Larry O'Connor and Little Molly in "Sweet Innisfallen," at the Oregon Friday, December 31, for the Benefit of the Public Park Fund.

"SWEET INNISFALLEN" UNDER AUSPICES OF CIVIC CLUB

"Sweet Innisfallen" with Mr. Daley as "Larry," will appear at the Oregon theater on Friday, December 31, under the auspices of the Civic and Improvement association for the benefit of the public park fund.
Many complimentary things have been written and printed about Bernard Daley, the sweet Irish singer and actor in romantic parts, and here he is with us, or will be soon.
Mr. Daley was a hit as Dan O'Hara and as "Rory of the Hills," but he has forsaken them for a new love, "Sweet Innisfallen," which it is said gives Mr. Daley a broader field for his talents. It has more romantic situations and a fresh bunch of songs which he renders with much tenderness and effect. Among his collection of melody he will sing the song of all Irish songs, "The Wearing of the Green." His song "Hide and Seek," with little Molly, which must be acted as well as sung; "Sweet Eyes of Irish Blue;" "The Call of the Wind;" and others equally catchy are in his collection to deliver in the new play, Mr. Caldwell, his manager, has provided him with.
"Sweet Innisfallen" is an island in the lakes of Killarney, where the scenes of the play are laid and beautiful scenic effects are promised.

BIG SHEET AND PILLOW CASE DANCE

To Be Given by Pendleton Aerie No. 28, on New Year's Eve, December 31, 1909.

Ten Dollars in Prizes to Be Awarded—Good Time for Everybody.

The fraternal order of Eagles who have always been known for never doing anything by halves, are to give a grand sheet and pillow case dance on New Year's eve, December 31, 1909. This will be something new for Pendleton. All Eagles are making a combined effort to make this the howling success of the season and know of no better way to spend the last few hours of 1909 than by having the biggest dance of the year.
In order to make the dance more complete the committee has decided that no one without a sheet and pillow case will be permitted to dance until the prizes are awarded.
For the best sustained character a cash prize of $5 will be given; for the second best, $2.50, and to the most awkward a prize of $2.50.
Admission charges will be as follows: $1 per couple; ladies masked free; ladies unmasked, 50c.
This will be possibly the last dance of the year. Watch for the novel parade on New Year's evening at 7 o'clock.

Woman Is Recognized.

Seattle.—Governor M. E. Hay's appointment of Mrs. Emma Smith DeVoe, president of the Washington Equal Suffrage association, as a delegate to the National Divorce congress, called by President Taft to meet at Washington, D. C., January 14th to 17th to formulate legislation on the question, is a graceful tribute to the part voting women have played in remedying the divorce evil. Since women were granted the ballot in New Zealand, it is pointed out to the governor, divorces have been reduced 77 per cent, while Wyoming, which has had equal suffrage longer than other states, has the smallest percentage of divorces of any state in the union.

BARTENDERS TIRE OF LIFE.

London Saloon Men Seek Aid of Salvation Army Suicide Bureau.

London.—The Salvation anti-suicide bureau continues, according to the report, to do good work. The number of applicants (after allowing for the rush at its inauguration) remains about the same. Experience has greatly helped in classification, and care has been taken at the first interview to sort out the cases which can better be dealt with through the labor bureau or other social institutions. Lately there has been a larger proportion of applicants, who, hearing of the anti-suicide bureau, have not waited until they practically had come to an impossible position. Quite a number of business men in difficulty have sought advice in the early stages of their depression, and have been brought to face the altered circumstances in such a way that they did not go under.

Many of those who have sought the bureau's advice through an unsatisfactory spiritual condition have proved to be very difficult to deal with. Fatalism, Christian Science, election, the larger hope and such doctrines, have led them first into a maze, and then a despair. During the past few months a number of bartenders and saloonkeepers have come in the greatest distress, stating that "the trade" is in such a bad way that it is indeed a question of the survival of the fittest.

No doubt at all that the courts have taken Mr. Rockefeller's advice as to "struggle." Evidently they are struggling to put the great world-owner down and out.
