SOCIETY EVENTS

Wednesday night the Baptist church held its 5th annual banquet and roll-call in the Eagles hall. One hundred and fifty sat down to supper, which was all that heart could wish and was the result of the ingenuity and energy of a committee of twelve ladies with Mrs. J. E. Montgomery chairman. At 8 o'clock the roll call was called by Clerk S. L. Nichols and after a fellowship hymn in which all joined heartily, Pastor R. E. Storey introduced the toastmaster of the evening, R. N. Wilcox. With good nature and a smile that was everywhere reflected he took the reins and after a few well chosen remarks announced the first feature of the program, the quartette composed of Messrs Penland, Hartwell, Hill, and Welles. They sang "The Baptists do Shine" and were encored, as they were each time they appeared. Ben Hill then spoke to the theme "Along My Line." After raising the good humor of the crowd by several well-told stories he showed the possibilities of Sunday school work. Mrs. May then in a spicy 3 minute speech spoke on "Women's Work in the Church." The next speaker was Mr. Wilcox who spoke for the Board of Trustees. He told of their relation to the business and finances of the church and made a plea that the members put these on a safe basis and plan for the year before us. Though the board had made no announcement of this feature of the evening, the members and friends of the church present responded heroically and during the evening amounts going toward covering the local budget for 1916 were subscribed. Rev. H. D. Pense of Hermiston spoke on "The Social Mission of the Church." The quartet sang "The Baptist Banquet." Prof. F. K. Welles in a speech full of humor told "Why He Likes Banquets." Pastor Storey responded on "Things in General" and wished that all might meet one year hence. The ladies announced in harmony with Mrs. May's speech that they would serve meals during the meeting of the Inland Empire Teachers association to be held in March. After a good night song by the quartet the 6th annual banquet was history.

One of the charming events of an exceptional season was the surprise party given by Mrs. G. L. LaDow at her home on West Court street, Tuesday evening, in honor of the anniversary of the birth of her daughter, Miss Irene LaDow. It was a "spider-web" and was thoroughly enjoyed by the 30 or more guests who were present. Strings had been woven in and out through the LaDow home and as the guests arrived they were given one end of a string with instructions to find the other. This was attended with no little confusion and much merriment. Attached to the hidden end were favors which enabled the possessors to find partners for the evening. It was also required that each guest make a rhyme on the favor which each drew. After a series of enjoyable games and some musical numbers the guests adjourned to the dining room where refreshments were partaken of. On returning to the library they found the rugs had been removed and the room made ready for dancing, and this form of amusement was indulged in until a late hour. Mrs. La Dow had spared no pains to make the event one long to be remembered by those present and in this endeavor she was evidently eminently successful. Those present were the Misses Grace Cole, Helen Cranston, Edna Zimmerman, Sallie Gray, Sybil Crompton, Edith Raley, Lotta Livermore, Helen Hart, Grace Hillary, Elizabeth Sawtelle, and Margaret Lowell. Messrs Royal Sawtelle, Ernest Rupp, Cy Robbins, Robert Livermore, Harry Gray, Will Gray, Henry Collins, Fletcher Norvell, Chester Mingler, E. B. Aldrich, Charles Howell, Dr. W. V. Glaisyer and William Lowell of Union.

One of the largest and most enjoyable dancing parties given in Pendleton in years was that which occurred last evening at the Eagles-Woodmen hall and at which 24 young men of the city were the hosts. For the occasion the dancing hall was beautifully decorated with myriads of lights, Japanese lanterns, umbrellas, palms, etc. The chairs were covered with Pendleton Indian robes and many cozy retreats were arranged for the convenience of the guests of which there were several hundred including many people from out of town. Music was furnished by the Johnson orchestra of eight pieces and the dancing did not close until 1 o'clock. The patronesses for the affair were Mrs. F. E. Judd, Mrs. C. J. Smith, Mrs. G. W. Phelps, Mrs. E. P. Marshall, Mrs. E. J. Somerville, Mrs. J. R. Dickson, Mrs. Ben S. Burroughs and Mrs. E. R. Swinburne. The hosts were: E. B. Aldrich, Roy Alexander, Chas. E. Bond, Roy T. Bishop, C. M. Bishop, B. L. Burroughs, H. W. Collins, W. J. Dedman, Geo. A. Ferguson, William Gray, Dr. Elmer Hill, Geo. C. Hill, J. T. Lambirth, F. W. Lampkin, W. G. Lyons, M. T. Mil-larkey, Roy W. Ritner, C. Ernest Ruppe, Royal M. Sawtelle, W. Roy Saxton, Dan P. Smythe, Geo. Strand, Robert Stott, Edgar W. Smith.

