THE WHEAT MARKET

A SMALL SPREAD IN WHEAT QUOTATIONS

Chicago Market Has Fair Business, But Price Rules in Narrow Limits.

Chicago, Jan. 10.—With foreign markets weak because of the better crop outlook from India, this market closed dull, 1-4c to 1-8c higher than Saturday's closing.

Liverpool was unsteady all day, opening unchanged to 1-8d lower and closing 1-2 to 3-4d below Saturday.

This market was fairly active but moved within a very narrow range most of the day. The total spread in the May was only 1c, but July and September did not spread more than 3-4c a bushel during the trading.

Russian wheat shipments 3,016,000 bushels, compared with 664,000 bushels a year ago; Danubian 792,000 bushels compared with 568,000 bushels; total, 10,369,000 bushels, compared with 6,992,000 bushels.

Wheat on passage increased 120,000 bushels.

GREAT FINANCIAL SCANDAL STIRS FRIVOLOUS FRANCE

Paris.—One of the greatest financial scandals which marked the history of the third French republic is forcing its way into public attention. While it is not so big as the Panama affair, it dwarfs the Humbert scandal and others of recent years. This is the legal spoliation of the Catholic church in France.

When a few years ago the property of the religious orders was confiscated by the government it announced that the value of those buildings was $200,000,000. This made an excellent political cry, as it was stated that this huge sum, which represented hospitals, schools and convents of various religious orders, would be turned over to the state and used to pay old age pensions to the laboring classes. All this property was sold or is now being sold by various public officials.

Naturally the politicians and political lawyers are not idle. Their fees have eaten up a good part of the proceeds. The minister of justice has just published his third report with the sales effected in 1908. Amazing facts are disclosed. Thus, out of 192 sales of religious houses, 43 brought in absolutely not one penny. Everything went in "costs." The fees paid the lawyers have run up into the hundreds of thousands. Among those whose names figure in the official lists is Millerand, the former socialist leader, with his secretaries and the names of many other deputies.

SALEM MAYOR SAYS HE WILL RESIGN

Salem, Ore.—Mayor George Rodgers, who has served three years as mayor of Salem, has announced that he will tender his resignation at the next meeting of the city council. Mr. Rodgers pleads business as the cause of his action and says that his business relations have grown to such an extent during the last year that he cannot longer give the attention to the city affairs that they require.

At the present time Salem is entering upon a progressive era with a $1,500,000 water system under way and other improvements that require an active mayor, one who can give a great deal of his time to its details. Mr. Rodgers, the present incumbent, has been aggressive, and doubtless would be kept in office indefinitely by the voters of the capital because of his aggressiveness.

He was elected the first time without solicitation in December, 1906, and was again reelected in 1908 without seeking the nomination. His business in Salem is that of paper jobber. He also conducts a bindery where most of the state's bookbinding is done. His successor will be chosen by the council.

HOOD RIVER WOULD HAVE NORMAL SCHOOL

Hood River, Ore.—The new directors of the Hood River Commercial club Saturday night elected Charles Hall president, and Calvin Skinner secretary. E. H. Hartwig and J. H. Osborne are vice-president and treasurer, respectively. Mr. Hall is interested in many local enterprises, having recently gained control of the Home Telephone company. Mr. Skinner came to Hood River last year from Hamilton, Ore., and has been engaged in orchard development. This will be a great year for the Commercial club and for Hood River. The new First National bank building, nearing completion, will contain quarters which will be fitted up in good style for the club. It is expected to get into them by early spring, and the annual banquet has been postponed until after that time. The club will hold a meeting tonight, at which will be outlined plans for the coming year. The normal school committee, which has been investigating the feasibility of inviting the state to establish a normal school at Hood River, will make its report, which will be favorable.

NEW RECORD FOR HOGS ESTABLISHED

SALE OF SWINE MADE IN PORTLAND AT $9.10

Still Another Record Broken—Prices For Cattle Still Remain High—Sheep and Lambs Firm.

Portland Union Stockyards, Stockdale, Jan. 10.—The week opened with a new high record on hogs and cattle. One sale of hogs was made at $9.10, while transactions in cattle were on the basis of $5.25 for top steers. While no transaction was closed today at the high figure, this was due entirely to the lack of suitable quality. Recent sale of one lot of California stuff at $5.25 for steers and $4.25 for cows indicates that this price is again available whenever the quality is offering.

There was quite a fair run of cattle in the yards today, but no real topers put in appearance.

Hog run over Sunday was only fair. No sheep or lambs arrived and prices are, therefore, very firm.

