Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Daughter Was Born.
Born, December 4, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Parr, at their home near town, a daughter.

Action for Money.
A suit to collect a note for $450 was filed in the circuit court today by Amos A. Boynton against Frank and Florence Boynton.

Snowing at Gibbon.
Information received this afternoon by the local O. R. & N. office from the agent at Gibbon states that it has been snowing at that point during the day. As a result the Umatilla river is not rising at Gibbon and it would seem there is little danger of a flood at this time.

For Lovers of Italy.
Lovers of Italy should read "Home Life in Italy," "Letters from the Apennines," by Lina Duff Gordon. Critics say of it: "A thoroughly enjoyable, yet informing book." "A book that represents the real home life in the Italian Apennines."

Wants His Jack.
A suit to gain possession of a Jack valued at $500 was filed in the circuit court today by A. Crawford versus W. B. Hamilton. The former claims possession of the animal but alleges that Hamilton took it and sold it.

Joe Eli Qualifies.
Joe Eli, recently elected to succeed himself as councilman from the third ward, is the first of the newly elected officers to qualify. He called, this morning, at the office of Recorder Fitz Gerald and took his oath of office. The other officers will probably qualify in a few days.

Child Nature.
"A Study of Child Nature," by Elizabeth Harrison, is not a new book, but has been found so valuable by teachers and mothers and all interested in child study, that the fifth edition was published before the book was two years old. To be found at the public library.

A Choir Recital.
A recital will be given by the Presbyterian church choir under the direction of Mrs. Valentine on Thursday, October 16, 1909, at 8:30 p. m. for the benefit of the choir fund. A program of unusual merit has been prepared with the assistance of such able artists as Miss Edna Gates and Dr. Hill. All lovers of good music should attend.

City Delivery Changes Hands.
Pendland Brothers who have conducted an express business in Pendleton for some time have purchased the city delivery business of William Coffman and hereafter will conduct the two in conjunction. They are therefore building a large stable on their high street property and when it is completed they will be able to accommodate 20 horses.

Pastoral Connections Severed.
A meeting of the Pendleton presbytery was held in this city yesterday afternoon for the purpose of dissolving the pastoral connections of Rev. W. L. Van Nuy with the local church. The resignation was handed in two weeks ago but Mr. Van Nuy had not perfected his arrangements for moving to Mt. Hood. He will occupy the local pulpit tomorrow morning and evening as usual, while President W. H. Bleakney of the Pendleton academy will occupy the pulpit on the following Sunday. The members of the presbytery who were present were President Bleakney, Rev. S. L. Clark of Echo, Rev. E. W. Warrington of Pilot Rock, Rev. E. F. Harper of Milton, Prof. R. G. White of the Pendleton academy and James Crawford of Pendleton.

Athletic Club Smoker.
Boxing Instructor Dudley Evans has arranged to hold the monthly smoker of the Pendleton Athletic club, next Friday evening in the Oregon theater. A good program has been selected and lovers of boxing will probably see a good night's sport. Ed Cuff of Spokane and Cliff Overton, will furnish the principal feature of the evening. Cuff is well-known to the club members, while Overton is a light heavyweight, weighing 175 and has boxed many times on the coast. He has a draw with big Fred Russell, who gave Sailor Tom Sharkey one of his warmest engagements, and has quite a string of contests on his record. Big Al Richardson, the local colored champion, is scheduled for a six-round go with K. Helmig, a 225 pound fireman of La Grande. Frank Nodo and Chris Castle and Smoke Taylor and Kid Williams will be among the other attractions.

HERMISTON TO HAVE NEW CONCRETE BLOCK

(Special Correspondence.)
Hermiston, Dec. 11.—A deal has been consummated whereby J. M. Weid of Jefferson, Oregon, has become the owner of the Talley building on Main street, having purchased it from Melvin Hansen of Eugene, who recently bought it of J. M. Talley, formerly of this city but now of Eugene. It is reported that the present building is to be removed and a two-story concrete block to be erected on the site. The building will have a 50 foot frontage and 80 feet depth and be equipped with many of the conveniences of modern business blocks. It is understood that preparations toward furthering the work will be commenced within a few weeks.

Auction Sale Tonight.
The Ladies' Aid society of the Christian church will hold an auction sale in the Smith Crawford building, beginning at 8 o'clock this evening.
