BIG FINALE AT POULTRY SHOW

Last Night of Local Exhibition Will Be Fitting Finish to Successful Show.

ASSOCIATION MEETS AND DECIDES TO INCORPORATE

Twenty-five Dollars Worth of Prizes Will be Given Away in Drawing to-night—Show Has Been Best First Exhibition in Northwest—One Family Draws Three Prizes—Carrauths Orchestra Pleases People—Association Elect Officers.

- VALUABLE EGGS TO BE GIVEN AWAY
Five prizes of the total value of $25 will be given away at the big poultry show tonight.
These are as follows:
Buff Plymouth Rock Cockerel. Given by Mrs. B. F. Williams of Milton.
Setting of Buff Cochins. Given by J. E. Duke of Pendleton.
Setting of Buff Orpington eggs. Given by Windle Brothers of Lents.
Setting of Golden Wyandotte Eggs. Given by Dickinson of Levy of Walla Walla.
Setting Columbian Plymouth Rock Eggs. Given by Earl Williams of Milton.

The first annual exhibition of the Umatilla-Morrow County Poultry association will pass into history at 12 o'clock tonight.

According to Secretary Dickinson of the Walla Walla association and according to the representatives of the poultry journals who have been in attendance, Judge Eimer Dixon of Oregon City and Judge Frank Bred of College Place, it has been the best first show ever held in the northwest. Therefore while there is a possibility that there will be a small deficit financially the members of the association feel that they, as well as the city of Pendleton and the counties of Umatilla and Morrow, are to be congratulated.

While the receipts have not been large enough so far to cover the expenditures it was not due to lack of interest or support on the part of the citizens but due to the great amount of expense incident to the first show. The attendance every day and evening has been all that the management had hoped for or could expect and from present appearances the attendance this afternoon and evening will be the greatest of any day yet.

The orchestra program will commence this evening at 7:30 and will be over in time so that those who wish can stay for the full program and then go to the opera house to attend the home talent minstrel show. As the poultry show orchestra is to furnish the music for the minstrels there will be no danger of anyone being late.

The drawing will take place immediately at the close of the musical program and the prizes tonight are the most valuable of any given away yet. They will be five in number, consisting of a fine large cockerel and four settings of valuable eggs. The total value of the five prizes will be $25.00.

Lucky Family. A peculiar incidence of the show thus far was the drawings of a setting of eggs each last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wheeler. To make it the more remarkable, Mrs. Wheeler was lucky enough to hold the number which drew one of the cockerels given away the night before. She drew the eggs last evening on a ticket which had been handed to her a few minutes before by a friend who wanted to go home. The only condition attached to the egg prizes by the donors is that the eggs must be used for hatching purposes and not to satisfy hunger. The eggs are worth from $2.50 to $5 per setting and the ones who are giving them do not propose to furnish those kind of eggs to eat.

The program by the orchestra tonight should prove more popular than ever for the reason that Director Carruth has announced that his organization will play any piece they have played during the week, in addition to their regular program. If anyone has any favorites they are requested to make their wishes known to the director.

Association Will Incorporate. At the annual meeting of the Umatilla-Morrow County Poultry association held this morning in the parlors of the Commercial association it was decided to incorporate and place the association on a firm and business-like basis. The following committee was then named to make arrangements for the incorporation: W. E. Brock, R. Alexander, C. T. Bonney, Leon Cohen and H. Dickinson of Walla Walla. The latter is secretary of the Walla Walla association and also a member of the local organization. Many of the poultrymen of Umatilla and Walla Walla counties are members of both associations.

The election of officers resulted as follows: D. C. Gurdane, Heppner, president; Leon Cohen, Pendleton, first vice president; Earl Williams, Milton, second vice president; H. Dickinson, Walla Walla, third vice president; Charles Curtis, Sr., Hermiston, fourth vice president; L. B. Kleker, Irrigon, fifth vice president; R. W. Fletcher, treasurer; E. F. Averill, secretary, and Mrs. B. F. Williams of Milton, Fritz Bade of Freewater, and J. T. Brown of Pendleton, members of the executive committee.

SOCIALISTS DROWN ABSOLUTISM TALK

SUPPORTER OF KAISER STIRS UP HORNET'S NEST

Makes Speech in Reichstag Favoring Absolute Monarchy—Socialists Are Aroused, Shake Fists at Speaker and Create Wild Scene.

Berlin, Jan. 29.—Socialist members of the Reichstag today started a riot when Herr Von Oldenburg, a supporter of the kaiser, made a speech to favor an absolute monarchy. When the tenor of the speech became apparent the socialists began a demonstration in which infuriated members shook their fists in the face of the speaker, overturned desks and tables and attempted to drag him from his seat. Other socialists mounted chairs, or desks and shouted "Down with absolutism." Finally order was restored, when the speaker surrendered to the handicap of noises and disorder. It is believed the speech was inspired by the kaiser for the purpose of ascertaining the number of socialist adherents, and also for other political uses.

