SOCIETY EVENTS

Two more Pendleton girls are winning honors in the realm of things musical, according to the Sunday Journal, which contained pictures of the Misses Anna and Rose Basler and a very flattering criticism of a musical given by them. These young ladies spent the greater part of their lives in this city and received the first of their musical training here. The following is the Journal's account of their recital:

The Misses Anna and Rose Basler, two young women who are rapidly gaining recognition in the musical circles of the city by reason of their piano work, gained for themselves added and favorable comment at the concert given by them in Ellers hall recently.

The two pianists, who were formerly well known in the younger musical and social life of Pendleton, have been residents of Portland with their parents for the past two years. During that time they have been students of Emil Enna. At the recital they were assisted by Mrs. Clinton C. Child, and during the afternoon presented a varied classical program in a pleasing manner. They were also the recipients of many beautiful flowers. The program as given was as follows:

Two preludes Chopin
Romance in D major, Von Flieltz
Miss Anna Basler.
Gavotte Pirani
Two pianos.
Florence Valse Liebling
Miss Rose Basler.
"Dein" Bohm
Mrs. Clinton C. Child.
"On the Holy Mountain" Dvorak
Fantasie over an original motive.
..... Pabst
Miss Anna Basler.
Suite Op. 39 E. Del Calle de Paz
No. 1 Bohemienne, No. 1 Valse Lents, No. 3 Cortège.
Two Pianos.
Concert etude Hensell
Two pieces Grieg
Minuet Enna
Miss Rose Basler.
Rhapsodie Hongroise No. 2 Liszt
Two pianos.

The engagement of Miss Gertrude Louise Sheridan to Mr. William George Lyons was formally announced Tuesday evening at a charmingly appointed dinner at which Miss Fay Bartholomew was hostess. The residence of Dr. and Mrs. E. R. Swinburne was very prettily arranged for the occasion, the dining room being attractively decorated with yellow caryanthemums and the color scheme carried out in the candle shades. During the dinner, which was served with charming grace by the hostess, many toasts were proposed to the happiness and prosperity of the engaged couple. During the evening there was music and dancing, the whole being concluded by a mock wedding ceremony amid much merriment. Those enjoying Miss Bartholomew's hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. J. Roy Raley, Miss Gertrude Sheridan, Miss Maud Sheridan, Miss Effie and will take up her work Monday. She is a personal friend of Miss Ethel Hutchins, instructor in music and art in the city schools, and will make her home with Miss Hutchins at the J. P. Walker residence on South Main street. She is expected to arrive in Pendleton tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cole entertained a number of their friends at their Aura street home Tuesday evening, the event being in honor of their twentieth wedding anniversary. The game of 500 was played and a very enjoyable evening was had by all. Those present were Dr. and Mrs. D. C. McNabb, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Storie, Mr. and Mrs. John Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Greulich, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Manning, Mrs. A. A. Kimball and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cole.

A very merry evening was spent by the members of Mrs. A. F. May's Sunday school class of boys at her home on Bush street, Friday evening. An old fashioned but ever interesting candy pulling was one of the features of the evening's pleasures. Those present were Zoeth Carney, Roy Furnish, Delos Sloan, Frank Friedley, Earl Friedley, Ethan Ward, Jessie Montgomery, Arthur Morris, James Osborne, Cyril Osborne, Earnest Salt, and Marcus May.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Corby in Pleasanton, Kansas, this evening at 7:30 o'clock will occur the wedding of Miss Mabel Corby to Mr. Frederick Emerson Arnold. Miss Corby is a sister of Mrs. Lawrence G. Frazier, Hal Corby and Ernest Corby, and spent a winter in Pendleton, where she has many friends. Mrs. Frazier, who has been visiting in Pleasanton for six weeks, will leave on Monday next for Pendleton.

The young men of the city are talking of giving a New Year's ball. If the event comes to pass it will be one of the real social functions of the year, probably the greatest. The plans have not yet been matured but it seems probable that they will be satisfactorily worked out and that Pendleton's social set will be permitted to participate in an event of more than passing social interest.

Mrs. Augusta Moulé has returned from Seattle, where she recently underwent an operation for appendicitis. She has almost entirely recovered from the effects of her illness and expects to resume her duties in the Lincoln school. Her mother, Mrs. Lee Moorhouse, who accompanied her to Seattle, has also returned from the sound metropolis.

Mr. Wesley Bowman, who for some months has been in the employ of the Taylor Hardware company, has resigned his position and leaves soon to take a position as traveling salesman for the Honeyman Hardware company of Portland. Mr. Bowman has many warm friends in Pendleton who will regret his departure.

