Newsy Notes of Pendleton

One Marriage License.

A marriage license was issued this morning to Walter B. Shaw and Miss Rosie Lynd, both of this county.

Tomorrow's Story Hour.

Miss Celestine Moorhouse will be the story teller at the "Story Hour" at the public library tomorrow forenoon.

Has Tonsillitis.

Charles Bond, the senior member of the firm of Bond Brothers, is confined to his home today with an attack of tonsillitis.

Will Judge Debate.

Principal A. C. Hampton of the High school left yesterday for Enterprise where he will act in the capacity of judge in an inter-high school debate tonight. He will return Sunday.

Wants Livestock Sale.

F. G. Lucas, the Athena auctioneer, has been here today and is anxious to arrange for a thoroughbred livestock sale to be held in this city. He is taking the matter up with the officers of the Commercial association.

Civic Club Meeting.

A meeting of the ladies library and civic club has been called for Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The meeting will be held at the city hall and all ladies belonging to that organization are asked to attend.

Will Bowl Walla Walla.

Next Monday the Pendleton bowling team will leave for Walla Walla to play another game with the champions of the Garden City. It will be the fourth game with Walla Walla this season.

Infant Child Buried.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. William Meiners of 104 Bluff street, who died Wednesday, was buried this forenoon in Olney cemetery. The services were conducted by President W. H. Bleakney of the Pendleton Academy.

Commencement Tonight.

The mid-winter commencement exercises of the high school will be held in the Presbyterian church this evening. Six young ladies will be given the converted diplomas. The members of the class are the Misses Hazel Rader, Lucile Rader, Hazel Means, Margaret Lowell and Edna Slater.

Track Repaired Today.

After being out of commission most of the week the railroad between Walla Walla and Spokane has at last been opened. The first train to go out of Walla Walla north in several days left that city about 10 o'clock this morning and it is believed that the Spokane train will come through this evening about on time.

Basketball at Milton.

The high school quintet of basketball tossers left today for Milton where they will contest for honors with the Columbia College Junior team tonight. The two teams met in this city last month, the local boys winning decisively, but the Milton boys will have the advantage of playing on a familiar floor, and will also profit by the absence of Captain McMill and Devine from the game. McMill, who suffered an injury to his leg some time ago is saving himself for the game next Friday with Walla Walla, and Devine is out of town. The team as it will line up tonight is as follows: Rader and L. Sturdivant, forwards; C. Jordan, center; A. Jordan and Boylen, guards. The team was accompanied by E. W. Brown, and Substitute C. Sturdivant. Cole, Bowman and Fee.

SECRET OF GETTING AHEAD.

Jacob L. Kessner, manager of "The Fair," one of Chicago's biggest stores, retires February 1 from active business, having accumulated a large fortune.

He entered The Fair store thirty-one years ago as cash boy.

He was born in London in 1845.

"Every man should try to save at least one-fourth of what he earns," was one of his characteristic remarks in retrospect—characteristic because it not only contained the advice to save, which has been repeated by wise men from time immemorial, but because it also came right down to "brass tacks" and dollars and cents, and told the ambitious struggler just how much he ought to lay aside, says the Chicago Record-Herald.

"The property interests which I have accumulated," he said, "have all come from strict attention to business and the savings out of my earnings. No one makes any money unless he saves it, no matter how large his income may be."

That is the Alpha and Omega of getting ahead—a realization of the fact that no matter how large one's income is he will never accumulate money unless he saves a part of it each week, month or year.—Selected.

LOVE WILL FIND A WAY.

Oberlin was the first coeducational college in this country. In the early days they had a rule that in case there was but one man and one woman in a room, at least one chair should be between them. One evening an instructor, passing one of the small sitting rooms, was horrified at beholding a young man and a young woman occupying the same chair.

"Sir," he demanded of the man student, "what is the meaning of this outrageous behavior? Do you not know the rules of the college?"

"Why—er—don't they say that if a man and a girl sit alone in a room they shall have one chair—between them?"—Everybody's.

- One illustrated song.

SPOKANE HAS GREAT BUILDING BOOM

Spokane, Wash.—Architects and contractors in Spokane predict that the expenditures for new buildings in this city during 1910 will exceed by at least $5,000,000 the record of nearly $9,000,000 in 1909. Already they have plans calling for the expenditure of $5,000,000 in steel frame concrete reinforced structures and are now working on specifications for buildings to cost between $4,500,000 and $5,000,000. These buildings will show constructive style rather than a cumulative mass of architecture, the inclination being to work for tone and beauty and practicality. Plans in hand indicate the construction will be more substantial than ever before, with fewer narrow stairways and small elevators, also eliminating the ornate towers, fancy entranceways and many angled hallways. Straight lines will be followed. One of the structures will be a 14-story hotel, in the heart of the business district, to cost more than $2,000,000.

A Sprained Ankle.

As a rule a man will feel well satisfied if he can hobble around on crutches in two or three weeks after spraining his ankle, and it is often two or three months before he is fully recovered. This is an unnecessary loss of time, as by applying Chamberlain's Liniment, as directed, a cure may as a rule be effected in less than one week's time, and in many cases within three days. Sold by all good dealers.

