LOCAL BOWLERS WON FROM WALLA WALLA

FINAL SCORE SHOWS 67 POINTS TO GOOD

Gibson, McDevitt, Molitor, Noel and Hoover Retrieve Defeat Suffered Here Two Weeks Ago—Noel Was High Man for Pendleton.

With 67 points to the good the Pendleton bowling team won from the crack ten pin aggregation at Walla Walla last night. The members of the local team returned to the city this morning, gratified at having defeated Walla Walla and having offset the defeat they suffered at the hands of the Garden City players in this city recently.

In speaking of the playing of the Pendleton team last night, the Walla Walla Union said:

The visitors rolled a consistent game. They work well together and taken throughout are a strong aggregation. Noel had high average for Pendleton, 171, while Hoover had high score when he rolled 184 in the second game. The Pendleton average was 164 2-15, while Walla Walla's average was 158. Although they would have been glad to have won the contest the Walla Walla five made the Pendleton artists know they were in the game. The score:

They have no children but Mrs. Hahnert has three children by a former husband.

George Phelps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Darr Phelps, and one of the East Oregonian's competent carriers, was injured on the arm today through falling and cutting himself on a wire.

C. K. Bland, the Hermiston merchant, has been among those in the city today in connection with the suit that is now on in the circuit court.

Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Licensed to Wed.
A marriage license was sent last evening to Thomas G. Elliot and Miss Lillian Roumagoux.

Will Repeat Song Service.
The song service which was given at the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening is to be repeated, by request, on next Sunday evening.

Beautiful Communion Service.
The Baptist church of this city has just received from the east a beautiful individual communion service, consisting of two large trays of glasses, with burnished metal base and cover. The service will be used next Sunday in the observance of the Lord's Supper.

Sold Town Lots.
Through a deed that was filed with the county recorder today John Bryant disposes of lots two and three in block 57 of Reservation addition, to the American national bank. The consideration stated in the deed is $3000.

Timber Land Patents.
Five patents for timber claims were placed on file with the county recorder today. The land for which patents are granted is situated in the southern part of this county and the patentees are Bertha Clement, Arthur B. Clement, John S. Clement, Susan P. Clement, and Alice Clement.

O. R. & N. General Yardmaster.
George Leete, well known in this city where he spends his boyhood days, is in Pendleton accompanied by his wife, visiting relatives. Mr. Leete is now general yardmaster for the O. R. & N. company at Huntington, to which responsible position he was promoted some time ago.

Will Protect the Fish.
A private message received in the city yesterday from Congressman W. C. Hawley states that he has consulted with Secretary Ballinger in reference to instructing the government at Hermiston to place screens over the intakes and at the outlet of the big reservoir at Cold Springs.

Dog Fight Draws Crowd.
The familiar sound of a dog fight yesterday evening in front of the Grand theater was the signal for one of those quickly formed crowds which only a dog fight can occasion. A big bull terrier full of the fighting spirit, belonging to one of the itinerant chespians now appearing in the Grand had locked his formidable jaws on the ear of a little inoffensive shepherd not yet emerged from the tints of puppyhood. The belligerent bull was finally separated from his unwilling victim, but not before fists began to fly as the owners of the animals took up the argument.

Remodeling Elks Building.
The work of remodeling the old Renn building, now owned by Pendleton lodge B. P. O. E., is under way. The work is being done under the direction of Arthur Gibson. Already much of the partition work on the second floor has been torn away so as to permit of the rearrangement of the building for the accommodation of the Elks. It is the plan to fit up a club room in the front of the building, overlooking Court street, and to create a lodge hall and ante rooms out of the remainder of the floor.

School House on Project.
In school district No. 112, a new district which includes land in the vicinity of the government townsite on the Umatilla project, the voters have decided to erect a $1500 schoolhouse. The contract for the building has been let to Henry Ott of Hermiston and the construction of the building is to begin at once. The school house is to contain two stories and be modern in every particular. The school building has been made necessary by the already considerable population in that section of the project. That the population will be doubled within a year is the belief of those having land in that vicinity.

