To Spend Some Money. "We expect to spend on average or one thousand dollars per day from the time we commence construction, right along for several years. It takes all these things to develop the country and to bring its trade and people into the city and make Pendleton what circumstance and natural resources its tributary territory intended it should be-the metropolis and Spokane of astern Oregon.

"Heretofore Pendleton has been pottled up and restricted in such a way as made its growth and development of its tributary country well nigh impossible, but now from the first day that the electric traction lines start construction, on their way into hich territory of the Umatilla irrigation project land, and other lines up into the limitless timber belt, farming and dairying county, and to the hot springs around Uklah, the last of the business apathy will be seen here, and instead such live hustling activity and growth in business and property or contemplated in the near future."

WOULD CONSIGN JOHN D. TO TORTURES OF HELI

Washington. Feb. 18 .- Senator Jeff Davis of Arkansas startled the senate today with a declaration that he would like to see John D. Fockefeller consigned to perdition and burned in flames from the burning products of the Standard Oll company.

He spoke in opposition to a bill authorizing an oil and gas pipe line across public lands of Arkansas. Accusing Senator Owen of Oklahoma. sponsor of the bill, with a business connection with the Standard Ol company, he engaged in a spirited colloquy with that senator.

The bill had been passed at a previous session of the senate and recalled by Mr. Owen to accommodate Mr. Davis. In his speech Mr. Davis contended that the admission of the pipe line into Arkansas would violate the anti-trust laws of his state, saying that hell was the only place he Oil company's pipe line enter, he added that he would also be glad to see Mr. Rockefeller incinerated in the flames caused by his own oil."