Those Who Supply the Market.

Henry Larkin had two loads of hogs offering from Uniontown, Wash. S. B. Hall had two loads of cattle offering from Ontario.

R. M. Mix had seven loads of cattle and calves offering from Boise on today's market.

Today's run of livestock compares with this day in recent years as follows:

	Hogs	Cattle	Sheep
1910	176	243	30
1909	209	125	25
1907	45	60	200
1906	15	125	92
1905	146	45	259

A year ago today there was a firm tone in all lines of livestock, with cattle advanced 25c over the previous quotation.

The following is the general range of livestock prices in the yards:

Cattle—Best steers, weighing 1200 pounds, $5.00@5.25; medium steers, $4.75@5.00; best cows, $4.00@4.25; fancy heifers, $4.00@4.25; medium cows, $3.75@4.00; poor cows, $3.00; bulls, $2.50@3.25; stags $2.50@3.00.

Hogs—Best east, $8.85@8.90; stockers, $9.05@9.10; fancy, $8.85@8.90; stockers, $6.00; pigs, $6.00@7.00.

Sheep—Best wethers, $5.25@5.50; ordinary, $5.00; spring lambs, $6.00@6.25; straight ewes, $4.75; mixed lots, $4.75@5.00.

Calves—Best, $5.25@5.50; ordinary, $3.00@4.50.

It's Another Hog Record.

Hogs that brought the record today in the American livestock market were sold at Stockdale by the Portland Commission company at $9.10 per hundred pounds. The swine averaged 217 pounds and were shipped by S. L. Day from Enterprise.

FINE WHISTLING DEPUTIES.

Six Swiss Liberals Convicted of Offending Mayor and Banquet Guests.

Geneva.—A curious case has been tried at Romont, a town in the canton of Fribourg, where six local Liberal deputies were charged "with injuring the town authorities by offensive whistling."

The prosecution was the result of a political discussion concerning a local matter which took place in May last, when the six Liberal deputies, accompanied by a number of sympathizers, all armed with new whistles, awaited the Mayor and a number of Conservative deputies and friends after an official banquet, and received the assembly in the street with derisive whistling.

The deputies were found guilty and each was fined $10.

A Sprained Ankle.

As a rule a man will feel well satisfied if he can hobble around on crutches in two or three weeks after spraining his ankle, and it is often two or three months before he is fully recovered. This is an unnecessary loss of time, as by applying Chamberlain's Liniment, as directed, a cure may as a rule be effected in less than one week's time, and in many cases within three days. Sold by all good dealers.

MONEY IN BANK YET INDIANS ARE DESTITUTE

North Yakima, Wash.—Charging that there is suffering and want, and in some cases actual starvation among the Indians of Yakima reservation, former Indian Agent Jay Lynch has written to Senator W. L. Jones at Washington, asking him to take steps toward bringing about a better condition. Major Lynch says the present condition is largely attributable to the recent rules about depositing rent money in banks that can be drawn and paid only when authority is granted from Washington. Heretofore merchants in the reservation towns, when they knew rent money was due, have given the Indians credit, but under the new arrangement, cannot do so, with the result that the Indian, with neither money nor credit, is nearly destitute. "It appears a very slow and difficult process," says Major Lynch, "to pay the Indians anything, either rent money or inherited land money; yet hundreds of thousands of dollars are now in the banks to their individual credits and thousands of dollars are now in the banks to the credit of Indians who are dead, no one knowing to whom the money should go." Major Lynch says there are 700 estates unsettled and accumulating on the Yakima reservation.

SPOKANE HAS CANINE DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE

Spokane, Wash.—Is Dodo, owned by Fred Dersamer of Spokane, a canine Jeekyll and Hyde or has the animal a double, is a question with which Justice S. A. Mann is occupied when not passing sentence upon members of the Industrial Workers of the World. Dersamer, who lives with his family in a fashionable apartment house, was arrested a few days ago on the charge of harboring a vicious dog and at the hearing a score of witnesses testified as to Dodo's temperament. The evidence was of such a varied nature that Justice Mann continued the case for two weeks to make a thorough investigation. The owner declared that Dodo is of pleasant disposition, also presenting witnesses to prove an alibi for the dog, which was in court and impressed the presiding officer with its frank and kindly expression. O. W. Wein, the prosecuting witness, testified that his young son was bitten by the dog and there were witnesses to testify that Dodo is anything but gentle besides being a menace to the neighborhood. Justice Mann said he felt inclined to give the dog a chance and he has requested the police to shadow the animal during the next two weeks and report to the court.
