RECORD HOGS AT

EXCELLENT QUALITY CAUSES FURTHER ADVANCE

Highest Prices During Present Movement Paid for Two Lots-Demand for Sheep and Cattle Quite Firm-Lambs Range Around $6.

Portland Union Stockyards, Stockdale, Dec. 16 .- The complaint made recently in these reports to the effect that local livestock buyers did not give the shippers to this market the benefit of any nominal rise in prices, but held back until a greater sum was reached, has been remedled.

During the past 24 hours there was an advance of 5c in the price of hogs. This sent the local market to the highest point reached during the present movement, $8.65. Two sales were made in the Stockdale yards at this figure during the 24 hours. One of the lots consisted of 65 head and averaged 244 pounds, while another lot of $1 head averaged 243 pounds. These were among the best hogs received in the local market during the Condon Gets the Prize. Condon secured the prize today for hog shipments by topping all previous prices at $8.65. This value was obtained for the lots sent in by J. E. Reynolds, the "regular" from Condon. One load brought in by the Gil-liam county shipper is said to have Sheep and lambs are quoted firmer. Hogs-Best east of t weighed on an average of about 300 however, with the run sufficient to $8.60@8.65; fancy, $8.50; stockers, pounds, and a still higher price would supply the wants of the trade, have been obtained for this lot in or-

Today's run of hogs was quite fair consisting of 404 head, but the trade is taking hold of everything that comes and is willing to pay the price.

Demand for both sheep and cattle , is very firm and former high values are still easily maintained. During the past 24 hours as high as $4.75 was obtained for the better class of steers, and cows again sold at $3.75. The market for cattle would stand only moderate supplies at this time of livestock values in the yards: without hurting the price because of the great influx for the big show.

WHEAT IS FORCED HIGHER BY SHORTS

December Advances 2 3-8c in Chicago—Big Interests Are Selling Again.

Chicago, Dec. 16 .- Shorts took adantage of yesterday's weakness in wheat, occasioned by the better government report than expected, and bought at at the opening of the market today, resulting in a closing 1 1-8c o 2 3-8c a bushel higher than yeserday's closing.

Liverpool gave this market this rst strength. It opened 1-4d to 3-8d igher and closed unchanged to 1-2d bove yesterday. Liverpool opened firm on account of the great strength nere of Australian, LaPlata and Manba offerings.

There was a gain of a full cent in he December at the opening, but the dvance was sudden as shorts startod for cover. December closed with the best gain for the day,

All through the wheat market there a good strong swell on first trades, based upon foreign markets, Early buying was mostly by shorts. however, and a group of big houses, ed by Armour, Harris, Winthrop, Mc-Dougall and others, sold rather pertently and forced the May back le from the high point.

wheat markets are acting be both Minneapolis and St. Louis. At Minneapolis the output of flour is heavier than a year ago.

The Cincinnati Price Current says-Winter wheat mostly covered with ow and in good condition. Some orn still in fields in western sections Colder weather favorable for curing orn. Bad roads restricting moving of product. Packing of 550,000 as igainst 785 last year.

ENGLAND PAYS TRIBUTE TO GREAT SWIMMER

London.-Next month there will be inveiled at Dover a statue to the nemory of Capt. Matthew Webb, the only man to swim across the English Channel. Recent years have seen nany attempts to emulate his great feat, but so far the great sailorswimmer, who met such a tragic end it Niagara, is the only man to swim rom England to France.

Webb made his first appearance as swimmer on July 3, 1875, when he swam from Blackwell to Gravesend miles 2 furlongs in 4h, 52m, 44s. On July 20, 1875, he swam from Doer to Ramsgate (18 miles). failed to swim the channel on August 12, 1875, but on August 24 and 25 of the same year he succeeded in rossing from Dover to Calais in 21 hours 45 minutes. He was drowned in an attempt to swim the Niagara Rapids on July 24, 1883.

INTRODUCED HIS BRIDE TO HIS REAL WIFE

Chicago.-After having been bigamously married to Alexander Murren of 315 East Seventy-first street. Mrs. Muren, No. 2, according to the story told Magistrate Barlow in Yorkville court, was introduced to Mrs. Muren, No. 1. Muren was held in $1000 bail:

Wife No. 2 was Miss Mary Buye of 426 East Seventy-third street. said she was married to Muren April 1904, and that she gave Muren $2000 to buy furniture.

"He had the nerve to take around and introduce me to his wife, as his former housekeeper, a few days after we were married," she said,

Mrs. Muren, No. 1, was Miss Annie Szevisil. She is said to have been married to Muren November 4, 1900,
