O. R. & N. WILL RUN DEMONSTRATION TRAIN

FOUR TRAINS WILL MAKE EVERY POINT IN OREGON

Will Be Operated in Conjunction With O. A. C.—Will Carry Agricultural and Stock Exhibits—Lectures Will

Be Given on Farming Subjects. According to plans now in course of formation, the O. R. & N. is to run a demonstration train through eastern Oregon this year. Reports from Portland say the two Harriman lines in this state are arranging to send out four demonstrations and one or the other of these will visit practically every point in Oregon along the lines of the Southern Pacific, O. R. & N. and their branches, where farming is carried on to any considerable extent.

This will be the second train of this kind to visit Umatilla county, but this will probably be a much more elaborate affair than the first one.

As heretofore, the trains will be operated in conjunction with the Oregon Agricultural college.

The two trains on the Southern Pacific will cover points in the Willamette valley and southern Oregon, and the O. R. & N. trains will visit points in northern Oregon and southeastern Washington.

It is probable that the trains will carry livestock, poultry, horticultural, agricultural and dairy products. These will include modern machinery for dairying, dry farming and care of orchards, modern poultry houses and pens, high class specimens of dairy and beef cattle, hogs and pure-bred poultry, supplied by the agricultural college. Free distribution of seeds recommended for certain localities by the scientists who will accompany the train is also a matter under consideration.

The usual course of lectures on agronomy, stock raising, fruit growing, poultry husbandry and the like will be delivered by instructors from the Agricultural college.

The itineraries, train equipment and program of lectures will be announced definitely within a few weeks.

"SIS HOPKINS" WILL BE SEEN HERE AGAIN

The story of "Sis Hopkins," that delightful play of Indiana country life, with its scenes laid in Posey county, at the old Pa Hopkins' home, is one of unusual subtle pathos. Being intimately associated with the love of "Sis," the odd little country girl, it has an added charm and the tale is told in a most natural and unconventional manner. Miss Rose Melville, who plays the part of "Sis," originated the character and has made of it one of the classics of the stage. Her unassuming acceptance of the love of a man, whose deceit is apparent to every one but the girl, is pathetic; yet when she awakens to his duplicity, the punishment she metes out to him is swift and sure. Miss Melville is surrounded this season by a company which surpasses in individual ability any supporting organization which she has previously had. "Sis" Hopkins comes to the Oregon on Wednesday, January 5.

Everywhere life is being made more safe through the work of Dr. King's New Life Pills in constipation, liver trouble, kidney diseases and bowel disorders. They're easy, but sure, and perfectly build up the health. 25c at Tallman & Co's.

DECLARES WOMEN CAN VOTE IN THIS STATE

THINKS LEGISLATURE CAN CONFER SUFFRAGE RIGHTS

Recent Supreme Court Decision is Held Up By Attorney As Grounds for His Conviction—Claims Similar Construction of Constitution Would Favor Woman Suffrage.

Salem.—"The decision of the supreme court in the case of the State vs. Sam Cochran, I am firmly convinced, will result in giving the women of this state the right of suffrage," declares a prominent attorney. "The court lays down the rule in the Cochran case, that because the constitution does not expressly prohibit an increase in the number of supreme court justices from three to five, or some other number, the legislature has the constitutional authority to pass an act authorizing the increase."

"Now, take section two of article two of the constitution of Oregon, dealing with the qualifications of electors. It says: 'In all elections not otherwise provided for by the constitution, every white male citizen of the United States of the age of 21 years and upwards who shall have resided in the state during the six months immediately preceding such election; and every white male of foreign birth of the age of 21 years and upward, who shall have resided in this state during the six months immediately preceding such election, and shall have declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States one year preceding such election, conforming to the laws of the United States on the subject of naturalization, shall be entitled to vote at all elections authorized by law.'

"These sections say who shall vote, but as they do not specifically set forth who shall not vote, except as above noted, and it seems to me that under the construction placed upon the constitution by the court in the

Cochran case, women have a right to demand the ballot.

"This appears in a stronger light when we remember that it does expressly prohibit the legislature from conferring the right of suffrage upon certain classes and does not mention women as one of those classes. In the light of the Cochran decision, the constitution says certain persons shall have the right to vote at all elections and that the legislature shall not confer the right of suffrage on certain classes, and consequently it must be held that the legislature has power to confer that privilege on all except the prohibited classes."