WHIRLWIND CAMPAIGN FOR TRACTION FUND

Said parties of the first part, the Pendleton subscribers to the fund of $50,000, which said corporation demands, shall be subscribed by the citizens of Pendleton, or their successors in interest, shall at all times, from and after this contract becomes effective, be entitled to one or more directors on the board of directors, or managing board of the said corporation.

To Spend $200,000.

Said Washington-Oregon Traction company further binds and obligates itself to expend or cause to be expended, for the construction of the said street railway and for the equipment and for the operation thereof, by gasoline, for not more than two years from and after date hereof, and by electricity thereafter, as hereinafter provided, and for the securing of such electric power or for the development of such electric power for its operation, as in this contract hereinbefore set forth, and in the securing of the development of a park or parks and a natorium, a minimum sum of $200,000 or the equivalent thereof within two years from date of the taking effect of this instrument.

When Effective.

This contract shall become and be effective as soon as the parties of the first part hereto secure valid and responsible subscriptions at a par for $50,000 of the stock of the Washington-Oregon Traction company, according to form and terms agreed upon, by and between the parties hereto, and deliver the same to and not before, and if said stock be not subscribed for and subscriptions delivered, as herein provided, on or before the first day of February, 1910, and the said stock paid for when the subscriptions become due, as provided on and by the form of the subscription agreed upon, copy of which is hereto attached, then this contract shall be void, at the option of the Washington-Oregon Traction company. There shall be no personal liability, on the Commercial association or the members of this committee, party of the first part, beyond the amount of personal stock subscription.

And the party of the second part further covenants, contracts and agrees that in the event of the faithful fulfillment and observance of the covenants and obligations of the parties of the first part herein, that if the party of the second part shall not have, within the time and in accordance with the terms hereof, complied with all the terms of the foregoing agreement, on its part, it will convey, assign and transfer, until the parties of the first part, in trust, for the persons, associations and interests represented by them, according to the rights and equities of such persons, associations and interests, cash or property of the Washington-Oregon Traction company, of the value of fifty thousand ($50,000) dollars and no more, exclusive of liens and encumbrances, and free from any claim on the part of the said Washington-Oregon Traction company and free from any claim on the part of its stockholders, but in no event shall the party of the second part, be obligated under this contract, to forfeit, transfer or pay to the parties of the first part, more than the equivalent, in value, of the net cash collected on the stock subscriptions, secured by the parties of the first part for the party of the second part, and that such transfer shall relieve the party of the second part from all claims.

except any claims which may exist against it for any wrongful act, which it may do or cause to be done, not within the terms of this contract.

In Witness Whereof, the said parties of the first part, as the "Committee," aforesaid, on behalf of the same Commercial Association, of Pendleton, Oregon, and the said party of the second part, by and through its President and Secretary and pursuant to a duly adopted resolution, by its Board of Directors, have hereunto set their hands and affixed the seal of the said corporation this 4th day of Jan., 1910.

Contract Guarantee Bond.

Know all men by these presents, that we, the undersigned stockholders of the Washington-Oregon Traction company, the Corporation, named in the foregoing agreement, for the purpose of inducing the execution and faithful fulfillment of said agreement, by the parties of the first part and by the party of the second part therein, hereby covenant, agree and contract, that the party of the second part will comply with the terms of the aforesaid agreement, on its part to be kept and performed, as therein provided, and that in the event of its failure to do so, will transfer, in accordance with the terms of the said agreement, to the parties of the first part or their successors in trust, as in the said agreement provided, cash or property of the value of $50,000, exclusive of all liens and encumbrances, and that if such transfer is made, the same shall be a full satisfaction and discharge, of all liability, on the part of the undersigned, as stockholders and guarantors hereto. It is further agreed, that the liability of the signers of this bond, shall not exceed the amount of the net cash actually collected on the general stock subscriptions, secured by the parties of the first part for the parties of the second part, under the foregoing contract and in no event shall more be paid or forfeited, under this bond, or the foregoing contract.

Witness, our hands and seals this 4th day of January.

Signed:
SAMUEL DRUMHELLER,

SPOKANE CHIEF WILL APPOINT WOMAN OOP

Spokane, Wash.—John T. Sullivan, chief of the police department of Spokane, has accepted the recommendation of Mrs. B. H. Mason, assistant state labor commissioner in Washington, and will appoint a woman as a police officer to take care of juvenile cases, visiting parks, theaters and dance halls. The new officer will have a star and power to make arrests, but she will not be obliged to wear the regulation uniform or carry a night-stick. Knowledge of conditions, tact and alertness, it is announced, will count for more than size and strength, but it is expected that the candidates for the job will have to pass the civil service examination. Twenty years' service entitles the officer to pension at half pay during the remainder of her life. This pension is also paid to male officers for similar service. Chief Sullivan says if the eagerness to get on the police force in Spokane is anything like it was at Seattle and Tacoma, the rush will be greater than any bargain counter combat ever pulled off in any city in the commonwealth.