Miss Margaret Lowell entertained at dinner the high school mid-year graduating class of which she is a member, at the home of her parents Judge and Mrs. Stephen A. Lowell on Thursday evening. Both the high school and class colors entered into the color scheme of the evening, purple and white predominating. The place cards, in white colors, the handiwork of Miss Claire Raley, were decorated with the violet, the class flower, and hinted at the predominating characteristic of each guest. Those present were, Misses Lucille and Hazel Rader, Edna Slater, Grace Cole and Hazel Means. An impromptu musical program filled the remainder of the evening.

Last week one half of the domestic science class of the Pendleton Academy entertained the other half and their teacher with a five course dinner. On Monday afternoon of this week, the second half of the class entertained the hostesses of the former occasion, their teacher and also a few invited guests at a five course dinner. The place cards were unique with descriptive verses and with cartoons of the guests in water colors. The young ladies are enthusiastic in their work and Mrs. Crayne is very much pleased with the progress which her pupils are making.

Miss Jennie Perry entertained a few friends at her home on South Main street Thursday evening in honor of Miss Josephine Cameron of Heppner. Consultation with the Ouzig board was the principal form of entertainment, the young ladies spending several hours in learning the mysteries of the future as manifested by the prophetic wizard. At a late hour dainty refreshments were served.

Mr. Wade Bailey of Spokane, son of Attorney D. W. Bailey of this city, is here as the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Robert F. Forster. Mr. Bailey was born in Pendleton and is now a graduate attorney at law with offices in Spokane. It was Mr. Bailey who made the stenographic report of the Spokane Indian reservation land drawing last summer.

Miss Sylvia Estes of Walla Walla, whose engagement to Mr. Jack Peak Hoben was announced last week, was among the out of town guests at the dancing party last night. She is the guest of Miss Genevieve Clarke.

Mrs. E. Bannister who has been the guest of her daughter Mrs. W. L. Thompson, left Thursday for Walla Walla, where she will visit for several days before returning to her home in Lewiston.

On Saturday evening Mrs. Willard Bond entertained a number of the younger girls very charmingly. The game of 500 was played and dainty refreshments served.

Miss Elba McGrew of Walla Walla, is the guest of friends in this city, having accompanied Mrs. E. F. Averil home from the Garden City yesterday morning.

Little Jack Wyrick, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wyrick is very ill and is reported to be gradually growing weaker. His life is despaired of.

Indianapolis Vagrant Holds Record for Living Without Money.

Indianapolis.—Bill Tomley has an unbeaten record for living without work and money. Bill who said he did not have any home, was arrested by Patrolman Jenkins on the charge of loitering. "How long has it been since you worked?" asked the prosecutor in police court.

"Well, let me see," replied Tomley, thoughtfully. "The last work I did was in 1873."

Judge Wallen assessed a fine of $1 and costs and Tomley was sent to the workhouse for failure to pay. He is about sixty-five years old and did not have the appearance of being a vagrant, his attire being in fairly good condition.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, brick-dust or sediment in the urine, head ache, back ache, lame back, dizziness, sleeplessness, nervousness, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and better health in that organ is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. Swamp-Root corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. A trial will convince anyone.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, and don't let a dealer sell you something in place of Swamp-Root—if you do you will be disappointed.
