ARE EXAMINING LOCAL BARBERS

STATE OFFICIALS ARE MAKING INVESTIGATION

H. G. Meyer, President and R. R. Wallace, Secretary, of State Board Looking Into Pendleton Barber Shops.

In the language of the street, Pendleton's would-be barbers are "getting theirs" today. H. G. Meyer of Salem, and president of the state board of barber examiners, accompanied by R. R. Wallace of Astoria, secretary of the board, arrived on the morning train from The Dalles and have been examining all barbers who have not yet received their cards. T. M. Leabo, the other member of the board was unable to come and the two regular members are therefore being assisted in conducting the examinations by Will Humphrey, the local deputy. The board goes from here to La Grande, leaving on the early train tomorrow morning.

A class of eight novices is being put through the paces of their first examination at the Patton-Humphrey shop. They are C. P. Trask, S. C. Stangland, F. G. Sullivan, A. James, N. J. Maestretti, C. E. Stone, Bert Mullins and C. L. Barnes.

UMATILLA INDIAN STEALS HORSE AND LANGUISHES

Charged with stealing a horse and selling it, Young Clifford George, a well known Umatilla Indian youth, is occupying a cell in the county jail. He was arrested this morning by Sheriff Taylor after the rightful owner of the horse had taken it from the man to whom it had been sold.

George is charged with having taken the horse from the reservation farm of Herbert Thompson and selling it to C. P. Barnett of the Oregon feed yard. Missing his horse Thompson came to town and soon located the animal at the feed yard.

Unless he can recover from the Indian, Barnett will be out the $25 paid for the horse. The Indian represented to him that he had bought this horse and its mate from Thompson.

Boone Watson was a passenger for Yoakum on the morning train.

Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Commercial Club Meeting.
At the Commercial association rooms the regular monthly meeting will be held this evening and it is desired by President Moore that a good attendance be present.

Seymour Harry Kunze Dead.
Seymour Harry Kunze, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kunze of Umatilla, died very suddenly in Seattle on the night of Friday, November 26. Death was due to tuberculosis.

Drunk and Disorderly.
Harry Dupuis and Ernest Hodhunter are serving a five day sentence in jail for being drunk and disorderly. They were arrested last night by the night officers and were given a hearing this morning before Judge Fitz Gerald, pleading guilty when arraigned.

"Shadow of the Cross."
The famous painting, "The Shadow of the Cross," is now here and on exhibit at the parish house of the Church of the Redeemer. It is shown during the afternoons, and also of evenings and will be here during the entire week. The picture is being exhibited by Will F. Thomas, who during the A.-Y.-P. exposition was chief of the bureau of publicity. The proceeds from the exhibitions in this city will go to the Parish Aid society.

To Attend State Meeting.
County Assessor C. P. Strain left this morning on the Portland and local for Salem, where a meeting has been called of all the assessors in the state for tomorrow. The meeting was called by the state tax commission, the necessary authority having been given that board by the law which created it. The exact purpose or the duration of the present meeting is not known. Assessor Strain is of the opinion, however, that the meeting will be an annual event.

Knights Elected Officers.
Last night Damon Lodge No. 4, Knights of Pythias, elected officers for the coming term and the following men were chosen: W. I. Gadow, chancellor; commander, D. E. Bailey, vice-chancellor; J. A. Best, prelate; J. H. Gwynn, master of work; E. E. Turner, master at arms; R. W. Fletcher, keeper of records and seal and master of finance; L. Greenwald, master of exchequer; A. Eklund, inner guard; Charles Richmond, outer guard; J. W. Maloney and G. W. Coutts, trustees.

Initiated in College Frat.
Prof. A. C. Hampton and Merle R. Chessman have returned from Eugene where they were initiated into the mysteries of Beta Theta Pi, which is one of the oldest, largest, and best of college fraternities. Several other Pendleton boys were members of the Delta Alpha local organization which was granted a national charter, and as such were entitled to admission into Beta Theta Pi. They are Olin Arnsperger, Dell McCarty, Dean Goodman, Lester and Arthur Means, James Johns, and Harold Warner.

Mrs. Imbric Dead.
Dr. W. G. Cole received a message this morning from J. A. Imbric of Hillsboro, announcing the death of Mrs. T. R. Imbric, well known in this city. Death was the result of pneumonia.

Mrs. Imbric was past grand chief of the Oregon Pythian Sisters, prominent in social and Methodist Episcopal church circles, and enjoyed a statewide re-eminence. She was the daughter of John Goodin of Montavilla, and a sister of Judge Goodin of Washington county. She is survived by a husband and two daughters, Mrs. Fred Zilly of Portland, and Lucile Imbric of Hillsboro.