Chicago, Jan. 29.—The public statement concerning Col. T. L. Swope, the Kansas City millionaire, who died here is expected today. PARIS UNDER MARTIAL LAW

Authorities Decide That It Is Only Means of Rigidly Controlling Situation.

HUNGARY REFUGEES BREAK OPEN SHOPS, DEFYING POLICE

Big Subway Is In Danger of Collapsing—Loss Estimated at $250,000,000 With Probability of $50,000,000—More Officials Considering Construction of Great Horseshoe Canal to Carry Off Waters—Will Be Permanent Safeguard.

Paris, Jan. 29.—Martial law was proclaimed in Paris today. Authorities came to the conclusion that this is the only means of rigidly controlling the situation. Hungry refugees of the flooded districts increased their attacks on food shops this afternoon and in many instances openly defied the police. Adding to the danger that is apparent, is the announcement of engineers that the famous subway under the Seine is in danger of collapsing. Final estimates place the property loss at two hundred millions of dollars and a probability of fifty millions more resulting from the undermining of the city.

To Construct Horseshoe Canal. The authorities today are considering a plan for the construction of a great horseshoe shaped canal to carry off the flood waters and slime that covers the inundated sections of Paris. The canal will be a permanent character and would serve as a safeguard against future flood dangers.

Following the official announcement by the authorities that the flood has reached its crest and passed, the people of Paris are rejoicing in a frenzy of thanksgiving. At noon the riotous Seine had fallen three inches below its highest point during the last week and is still receding.

FIGHT 20 ROUNDS TO DRAW

Cyclone Thompson and Tommy McCarthy Have Fierce Battle.

San Francisco, Jan. 28.—Cyclone Johnny Thompson of Illinois and Tommy McCarthy of San Francisco, fought 20 furious rounds to a draw tonight. The fight was one of the fastest lightweight battles fought on the coast in years. Each man scored a knockdown.

McCarthy landed 10 times to Thompson's once, but the latter was the aggressor throughout which prompted Referee Eddie Hanlon to call the bout a draw. McCarthy floored his man in the first round and Thompson dropped the Californian in the fifth.

Thompson forced a terrific pace from start to finish, McCarthy contenting himself with backing away, all the while landing clean punches to the Cyclone's head and body. The Californian nearly won the battle in the first round when he shot out his left with terrific force and caught the Illinois fighter on the jaw. Thompson dropped like a log, the gong apparently saving him from defeat.

It was a case of continuous aggressiveness against continuous clean punches and Referee Hanlon decided that a draw was the only logical verdict to be given.

CLAIMS HE WAS HINDERED

Glavis Before Committee Testifies His Investigation of Fraud Was Impeded.

ALLEGES SEC. BALLINGER BLOCKED HIS EFFORTS

Deposed Chief of Field Division Still on Stand in Congressional Investigation of Charges Against Ballinger—Says he Attempted to Get Affidavit From Senator McLaughlin Regarding Alaska Coal Lands and Ballinger Interposed.

Washington, Jan. 29.—That attempts were made to hinder him in the investigation of the alleged coal land frauds of Alaska was the statement of Glavis today before the congressional committee. Glavis declared the attempts made to hinder him in the work of the Alaskan cases were made during conversations with Land Commissioner Bennett. In the course of testimony today Glavis said that at the time he came to Washington to get an affidavit from "a congressman." Later he said the congressman was McLaughlin of California. Glavis further amplified his statement by saying Secretary Ballinger had directed him not to obtain an affidavit from McLaughlin as to the congressman's alleged connection with the "Green" group of coal claims in Alaska. Glavis said "in an interview with Judge Ballinger in Washington, he told me there had been too much of that sort of thing in the past, and said I should not see him."

Glavis said further that he went to see Attorney General Wickersham to get him to set aside the decision of the assistant secretary of interior department on the Heyburn law. This decision held that the Heyburn law allowed the consolidation of certain classes of coal land and would include the disputed Alaska claims in this class. He said Ballinger heard of the request and asked him to withdraw a report that he had made as to the Pierce decision a few days before.

TO ELECT ROOSEVELT.

Boom started for Coalition of Hearst Forces and Insurgents to that End.

Minneapolis, Jan. 29.—Roosevelt as a candidate for president in 1912 through a coalition of the forces led by Hearst, the Independent League and the insurgent republicans is the boom started here today by Thomas L. Hisgen who was Hearst's nominee for president in 1908. Hisgen said that the Hearst forces alone, and the Independent League has no chance for success but he added the insurgents under LaFollette, Dolliver, Cummins, and Murdock would face a like condition should they attempt to fight the regular republican nominee single handed. He declared that by a coalition of these forces, Roosevelt is sure of election.

Minneapolis, Jan. 29.—Seeking to learn why the government failed to take up the boycott against the Standard Oil, that was recommended by Secretary of War Dickinson, the executive committee of the Independent Petroleum Makers Association of America is preparing today to ask for a congressional investigation of the matter. Despite Dickinson's declaration against the purchase of Standard oil for army use, the government continued its use.

LONE SURVIVOR TELLS TALE.

Harry Kentzell of Wrecked Steamer Czarina Tells of Awful Storm.