More O. R. & N. Changes.
J. P. Hanlon, better known as "Jack," who has been bill clerk at the local O. R. & N. freight depot for the past three years, has resigned to accept a place as revising clerk on the O. & W. at Tacoma. Mr. Hanlon has a host of friends both in this city and on the O. R. & N. who will be pleased to learn of his new position, although they regret to have him leave Pendleton. The position of local bill clerk will be filled by B. W. Mankers, formerly car clerk, which position will be taken by L. R. Campion. Sidney Springer, who has been the local warehouse foreman, has also resigned and will go to the O. & W. at Tacoma. His place will be taken here by Lee Teutsch.

For the Park Fund.
The club and library club has taken up the proposed daily production of "Sweet Innocent" which will be at the Oregon Theater Friday evening, December 31. Fifty per cent of the receipts is to be given to the public park fund. The production goes to Portland from here for a week's engagement. Bertha Day as a singer and actor is in a class with "Cherry Blossom" who has won a $500 prize in "Sweet Innocent" a few weeks ago. Both productions are well worth the same time, dealing with love, love, love, etc. Mr. Daly has much in his favor. Fourth appearance and a sweet voice. Much has been said in praise of Mr. Daly's performance as Larry O'Connor in "Sweet Innocent" and aside from winning $500. All performance the public park fund will be benefited to the extent of 50 per cent of the receipts.

Confiscate Pendleton Coal.
Though Pendleton's fuel supply still holds out there is complaint from the local dealers because of the confiscation of coal as it passes through Idaho. All of the local coal, or the bulk of the same, comes from Wyoming. In various Idaho towns the fuel supply has been low and dealers have formed the habit of confiscating coal that passes through. They pay for the same but the practice works a hardship on eastern Oregon dealers.

VICTIM OF BAKER SHOOTING DIES FROM HIS WOUNDS
A dispatch from Baker City says: Just before 12 o'clock Saturday Carl Carnes, who was shot by Jim Leighton at Huntington Friday evening, died from his injuries.

This complicates the position in which Jim Leighton is placed. Before Carnes died the charge no doubt rested on "assault with deadly weapon," but now that his victim is dead Carnes will probably have to face the charge of murder.

Reports from the scene of the crime state that Leighton had in mind to shoot another man, but met Carnes in a saloon and an old trouble over a solo game was revived. Leighton was bound to shoot someone so he began picking a quarrel out of Carnes. The latter was a one-legged man and as he was known in Baker, not at all a quarrelsome fellow. When Leighton had passed the endurance line, however, in his remarks to Carnes, his talk was resented and finally Carnes struck Leighton with his cane. This seemed to please Leighton and gave him an excuse to open fire which he did. Four bullets hit Carnes, and but for his remarkable constitution his death would have followed in a very short time. He was brought to Baker where an operation was performed and soon after this he died.

His statement to officers places

Leighton in a very bad light, according to those who are familiar with particulars.

BAKER SANTA CLAUS HAS NARROW ESCAPE
James Lentz, who was doing the Santa Claus act at a Christmas gathering in one of Baker's homes Friday night, met with an accident that he will long remember, says the Baker Herald. He was dressed in cotton to resemble old Kris Kringle and as he stooped over the small tree which was illuminated with lighted candles, the cotton on his Christmas suit took fire. A conflagration followed which burned Lentz' hands and face severely. By quick work he managed to throw off his robes before it was too late and he got off with only a severe scorching.

A Statement to the Public.
Our $15 suit and overcoat sale this season has been the best of any that we have ever had and we sold more suits on the opening days than any other store in Pendleton has ever sold in the same length of time. It has been so good that it has caused some of our competitors to come out with prices that may seem lower to prospective buyers, but we want to say that there is not one store in Pendleton or Umatilla county that carries the same high grade merchandise and we do not consider that by selling cheaper goods for a trifle less is giving any better bargains.

When a store sells such high grade clothing as Sturm & Mayer, Alfred Benjamin & Co.'s and Society Brand for $15 it is absolutely the best bargain that can possibly be given.

Another thing we wish the public to know is that every suit and overcoat in our store is in this sale and nothing is reserved or moved from the store.

Remember, we are not a credit store, and this sale is positively cash. The store that will fit you properly.
