MAN OF MANY TRADES DENIED CITIZENSHIP

Spokane, Wash.—When Judge Edward Whitton in the United States circuit court for the district of eastern Washington denied the application for citizenship by Maurice O. Fitzmaurice, a crimp was put into a plan by the liquor interests in Spokane to launch a daily newspaper to espouse their cause. The petitioner was subjected to a grueling examination by J. B. Lindsley, assistant United States district attorney, who brought out that since coming to America from Ireland, five years ago, Fitzmaurice has posed as an Episcopal rector, rancher, lodging house keeper, lecturer, lawyer and author in South Dakota, as publisher of small newspapers in Washington and Idaho and, according to his own statement, as a promoter and an active political power in Spokane. It was also entered a matter of record that he had been accused and arrested on the charge of committing unspeakable crimes. Fitzmaurice told a number of "hard luck" stories about being robbed while in South Dakota, but these were disproved by witnesses.

DEVINE IS CAPTAIN OF ALL-OREGON TEAM

Elmer Hall and Ray Finley have been honored with places on the all-Oregon high school football team, says the Baker City Herald. The selections were made by a prominent football man of the Willamette valley, who is competent to choose the men and who has watched the playing of all teams very closely. Baker is proud of her players who have gained such signal honors but there is also a feeling that other men should be numbered among the big eleven. Baker was also given two men on the second team, Jones for fullback and White for quarter.

The lineup for the all-Oregon team follows:

Halves—Hall of Baker City and Childers of La Grande.

Ends—Walters of Cove and Krebs of Salem.

Tackles—Devine of Pendleton and Leader of Washington High of Portland.

Guards—Sims of Eugene and Quinn of Columbia of Portland.

Center—Finley of Baker City.

Quarter—Carnell of Washington High of Portland.

Fullback—Jenkins of Eugene.

The strength of the eastern Oregon players is shown by five men being selected for some of the best places on the team. Baker is also glad to see the captaincy come to an eastern Oregon man. The lineup of the first team will appear in the Oregonian shortly and it is probable that the second team lineup will also be given.

On January 15, 1910, all patented land within the first and second units of the Umatilla project for which water right application has not been made in the local land office, in accordance with public notices then in force, shall be excluded from the project and appropriate steps shall be promptly taken to add to the project other lands equivalent in irrigation area. CHRISTMAS-- BEST OLD DAY OF ALL

Christmas is the best old day on the calendar.

Three hundred and sixty-four other days in the year come and go, few of us paying but a small amount of attention to them.

New Years would pass by unnoticed were it not for the fact that our friends keep telling us of the good resolutions they are making and inviting us to a front seat on the water wagon.

Decoration day gives the older generation a chance to do honor at the graves of our soldier and sailor dead—to the younger generation it means a bully good chance to lay off work and root for our favorite team and help swell the gate receipts.

July the fourth brings with it outbursts of patriotism and a great deal of noise, rattle and bang—and leaves behind a trail of disfigured, injured and dead. The small boy glories in it—wise parents dread it—the surgeons welcome it.

Then shortly our president issues his Thanksgiving proclamation and it is given millions of dollars worth of free advertising in the newspapers of the nation.

But when Christmas is in the air the English speaking world sits up and takes notice. Each one of us becomes enthusiastic. From toddling tot to second childhood, in all walks of life, in all classes of society, high and low, rich and poor, prosperous and destitute, the well and the sick, the strong and the afflicted arise and with one mighty shout, proclaim: "Rejoice for Christmas is here!"

And why? Simply because the first Christmas was real and human and genuine. There was a reason for it.

The reason was apparent to all who cared to know. And the world knew.

Thousands of Christmas' have followed the first. Yet through all the years the same spirit of "Peace on earth and good will to men" has been preserved. The form of celebration has been changed but little—in the main it is identical.

Christmas is not the desire of a few—it is the privilege of the many. There is nothing of sham or mockery in it.

It's genuine—through and through. It's as broad as the earth and stretches from pole to pole. It's the best—and best known day in the year. It's Christmas.

A Merry Christmas to all and to all a Happy New Year
