should be turned over to the high school athletic fund.

Enthusiasm was present in large quantities at the meeting and it was agreed that practice should begin just as soon as it could be definitely ascertained that a game would be assured. Indeed, the most enthusiastic of the players spent a greater part of the evening in working out a series of plays by which to defeat the mighty Multnomah aggregation. All the successes and mistakes of the leading teams in the northwest, during the past seasons will be taken advantage of and with such strategists as Brown, Lytle and Stelwer it is certain that there will be something doing when the "Pendleton All-Stars" get in action.

What Shall It Be?

That's the perplexing question.

Xmas is only three weeks from Saturday, and we've simply GOT to decide upon something pretty soon.

But what shall it be?

I'll tell you what we will do.

Let's go down to HANSCOM'S Jewelry Store.

They always have so many things that are suitable, that it won't be hard to make a choice.

So they went—

They saw—the beautiful new line of hammered brass, china, silverware, cut glass, toilet sets, umbrellas, watches, rings, diamonds, brooches, chains, picture frames, and a great many other suitable gifts.

Were convinced—

Bought—

And were happy.

A. B. Montgomery and wife and Mrs. C. Bott, former residents of Helix, who are now living at King Hill, Idaho, arrived from that place on last night's train.

Mrs. Elmer P. Dodd and baby who have been guests at the home of Mrs. Dodd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Alexander, returned to their home at Hermiston this morning.

Officer for Umatilla.

Owing to the reputation which the town of Umatilla has been attaining during the past few years as a resort for thugs, who stop there temporarily in passing through the country, the O. R. & N. company has decided to station a special officer there. He has also been appointed a deputy sheriff for the county by Sheriff Taylor.

The new officer is T. D. Sweeten, formerly marshal for the town of Arlington and before that city marshal and deputy sheriff at Condon. He is said to be a fearless officer and a man of much experience and will probably find plenty to do in his new position.

And Oh, the wood saw with which Wood would saw wood! But one day Wood's wood saw would saw no wood and thus the wood Wood sawed was not the wood Wood would saw if Wood's wood saw would saw wood. Now, Wood would saw wood with a wood saw that would saw wood, so Esau sought a saw that would saw. One day Esau saw a saw saw wood as no other wood saw Wood saw. In fact, of all the wood saws Wood ever saw saw, Wood never saw a wood saw that would saw wood as the wood saw Wood saw saw wood, and I never saw a wood saw that would saw as the wood saw Wood saw would saw until I saw Esau Wood saw saw wood with the wood saw Wood saw saw wood. Now Wood saws wood with the wood saw Wood saw saw wood.

COWS EAT STONES TO RELIEVE AGONY

Stayton, Ore.—Two cows owned by M. J. Spaniol of this city are dead from arsenical poison. When post-mortems were performed on the bovines, their stomachs were found to contain several pounds of gravel, earth, leaves, bits of wood and good sized stones. The largest stone, taken from one cow's stomach in the presence of a butcher, a veterinarian and four other citizens, measured four inches across by two inches thick and weighed 2-3 pounds. It is thought that the cows, in their agony due to the burning of their vitals by the arsenic, ate everything they could get hold of.

WIFE IMPRISONS ANNOYING HUSBAND SEVERAL MONTHS

San Francisco.—The Call printed a bill for divorce which was filed, it is said, by Walter McCreery, millionaire sportsman of this city, last Friday, against his wife, who was Mrs. Emilia Jane McAdam, a member of an old and prominent British family. McCreery returned recently from England and Attorney D. M. Deims was sent to London from here to look after that end of the affair.

McCreery recites in the complaint that his wife was cruel to him and that when he remonstrated with her over smoking cigarettes and general untidiness she caused him to be seized by three men and held in restraint at Elton Park, Warwickshire, England, for seven months. He escaped finally to Belgium. This occurred February 9 after many scenes of anger between the two in which it is alleged that Mrs. McCreery used abusive words and epithets. The complaint states:

"Said defendant engaged three men, one a doctor named McEnery and two entire strangers to plaintiff, and directed them to seize the plaintiff by force and on the evening of February 9, 1900, they did seize the plaintiff by force and did confine him to a room and by direction of the defendant did charge him before all servants and persons coming near with being insane and dangerous to be at large.

"Thereafter and for more than seven months the defendant by means of false statements kept the plaintiff in custody and deprived the plaintiff of the management and possession of a large part of his property, kept the plaintiff in the custody of people who abused him and made him stay in rooms that were not swept for three months and spread over the country vicious and false charges concerning the plaintiff and his condition of mind."

McCreery prays the court to grant him the custody of the four children.

ARTILLERY COMPANIES DO EXCELLENT SHOOTING

Washington.—Reports of excellent shooting at long range by coast artillery companies continue to reach the War Department. A remarkable record was made by the 15th company at Fort Rosecrans, Cal., on October 20. Four shots were fired from a battery of two 10-inch guns at a target 30 feet high by 60 feet long, which was moving at the rate of eight miles an hour at a distance of about five miles from the battery firing. All four shots were fired at an interval of one minute and 20 seconds and passed through a rectangle nine feet high by 42 feet wide. Only three hits were scored on the target, as one of the shots passed four yards to the left of it.

The 52nd company at Fort Roman, Mass., on October 20 fired four shots from an eight inch battery at a 30 foot by 60 foot material target, which was moving at the rate of five miles an hour at a distance of about four miles from the firing battery. All four shots were hits and the first shot cut the raft of the material target in two.

John D. as Driver.

His mother was telling 8-year-old Jack of John D. Rockefeller's success, and as he listened he said, "Yes, I know him."

"No, I guess you don't know him," she replied, "you have only heard of him."

"Why, yes, I do," he replied, "I have seen him a good many times when he goes on his oil wagon."—The December Delineator.

A Revised Version.

Teddy was saying his prayers at bedtime one night not long ago. Kneeling down at his mother's knee, the sleepy little fellow began, "Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray the Lord my soul to keep."—he paused. "If"—his mother prompted, "If he hollers let him go, elne, menie, mianie mo."—The December Delineator.

When He Sat Down.

"How was your speech received at the club?" asked one of Chumley's friends.

"Why, they congratulated me heartily. In fact, one of the members came to me and told me that when I sat down he had said to himself it was the best thing I had ever done."—Youth's Companion.

The Slumbers of the Brook.

The poetical young man with soulful eyes was walking with his matter of fact brother by the brookside.

"How the stream tosses in its slumbers," he exclaimed.

"Yes," answered his brother, "and you would, too, if your bed was full of stones."—Youth's Companion.

Best Wishes.

"What do you think?" exclaimed the theatrical star, proudly. "They are going to name a new cigar after me."

"Well," rejoined the manager, "here's hoping it will draw better than you do."—Chicago News.