Will Be Buried Here.
According to information received in this city yesterday by Exalted Ruler G. W. Phelps of the local lodge of Elks and Baker & Folsom, the undertakers, the 15-year-old daughter of Dr. H. Volp, formerly of Pendleton but now of La Grande, will be brought to Pendleton this evening on the delayed train for burial. Nothing is known as to the cause of death. The funeral was to have occurred this afternoon, but owing to the fact that the train will not arrive before 3 or 9 o'clock this evening it will be held tomorrow forenoon, probably at 9 o'clock. Father Duran of St. Mary's Catholic church will conduct the services at the Baker & Folsom undertaking parlors, while the Elks will furnish the pallbearers, Dr. Volp being a member of the order in La Grande.

Trains Late Both Ways.
Heavy snow to the east and west is responsible for a badly demoralized train service. Train No. 11, being the last one to leave here at 1:10 Sunday night, passed through last evening at 1:01 as the first section of No. 7, while No. 5, due at 12:23 the night before, passed through at 9:57 as the second section of No. 7, while the regular No. 7 due here at 12:15 yesterday, passed through at 11:15 last night. Train No. 8, due here at 12:28 last night, arrived between 11 and 12 today, while today's No. 7 will not arrive until 3 or 9 o'clock this evening. The trouble with the trains from the east is due to snow and bad weather east of Portland, for the last part of No. 8, the Fall Lake train, arrived in Pendleton last night at 1:13, only two hours late. Some difficulty is also being encountered because of snow in the Cascades. Train No. 6, due at 2 o'clock this morning, did not arrive until 6:26, while train No. 10, due at 4:10, did not arrive until 7:40. The local from Walla Walla lost a half hour in climbing the Blue Mountain hill this morning, causing the Portland local to be 20 minutes late in leaving Pendleton.

PERSONAL MENTION

Earl T. Coles of Echo, is in the city today.

James Hill came in this morning from Helix and is spending the day here.

D. C. Bricoux, the La Grande timber locator, spent last night in Pendleton.

R. H. Wilcox of the Wilcox Implement company, went to Walla Walla on the noon train.

W. H. Alexander and wife of Athena, arrived from that part of the county last evening.

County Roadmaster Dave Laven-der came down this morning from his home at Weston.

A. McLeod of Echo, transacted business in Pendleton last night, returning home on the morning train.

Tom Ayers of the Tallman Drug company, was a northbound passenger on the Spokane train at noon today.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McNaught of Hermiston, returned home this morning after a brief visit to friends in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Rogers came down from their home at Adams this morning on the Walla Walla-Pendleton local.

Dr. M. S. Kern left this morning for the west end of the county to spend the day looking over his business interests.

E. H. Brown, editor of the Stanfield Standard, returned home this morning after spending all of yesterday in this city.

Attorneys J. P. Winter and Will M. Peterson left on the noon train for Walla Walla, where they will transact legal business.

W. A. Osborne of The Dalles, is transacting business in Pendleton, having arrived on one of the delayed trains this morning.

George Drumheller of Walla Walla, came over this morning on business in connection with the Washington-Oregon Traction company.

Dr. W. L. Lytle, state sheep inspector and state veterinarian, left this morning for Moro, where he will transact business in connection with his office.

Mrs. Hugh Stanfield returned this morning to her home near Echo, after a visit of a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Robinson.

Rev. H. S. Shangle, financial agent for the Columbia Junior college at Milton and presiding elder for this district of the M. E. church, south, passed through Pendleton this morning on his way home from a business visit to Boise.

Water Case Progressing.
Fairly rapid progress is being made today in the hearing of the Echo water suit which was commenced yesterday. The testimony of the witnesses is merely routine and of no interest to anyone not directly connected with the case. It is believed that all the evidence will be in this week in this one case.

Swift Runaway.
A large bay horse hitched to a cutter and headed eastward on Water street, crossed Main street at a lively clip about 2 o'clock today. There was no one in the sleigh and the horse evidently knew where he was going, though he was still running at top speed when he went out of sight.

were returned by the United States Grand Jury several months ago. The cases are expected to be heard in the United States District Court in Mobile within the next few days.

Most important of the peonage prosecutions are those concerning the Monroe county residents Attorney General Wickersham has reviewed the cases, and has instructed United States District Attorney Arambrecht to prosecute the case to the end. There was some talk a few weeks ago of those of Monroe county indicted for peonage pleading guilty with the understanding of a minimum fine, but the government attorneys have declared that no quarters is to be shown, and the case against each individual will be pushed with all the vigor possible.

Leased Grand Theater.

E. L. Darling of Spokane, has leased the Grand theater from the Neugebours and will take charge of the playhouse on December 15. When he does so Mr. Darling will considerably improve the class of attractions at the Grand. He will run the house upon the same general lines as at present but in addition to the two vaudeville numbers, moving pictures and illustrated songs will also give musical comedies by small troupes. The opening bill on December 19 will be "Two Old Sports in the Philippines." After Mr. Darling takes charge of the house each program will consume almost two hours and the opening performance of evenings will begin at 7:15.
