Trade in general is awaiting the action of the Mexican government in taking off the duty on wheat so that American grain can be sent in that direction. If this occurs the trade argues, wheat prices will re-main very high but outside of this greatest advance, Oats market continues soft with producers again inclined to hold back. Barley is firm but unchanged. Attempts are again being made by Japanese millers to sell millfeeds in been made from Japan to San Francisco none have entered this market because Portland is always in a position to compete with foreign stuff. This trade demands a better millfeed than Japan is producing and therefore much lower prices only will bring business from this section. Flour market is firm at unchanged Compliment to Burbank.

Santa Rosa .- The grounds of the new courthouse are to be artictically laid out, and by way of compliment to Luther Burbank, as this has been his home for over thirty years, a number of his beautiful shrub and flower creations will enter into the scheme. Yesterday the Santa Rosa Park Commission, composed of Joseph H. Einhorn, the Rev. Father J. M. Cassin, Charles O. Dunbar, Mrs. L. W. Burris nd Luther Burgank, Chairman Herbert W. Austin of the Supervisors, Architect J. W. Dolliver, President irnest L. Wm. Watenburber made a short business trip to Hermiston today.

Bert Longnecker, accompanied by his little daughter, returned home today from Pendleton.

Echo, Ore., Jan. 13 .- The regular mothers' meeting of the W. C. T. U., was held at the new home of C. J. Gulliford, today. An interesting and helpful program was rendered. good attendance was present, besides several visitors, two of which joined the society. After the meeteing adjourned, Mrs. Gulliford served the company with dainty refreshments.

The Ladies of Needlecraft were entertained this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Carl Gilbert.

Quite a problem was presented here today. A certain white fox terrier with a black ear, the pet of an Echo family, wandered away from home. A small reward was offered for its return. After two days' absence the dog thought he would report at the school room on Bridge street. It was at recess and immediately the entire grade persued the pup and triumphantly bore him to the teacher, begging permission to return him to the owner. After restoring order the teacher said, "Now the boy whothinks he is entitled to the reward may stand. Immediately seventeen boys rose to their feet. Each was sure that he was the one. Eventually a compromise was effected by the entire grade being treated to candy. Mrs. Pulmulter and children have returned home from Milton, where they have been visiting since the holldays

Jos Cunha shipped four carloads of beef cattle from Echo to the Union Stock Yards on the first of the week.

C. W. Crimmins, who has been employed the past three years by the Furnish-Coe company, left today with his family for Portland. They expect to make their home in the Willamette valley. Conductor Thes Boyd, son of our pioneer merchant, W. H. Boyd, passed through Echo this morning on the delayed passenger No. 10.

Mrs. Andrey Woolery, formerly of Ione, but who is now attending business college in Portland, made a short business trip here, coming last evening and returning on the local train today.

Mesdames Everett, Croarkin and Smith were passengers on this evening's train to Pendleton.

J. B. Saylor of Freewater, Echo on a business visit, Mr. Saylor is president of the Bank of Echo.

Mesdames Hattie Myers and Bell Walters of Walla Walla, are preparing to open a millinery store at this place on Bridge street.
