IN TROUBLE AGAIN

MRS. JOHNSON FACES STILL ANOTHER CHARGE

Woman Well Known in This City
Wanted for Swindling Portland
Man of $50 Four Years Ago Still Languishes in Vancouver Jail.

According to the Portland Journal, Mrs. Maud Baney, of Johnson or Hazelton, or whatever her name is, will have still another charge pending against her when the Vancouver, Washington, case is disposed of. This time she is wanted in Portland on the charge of buncoing a man out of $50.

The following is the Journal story: Myra Baney, "Queen of Women Fakers" has been charged in the municipal court with working a bunco game four years ago on Adam Diller, 1230 East Salmon street, for $50. The woman has gained considerable notoriety the past few years by bringing personal injury suits against street railway companies, and by other bunco games. She is now on trial at Vancouver, Wash., for attempting to get a sum of money from the railway company there for an alleged injury.

Diller is a retired fruit grower, and alleges the woman came to his home May 15, 1906, and wanted to borrow $50. She gave a mortgage on a horse and buggy, cow and calf, and four chicken incubators. She drove to his home in a livery rig, which she represented was her property. The two went to her home at 1497 East Pine street, where she showed him the cow and calf and incubators, and received the money.

Just before the mortgage was due Diller discovered that the mortgage was no good, and began a search for the woman. She could not be found, but was later located in Washington and was the plaintiff in a personal injury suit against the Spokane street railway company.

Mr. Diller made the complaint this morning to the district attorney and a warrant was issued for her arrest and she will be held in case the Vancouver case is dismissed. He says she told him she wanted the money to pay a physician's bill for a sick sister.

The woman has gone by several names, but the most frequent one used was Mrs. Johnson. Her method of operation was to get injured on a street car, and bring suit. It has also been discovered that the cow and calf which she mortgaged to Diller was also mortgaged the previous day to another man.

Household Remedies
which have stood the test of time deserve a place in the medicine chest of every family. Mothers are today administering to their children the remedies their grandmothers used.

For thirty years, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been curing the women of this country from the worst form of female ill, and merit alone could have stood such a test of time and won such an enviable record.

WINSLOW IS POPULAR.

Consul-General to Sweden Is Great Aid to Americans.

Stockholm.—Americans who come to Sweden, and who for business reasons come in contact with their consul-general here, are unanimous in his praise. Consul-General Winslow, who has been accredited to Sweden for about a year, is always ready to advise American business men, and as he speaks Swedish fluently, he is able to give them valuable assistance in their business affairs. Consul-General and Mrs. Winslow also entertain most lavishly, which they are able to do on their large private means, independent of the consul's official salary. The Winslows come from Chicago and their daughter is studying music in Berlin.

Won't Need a Crutch.

When Editor J. P. Sossman, of Cornellus, N. C., bruised his leg badly, it started an ugly sore. Many salves and ointments proved worthless. Then Bucklen's Arnica salve healed it thoroughly. Nothing is so prompt and sure for ulcers, boils, burns, bruises, cuts, corns, sores, pimples, eczema or piles, 25c at Tallman & Co.

Scotch Drinking Less.

Edinburgh.—The budget has already had its effect in making the Scotch a soberer nation. Official statistics published here show that since the higher duty was imposed on whisky there has been a reduction of 2900 in the number of arrests for drunkenness. In other Scottish cities there has been a similar diminution in alcoholic crime, notably in Dundee, where last year there were 1864 arrests for drunkenness, compared with 2885 in 1908. These significant facts seem to confirm the Scotchman's reputation for carelessness in expenditure.