San Francisco, Jan. 29.—Harry Kentzell, assistant engineer, and the only survivor of the crew of the steamer Czarina, retold the story today of the wrecking of that vessel off Coos Bay on January 12, in which 30 lives were lost, at the investigation that is being conducted by United States Inspector Bolles and Bulger.

He stated that the utter futility of the life saving crew to launch a boat could be plainly seen with glasses from the deck of the sinking collier. His last conversation with Captain Charles J. Duggan, said Kentzell, concerned a piece of chewing tobacco.

Kentzell, who was the only member of the crew who could not swim, was washed upon the beach unconscious and was quickly dragged ashore by watchers before a receding wave could sweep him back.

Nothing new concerning the disaster developed at the inquiry today.

ENGLAND AND RUSSIA MAY FACE SERIOUS PROBLEM

St. Petersburg, Jan. 29.—Already people of Turkestan are becoming restive over the reports of massacres and looting. Civil war is threatened northward of Boghara through Turkestan by the dismissal of the prime minister who was suspected of instigating the conflict. The dismissal of the official, however, failed to check the war. The foreign office here refuses to discuss the plaps of Russia in connection with the movement of troops to the Indian frontier. It is known there that maybe grave questions are behind the quasi revolt which may bring Russia and England face to face with the problem that neither nation is ready to solve at present, that of the political control of seaports on the Indian ocean.

TERRIBLE BLIZZARD RAGES IN ENGLAND

Northern Villages Isolated by Interrupted Communication—Six Reported Drowned When French Schooner Founders—Whole Crew Rumored Lost.

London, Jan. 29.—The worst blizzard in the last twenty years swept northern England today. The northern villages are isolated by an interruption of the railways and telegraph service. Snow is twenty feet on the level, blocking train traffic, while gales have borne down the sleet laden wires. The crew of the schooner "Four Brothers" is said to have drowned when the vessel was driven on the north Wales coast.

Denver, Jan. 28.—Municipal ownership of the water system of Denver is favored by Mayor Robert W. Speer in his annual budget submitted to the city council tonight. He recommends the purchase of the Denver Union Water company's plant, at an appraisal valuation of $14,400,000. ARNOLD'S FATE IS PENDING

Attorneys For Both Sides Close Arguments and Case Goes to Jury.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY PHELPS MAKES LENGTHY ARGUMENT

Taking of Testimony in Murder Trial Concluded Yesterday Afternoon District Attorney Stewler Opens Arguments and Is Followed by Watts for Defense—Peterson and Phelps Wind Up Long Case—Judge's Instructions Are Brief.

Case With the Jury.

The fate of Claude Arnold now rests with the jury that is trying his case. Shortly after 3 o'clock this afternoon Judge Bean finished the charge to the jury and the 12 men retired to agree upon a verdict.

With the argument of counsel both for the state and for the defense, the Arnold murder trial is drawing to a close after holding the boards at the court house for a full week. In point of attendance it has been the biggest drawing card in the entire history of criminal trials for many years. The crowd has filled the court room to overflowing from the very first day and even with the argument there has been no diminishing in the interest.

The taking of testimony was concluded yesterday afternoon shortly after court reconvened after the noon adjournment. Mr. Phelps for the state, rested after introducing a few witnesses to impeach the testimony of the principal witnesses for the defense and then announced that he rested. Attorneys for the defense closed their case and the forensic display opened up.

Assistant District Attorney Frederick Stewler opened for the state with a demand for the conviction of the defendant. He was followed by Attorney Homer I. Watts for the defendant. Mr. Watts held the floor for nearly two hours and was followed by his associate in the defense, Will M. Peterson. When the hour for adjournment arrived last evening, Mr. Peterson was still speaking and resumed his argument this morning.

District Attorney Phelps made the closing argument for the state and he went over the entire case, pointing out to the jury the testimony, circumstances and details upon which the state stood for conviction. His argument was lengthy, occupying nearly the entire forenoon and part of the afternoon, but it was a very logical presentation of the string of circumstantial evidence upon which the state is relying for a conviction.

At the conclusion of the arguments the court instructed the jury. The instructions were shorter than in most murder cases for the reason that in this case there was no question of self-defense or any other defense involved. The only question was guilty or not guilty and the court instructed the jury on the law governing this.

There were no startling developments or denouements in the case. Attorneys for the defense often interrupted Mr. Phelps in his argument to object to what he was saying or to put in some side remark.

LOCAL PHONE MANAGER GOES TO ACCEPT ABERDEEN JOB

L. G. McLellan, Pendleton manager for the Pacific Telephone company during the past year, has resigned his position in order to take a similar position with the same company at Aberdeen, Wash. He is to leave here tomorrow or Monday. Up to this time no successor has been found for Mr. McLellan and temporarily the commercial work at the local office will be left in the hands of Miss

Cook, the recorder. According to Mr. McLellan he will leave Pendleton with much regret and says that during his stay here his relations with the public and likewise with the force under him were very pleasant. However, Aberdeen is a larger city and as the change is in the nature of a promotion and involves a larger salary he did not see fit to decline the offer.
