Fascinating Toys Abound in the NEW TOY DEP'T.

T-O-Y-S—A simple little word of four simple little letters, yet how full of meaning, how full of joy to the little ones, is this little word on Christmas morning. Which one of us would not give a good many years to go back to the time when we, too, looked forward with such hopeful yearnings to that merry day? But we, now, in turn are able to give that same happiness to the little ones in our care (And who has not SOME little one to think of?) by a few trifling purchases at this busy gift store. There's a positive saving in every article bought here, but don't delay for the assortments can't last much longer.