Lyman Rice and Hawley Bean, two well-known high school students, are both isolated with two very mild cases of smallpox. While they are not suffering any because of the disease they are suffering considerable inconvenience because of the quarantine.

Mr. Roy Tompkins and Miss Alice Carlstrom were united in marriage Wednesday, December 8, 1909, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones at 315 Market street. Rev. Nathan Evans of the M. E. church, performed the ceremony in the presence of relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties. Following the wedding ceremony a wedding repast was served, after which the newly married couple left for their home near Athena, where the groom is engaged in farming.

Miss Margaret Meinloth, who has been teaching in the high school at Payette, Idaho, has been elected to fill the place in the local high school teaching force made vacant by the resignation of Miss Flora Walker, and will take up her work Monday. She is a personal friend of Miss Ethel Hutchins, instructor in music and art in the city schools, and will make her home with Miss Hutchins at the J. P. Walker residence on South Main street. She is expected to arrive in Pendleton tomorrow.

How One Doctor Successfully Treats Pneumonia.

"In treating pneumonia," says Dr. W. J. Smith of Sanders, Ala., "the only remedy I use for the lungs is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. While of course, I would treat other symptoms with different medicines, I have used this remedy many times in my medical practice and have yet failed to find a case where it has not controlled the trouble. I have used it myself, as has also my wife for coughs and colds repeatedly, and I most willingly and cheerfully recommend it as superior to any other cough remedy to my knowledge." CLASHES WITH OFFICERS

LA GRANDE MAN HAS SIDEWALKS TORN AWAY

Owner Immediately Attempts to Bring Legal Stop, Then Uses Force.

The following is from the La Grande Observer:

At 3:30 the city police went on guard for the workmen and the work of tearing up the walks proceeded again after a brief delay, Mr. Oliver immediately went back to his legal defense, and at press time is attempting to get restraining order to prevent the work. The removal of the walks and fences will be accomplished in less than an hour.

This act consisted in an attempt to have the crew and Matott arrested, but at a late hour tonight no definite action had been taken. Tomorrow Mr. Oliver will serve suit against the city and officials for damages.

Armed with a brick in each hand, and standing on his own lawn, Turner Oliver late this afternoon threatened to strike Street Superintendent Matott or any of his crew of men whom he might put to work at straightening out the street in front of Mr. Oliver's property if they came near, and for the time being at least his threats were effective. Surveyor Curtis ran the line this afternoon and Mr. Matott set a crew of men to work tearing up the sidewalk and the fence. Considerable portions of each had disappeared when Mr. Oliver discovered their purpose. Hastily seeking legal prevention, in which he failed, Mr. Oliver returned to his residence and arming himself with bricks, dared any or all of the workmen to approach. Matott called his men away while he went in search of reinforcements.

Mr. Oliver lost the suit brought by the city recently but gave notice of an appeal, and it is on the strength of this action that he demands a restraining order to prevent the sidewalk's removal until the case is acted on in the higher court.

Lost in Circuit Court.

Only a few days since, Judge Bean of Pendleton decided that the property in portions was on the city's streets. That came as the result of several trials and an appeal. Immediately after hearing this decree Mr. Oliver gave notice of his appeal. Whether or not this is sufficient to restrain the city from executing the alignment of the street, is for the legal lights to decide.

Trouble may ensue this evening, as Superintendent Matott immediately drafted the police of the city into play to restrain Mr. Oliver from carrying out his threats.

AWFUL RASH ALL OVER BOY'S BODY

Weeping Eczema Kept Spreading on Little Sufferer—A Score of Treatments Prove Dismal Failures—Grateful Father Tells of CURE ACHIEVED BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"It gives me great pleasure to express my deep gratitude in appreciation of the incalculable benefit that the Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent did my little boy. He had an awful rash all over his body and the doctor said it was eczema. It was terrible and used to water awfully. Any place the water went it would form another sore and it would become crusted. A score or more physicians failed utterly and finally I removed the trouble. Then I was told to use the Cuticura Remedies. I got a cake of Cuticura Soap, a box of Cuticura Ointment and a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, and before we had used half the Resolvent I could see a change in him. In about two months he was entirely well. When people see him now they ask, 'What did you get to cure your boy?' and all we can say is, 'It was the Cuticura Remedies.' So in us Cuticura will always have firm and warm friends. George F. Lambert, 139 West Centre St., Mahanoy City, Pa., September 26 and November 4, 1907.
